EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. LORD, Jr. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, before we proceed to the consideration of the Calendar, I desire to ask leave of the Senate to have spread in the Legislative Journal a petition from The Committee of Western Pennsylvania Hungarian Churches and Societies for the Defense of Human Rights. Of course, we in the Pennsylvania State Senate have nothing to do with national or international law, but they have asked that we take cognizance of what is going on in Hungary today and protest against the violation of the principles of the Atlantic Charter, which are completely ignored by the imprisonment of Lajos Ordass, Lutheran Bishop, and the prince-Primate, Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty. They ask that we take cognizance of what is going on in Hungary today.

Part of protest reads in part as follows:

"We protest, because of the violation of the principles of the Atlantic Charter, the complete ignoring of the promises made at Teheran and Yalta and the treacherous scrapping of this country's treaty with Hungary, Article 2, Section I, Part II of which reads as follows:

"Hungary shall take all measures necessary to secure to all persons under Hungarian jurisdiction, without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion, the enjoyment of human rights and of the fundamental freedoms, including freedom of expression, of press and publication, of religious worship, of political opinion and of public meeting."

Their protest, of course, is to the imprisonment of Lajos Ordass, Lutheran Bishop, and to the arrest of the Prince-Primate, Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, asks that the protest be spread on the Legislative Journal. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the protest will be spread on the Legislative Journal.

COMMITTEE OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA HUNGARIAN CHURCHES AND SOCIETIES FOR THE DEFENSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS

(Not a Red-Front Organization)

The imprisonment of Lajos Ordass, Lutheran Bishop, and especially the arrest of Prince-Primate, Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, Archbishop, has justly shocked the whole world! The communist satellite government of Hungary, following Moscow methods, is trodding under foot Hungarian national, christian traditions and is liquidating human rights guaranteed by International agreements.

Therefore We, free Hungarian-Americans of Western Pennsylvania, united within the Churches and Societies listed below, in place of our brothers across the sea, deprived as they are of all freedom and rights,

DO PROTEST, BEFORE THE AUTHORITIES OF AMERICA AND THE FREEROM-LOVING PEOPLE OF AMERICA, AGAINST ALL THAT IS TAKING PLACE IN PRESENT-DAY HUNGARY:

We Protest, without distinction of creed, as American citizens who, either in person or through our children, grandchildren or brothers fought for the very human rights and ideals of freedom which one of the victorious powers is now denying to the Hungarian people!

We Protest, because of the violation of the principles of the Atlantic Charter, the complete ignoring of the promises made at Teheran and Yalta and the treacherous scrapping of this Country's treaty with Hungary, Article 2, Section I, Part II of which reads as follows: "Hungary shall take all measures necessary to secure to all persons under Hungarian jurisdiction, without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion, the enjoyment of human rights and of the fundamental freedoms, including freedom of expression, of press and publication, of religious worship, of political opinion and of public meeting."

We Therefore Petition the rectification of violated rights, the restoration of freedom in Hungary, the liberation of Bishop Lajos Ordass, Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty and all others, lay and clergy, who, because of their religious convictions, are being tortured, imprisoned, exiled to Siberia or placed in concentration camps!

In order that we, who still by the grace of God, enjoy the blessings of true freedom, may get a correct picture of events as they take place.

We Further Petition this Government to send official observers to the approaching trial of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty.

THE BLOOD OF TODAY'S ABELS CRIES TO HEAVEN!

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 67, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1046), entitled "An act providing for equalization of assessed valuations of real property throughout the Commonwealth for use in determining the amount and allocation of Commonwealth subsidies to school districts; creating a State Tax Equalization Board; and prescribing its powers and duties; imposing duties on certain local officers, agents, boards, commissions and departments; and making an appropriation," by changing the time for the beginning of the use of market values for the determination and apportionment of Commonwealth subsidies.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 182, as follows:

An Act providing for the acquisition by the Department of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth of certain land in Dauphin County for use of the various State departments, boards and commissions and making an appropriation.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 For the purpose of acquiring a tract of approximately twenty-four (24) acres in the City of Harrisburg Dauphin County upon which is erected a modern industrial plant formerly occupied by the Harrisburg Steel Company the Department of Property and Supplies is hereby authorized to acquire in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the area above generally described which is now being offered for sale at auction by War Assets Administration.

Section 2 The Secretary of Property and Supplies is hereby authorized to make the deposit of approximately ten thousand dollars ($10,000) required to be made at the time of the auction sale and to bid such price for said land and buildings as shall be deemed by him to be fair and reasonable subject to the approval of the Governor. If the Commonwealth is the successive bidder such additional deposits shall be made as are required by the terms of the sale. Any funds appropriated by the General Assembly to the Department of Property and Supplies for any other purpose shall be available for the purposes herein.

The title to the property shall be approved by the Department of Justice.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, when this bill first appeared on the Calendar, I did not give it much attention, because I thought it was an ordinary piece of legislation, an enabling act that would allow the state of Pennsylvania to engage in an open bid on some surplus property now owned by the federal government. However, since last week, I have had some information given to me, and I would like to present it to the Senate for whatever worth it may be.

It seems, Mr. President, this particular building is a steel constructed property containing about 225,000 square feet, and a little over 8 million cubic feet of space. It was known as the Harrisburg Steel Company Plant No. 2 during the war, and was built for steel production and fabrication work.

Recently, the President of the United States, in a speech before the Joint Session, asked the steel industry of the nation to meet the challenge presented to that industry because of the fact that steel fabrication has reached a point where it is going to hold up a great many allied industries because of the bottle-neck in steel.

Now, it seems inconceivable at this time, when the shortage of steel producing and fabricating facilities in this nation are so great that the President had to say, in effect, that if the industry itself would not accept federal aid and federal loans to construct buildings and facilities to meet the demands of the day, that the federal government would find it possible, and probable to go into the steel industry itself. None of us want that to happen, and therefore, when this particular building which is all equipped and ready for a steel fabricator's use is to be sold at a public auction, and I understand from the information I have that steel companies want to bid for that building and object to the state of Pennsylvania injecting itself into the picture as a possible purchaser, for the simple reason that the State will be able to outbid any individual corporation seeking this property, because we all know that the State would have no worries about amortization of the cost of it. However, if this building can be used and will be used for the purpose for which it was constructed, then it is wrong for the State to buy it or to bid upon it.

As I understand the picture, it employed 2800 men at one time. I do not know why it is idle at this particular moment, but I do know that you do not destroy something that was built for a specific purpose, when there is still a need for that particular type of building or that particular type of property. Somewhere along the line, some producer of steel will come along and buy that building. Friday, I understand is the dead-line.

Mr. President, I do not know the other side of the story, and I am willing to listen to it, I am willing to know why the State is anxious to purchase this particular property. I want to know what the advantage would be to the State, I want to know why they are anxious to buy it.

If anybody can convince me that it would be more proper for the State to buy that building than to construct a new one, then I may decide to vote for the bill, but at the present moment, without any prejudice whatsoever, from the information and the inclination that I have, I would vote "no" on this piece of legislation.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I appreciate the concern of the gentleman from Westmoreland and I do hope that it will be possible for me to at least explain to him why we think the State should be authorized at least to make a bid on the property involved.

First, may I make a couple of minor corrections, at least they are corrections in my estimation. I always understood that the shortage in the steel industry was in the steel production, and not in fabrication. I understand this was a fabricating plant during the war, and when the war ceased, the plant was dismantled—I guess that would be the proper term—and the Harrisburg Steel Company moved out of their Plant No. 2 back into their original Plant No. 1. Eventually the property came into the hands of the War Assets Administration, and they attempted repeatedly to obtain a tenant or a purchaser for the property, but were unable to get any one interested, that is, any steel company or any fabricator or any assembly plant interested in obtaining the property and opening it up as a production plant.

We, too, Mr. President, would be very reluctant to remove from any active production list a plant that might be returned to productivity in the industrial life of Pennsylvania, but as we understand the problem, the War Assets Administration has been unable to get any steel company or any producer or fabricator or any assembly company interested in taking this plant over. The last last thing in the world the War Assets Administration, which is a federal agency, would want to do would be to remove from the production list a plant that might be utilized in this industrial state and in this industrial area. Because of their inability to obtain some one who will take the plant over and operate it as a steel plant, they have placed it on the bidding list, and have put it up for auction on February 11. The Department of Property and Supplies was notified or became aware of this fact late last week, and that is the reason for rush action on the bill. We think, and the newspaper comments that followed the introduction of the bill increased our opinion of the fact that we were doing the right thing in trying to obtain this property for the Commonwealth.

As I understand it, Mr. President—and I am passing this information on because I appreciate the fact that the gentleman from Westmoreland and I are more or less thinking out loud, trying to arrive at a common decision on this problem—twice this property has been up for sale, and in no instance could they get anyone interested. As I understand it, the neighboring plant, The Harrisburg Steel Corporation was offered the property, and they said they were not interested.

Now, for the information of the Senate, Mr. President, these are statistics or figures or comments that were pointed to me by the Department of Property and Supplies.

The State is constantly behind in the race to provide space to keep up with the growth of government. The Capitol buildings are full, the temporary buildings are full and the state is currently renting 91,000 square feet of space in the city of Harrisburg for offices, at a cost of $138,000 a year. This does not include the buildings occupied by the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation.

If the General State Authority is created it must be housed. The School Buildings Authority has not been located. The proposed Housing Subsidy will add a function. Requests for more space from two departments of the Capitol are before the Department of Property and Supplies now with no solution in sight, and if I might interject here, Mr. President, the third supplement to the Department is here in this very room, because the Senate of Pennsylvania is also looking for additional space.

Now, with regard to the garage space that is available, the state's automobiles of both the temporary fleet and those assigned to the departments are too many to be housed in the garage at 38 North Cameron Street, which the state has been renting for twenty years. The cellar and the second floor are full of cars with only a single elevator for access to both places. It is necessary to load the first floor with cars to the doors each night and move ten to twenty of them to the street in order to get the garage into operation in the morning. If there should be a fire in the garage at night when it is filled, the state stands to lose at least $150,000 and suffer untold inconvenience in the replacement of its vehicles.

In addition to the active garage at 38 North Cameron Street there are inactive storage quarters for 28 cars under the State Street Bridge and at Twenty-first and Herr Streets for 40 cars.

The Commonwealth is renting 70,000 square feet of storage space in Harrisburg at a cost of $37,000 a year. The cost of heat, light and so forth requires an additional estimated $6,000 a year. More space is needed. Recently a lift truck has been bought for the paper storage at Tenth and Market Streets in order to make more space available there. The Department of Property and Supplies has insufficient paper storage space and entirely inadequate supply storage space to serve the departments in Harrisburg and the institutions in the field.

Now, Mr. President, here is a list of the items that will make this plant a likely prospect to the Department of Property and Supplies.

It is proposed that the State bid to buy the War Assets Plant at 1400 North Cameron Street, and here are the physical properties involved.

1. 24 acres of ground.
2. A 21,000 square feet office building.
3. A five acre industrial building comprising, I am told, 225,000 square feet.
4. 13 auxiliary buildings with 129,400 square feet.
5. 8 Penna. Rail Road Sidings.
6. Undercover unloading facilities for 4 to 6 cars.
7. Unloading docks for trucks.
8. Complete heating equipment and light and power facilities.
9. These buildings cost the government $3,800,000 for land and buildings.
10. Is subject to a Federal "Dormant Estate" for 20 years in case of war emergency.
11. Both office and factory buildings are above the 1936 flood level.

Now, Mr. President, it is the hope of the Department of Property and Supplies that this bill will pass the Senate today, so that the House can act on the bill before Friday of this week, because this bill authorizes the Department to make a bid on behalf of the Commonwealth. If the Commonwealth is the successful bidder, then the various areas involved in the purchase of the type of property represented here can be utilized by these departments, boards and bureaus, that have been set forth by the Department of Property and Supplies. It is the estimate of the Department that within a four year period enough money would be saved on rents to compensate the Commonwealth for the purchase price which would be paid in this instance.

Mr. President, I might say that one of the comments which I heard was to the effect that we would be taking property off the tax list of the city of Harrisburg. I am advised by competent lawyers here in the Senate that the property is now in the hands of the War Assets Administration and therefore at the present time is not on the tax list so that is a consideration which is not in issue at this time.

I agree with the gentleman from Westmoreland that we are reluctant at any time to remove industrial manufacturing facilities when they are needed. We have been reliably advised that in this instance this is not an industrial plant that is being requested by manufacturers or assembly plants, and that therefore it will be available to the Commonwealth, and that is why we are asking permission to make a bid.

I would therefore urge the Senate to give the Department of Property and Supplies the opportunity to at least bid on behalf of the Commonwealth, so that this physical plant will be available for the problems that are being presented to our state government departments.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. WALKER. I will be glad to, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Senator Walker, do you know that this particular piece of property is still contained in the National Security Administration of the Federal government, and in the contract of purchase there will be a national security clause that the United States Government will have a dormant estate interest in it for twenty years.

Mr. WALKER. That is correct. I am advised that there will be a recapture clause in the contract that if at any time within twenty years, if the government would become involved in a war, the government can request the plant back.

I say this to the gentleman from Westmoreland, as a further answer to that problem, if there was not a recapture clause in this sales contract, and we would become involved in a war with any other nation, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania irregardless of a recapture clause, would be very happy to surrender to the Federal government in time of war, any property we have that might contribute to the war effort.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, that is fine, and I accept the answer with all the glories attached to it. I understand that we are all very proud at all times to give anything we have to the defense of our country, including all of the blood that we might spill here on the Senate floor. However, to me it was a question of whether or not we should spend so much money to rehabilitate this place to make it into an efficient office, when you picture in your mind a building of 225,000 square feet factory space. Do not forget there would be a dormant clause therein, and you will have to protect and hold safe and secure to the Federal Government for fifteen years the construction appurtenances, and the machinery for ten years, and so on. However, that is only getting into an involved picture, and I think for the reasons that I had in mind, anyway, that we could settle this whole thing immediately if we would amend this particular bill to say that if the State of Pennsylvania is entering into the bidding, so long as a steel fabricating concern wants to buy the building and enters its bid for the building, the State should not bid against it. That would settle the whole thing and we would not take the plant out of production. If some steel fabricator wants to buy the building, let him buy it and put it into use as a steel fabricating plant, and let the State build its building wherever it wants to. However, if, as you say, no steel fabricator wants it, then the State could go ahead and bid it in and buy it on Friday, and no one would be hurt.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, of course, the gentleman from Westmoreland will understand—and this is a collateral statement—if any individual corporation desires to enter a bid on February 11, and I would like to make one slight correction in the discussion that has been held here on the floor, and that is on the question of amortization of the bid price. If my information is correct, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania could not amortize this, but a private corporation could. We are obliged to charge off in the biennium any money that is spent, and they do not carry amortization figures. That is my understanding. Perhaps Mr. Yosko could enlighten us on that particular phase of it.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, that is what I meant by saying the State would not be worried. If a steel fabricator has to buy the plant he has to figure then against the cost of the plant, against the possible earning capacity of the plant on the number of use years, whereas the State can buy it and the State can pay the cost of it from the taxes that are paid by the people.

I only say, if the State needs it and the State wants it and no one else wants it, the State ought to buy it, but if a steel fabricator wants it, I say the steel fabricator ought to be given first choice to buy it.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am afraid the Majority Floor Leader has been misinformed on a number of the points that he brought out today. I do not think that he did it purposely, I think he got the wrong information.

First of all, Mr. President, the City of Harrisburg did collect taxes in 1948 on this building.

The next thing is the Department of Commerce did not know the building was vacant, and I am awfully much surprised to know that after the amount of money we have been spending to advertise to bring industry here, the Department of Commerce was asleep all along and did not know that there was an empty factory here that could have been used.

Now, the next thing is that the gentleman from Allegheny failed to tell that when the first bid was made, there were a number of companies who bid on it. Those bids were rejected because they claimed they did not bid high enough. Now, the second time it was advertised for bids, there was a great scare in America that the cold war might become a hot war, and the United States Air Forces stepped in at the time it was about to be bought, and stopped the sale. The International Chemical Company had a bid in at the same time. At the present time, one of the large steel companies in the state is trying their best to secure this plant to do fabricating work.

Now, there is another thing, too, that the buying of this plant by the state is not the entire matter. According to actual bidding, it would require to put this building in shape, for just ordinary equipment and things that would be absolutely necessary, before we could even start, by actual bidding by concerns that you Republicans know, because they do a lot of work in the state, some of them are from Harrisburg, the actual bidding was $207,500 which would have to be done in repairs.

Now, due to the size of the building, the height of it, and so forth, the contractor on the heating states there will only be certain things allowed to be stored in that building, due to the terrible question of heat.

Therefore, Mr. President, I believe this bill should be put up to a public hearing and let us hear from the Department of Commerce, let us hear from the local Chamber of Commerce, and let us find out if the people of Harrisburg want to drive out a factory that would employ close to 2800 people, and why they want to drive it out.

I think all local communities need taxes, and also the State of Pennsylvania likes to get taxes from industry, and an industry of that type, which employs 2800 men, should certainly pay a considerable amount of taxes to the state.

I do not think it is in plan with the Duff program that we have been reading about in all of the magazines, the national magazines about bringing industry into Pennsylvania. Here is an actual case where the Majority party is trying to drive out industry that is willing to come into Pennsylvania, and I happen to know that a steel company right today is dickering for this place. It was bid on before, and the bids were turned down because they were too low, and the second time it was bid on the United States Air Forces came in and stopped the bidding.

Therefore, Mr. President, I believe the Majority Leader has been misinformed by someone within the administration, and is not acquainted with the entire problem. Because the plant itself, to be adaptable, will cost more than it would to build an entire new plant that the state wants.

Therefore, Mr. President, I am going to ask that this bill be put over, until the authorities, the Chamber of Commerce of Harrisburg and the different other interests in Harrisburg, who are interested in keeping the plant here, be permitted to at least inform correctly the members of the Senate on the status of this factory.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I will object to the bill going over in order, to dispose of first things first.

Secondly, I would like to say to the gentleman from Allegheny, that I am not for a minute completely conversant with all of the intimate details of this transaction because it certainly would be hypocrisy for me to stand here and discuss a bill that was introduced last week on the theory that I was completely conversant with it.

However, there are a couple of points where the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland—he has complete possession of all the facts and figures—has been led just a little astray.

In the first place the date for the public auction was not set by the Majority Party, or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or the Minority Party in the Senate. The date of the auction was set by the War Assets Administration, which is this Friday, and if we are going to pass this bill at all, we must pass it today and send it over to the House so that the House can get at it, and if they pass it, the Governor can sign it, and the Department of Property and Supplies will be in a position to make a bid. Now, if we do not get this authority to them before the auctioneer starts to "wag" his hammer there is no sense in our wasting the time discussing the matter.

The gentleman from Allegheny must appreciate the fact that time is of the essence in the problem we are considering and his suggestion that we build a building to house all of these various offices or to seek the floor space that we desire, certainly begs the time issue, because that is very thing we are trying to defeat.

Mr. President, I most seriously and earnestly suggest to the Senate that action must be taken today in order to put this across.

I might say to the gentleman from Allegheny, not that he is going to be interested in figures, that I also have been furnished with a set of figures, as to approximately how much it would cost to put the building in first class condition for occupancy. My calculations have been broken down into a series of figures, and the total, Mr. President, is $163,075. The gentleman from Allegheny will see from that figure that we are not very far apart, and it looks like we will be able to get it into shape at a comparatively reasonable figure.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny state whether or not he is in favor of having the State meet in competition with industry to acquire a plant in Harrisburg. I want, yes or no.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the answer to that academic question would be, no.

Now, Mr. President, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny a question?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. HOLLAND. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, if it is not true that if any steel company or any industry or fabricating plant in the United States is willing to buy this plant, they can seek recourse to the War Assets Administration, who has charge of this sale, any time between now and February 11, and the War Assets Administration can take this plan off the bidding block, but they do not have to seek recourse in this way. If they have a plant that wants to get in here, they can get it in, and the gentleman from Allegheny well knows that.

Mr. President, when the United Air Forces stopped the bidding the second time this was put before the public, they were hopeful they could find somebody willing to take this white elephant over, but they couldn't find any one who wanted it. If the gentleman from Allegheny has a customer for this plant and if he so advises the War Assets Administration, and it is a sincere offer, they will take it off the bidding block.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am not a lawyer, so I can not get a customer.

I resent the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, because I am not in that kind of business, but I am interested in having people work, whether they live in Harrisburg or Pittsburgh, and the gentleman knows very well that he is telling an untruth. The Air Forces took this off the auction block, and it was taken off for one reason, because at that time they were afraid that the cold war was going into a hot war, and you know it too, as well as I do, and the men who told you know as well as I do.

If the state wants to compete with business, then let them go ahead and pass this bill.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, as a junior member of this body, I would like to make a few remarks before we take the roll call on this measure.

I think that it ill behooves the Senate of Pennsylvania, the Assembly of Pennsylvania, to enter into competition with business in a matter that might affect the workers, the people of Dauphin County, the City of Harrisburg and its vicinity. Certainly, we here recognize the fact that previous to commencement of hostilities in 1941, Pennsylvania had been in the unenviable position of having gradually been losing industry, due to a westward trend of population and markets. Certainly we do not fail to recognize the fact that huge basic industries in the State of Pennsylvania, long established in the State of Pennsylvania, had been moving westward, to Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, getting closer to the market, because of restrictive freight rates and getting closer to the component materials.

Now, Mr. President, we have in the city of Harrisburg a plant with a potential employment of 2800 men, and we in the Senate of Pennsylvania sit here and consider taking that potential out of this area. I think that we might as well rest, and I am thinking for example, of a similar situation in the city of New Castle, where we had a plant operated by the Aluminum Company of America during the war, which employed some 800 people. In July of 1945, the plant ceased to operate, the emergency was over. Three times this plant was offered at auction with no takers. Last Friday, some three years later, a company did buy it, and to the City of New Castle, to the workers and the people thereof, will come job opportunities for some 3500 workers.

In Ellwood City, Pennsylvania, we had a similar situation, and a deal has been closed there that will bring 500 workers into that area.

Now, Mr. President, due to a change in the basing point practice of industry throughout America, because of a Supreme Court decision on that practice in June of 1948, we, in Pennsylvania, for the first time, due to our basic production, have an opportunity to attract to the State of Pennsylvania fabricators. Certainly there may be no steel company in a position at this time to offer a bid on Friday for this plant, but I think that we might well stay our action for another five or six months. The whole market area throughout America is shifting due to the change in the basing point practice of industry. The Chambers of Commerce, the City Fathers throughout the State of Pennsylvania, because we are the great basic production center of America, are receiving inquiries day by day as to plant facilities vacant, and here in the City of Harrisburg we have a plant vacant, ready for occupancy. I think we might well consider our action here today, and permit, in a period of a few months, industry to investigate the possibilities of locating here, and then if no action is taken, let us go to the War Assets Administration, and say we would like to have this plant for the use of the State of Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, may I ask how the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Taylor, voted?

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Taylor, is recorded as having voted in the affirmative.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL No. 99

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 99, entitled:

An Act to add a new section to article two of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1001), entitled, as amended, "An act providing for the regulation of aeronautics within this Commonwealth; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission and the Department of Revenue in respect thereto; providing for the licensing and registration of airman and aircraft; establishing the legal status of air navigation; providing for sovereignty in, and ownership of, space; providing for lawfulness of flights; regulating civil causes of action arising out of operation of aircraft; fixing the status of contracts, crimes, and torts in, by, or by means of operation of aircraft; imposing duties upon officers, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and clerks thereof; providing for denial or revocation of licenses; providing for certain penalties and their disposition; and repealing certain existing laws," defining the Commonwealth airways system.

with the information that the House has passed the same without amendments.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, you will recall that on January 17, I wrote a letter to those members of the House and Senate that have toll bridges in their districts. A short time after the letters were delivered, you will recall that the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade, took exception to or objected to the procedure that I had suggested, which was to draft fool proof legislation to eliminate toll bridges.

Now, first he said that my method was the wrong way, and secondly he objected to my giving the letters to the newspapers, although he himself made statements to the press prior to the time the Legislature convened, and since January 17, and you will recall that the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Tarr, at that time, in the debate, stated that the people in his own district were saying on the streets that the Members of the Legislature did not want to free the toll bridges in Pennsylvania because every time a bill was approved, it was declared illegal or unconstitutional.

Mr. President, the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade, on January 24, and I am looking at the Legislative Journal, on the floor of the Senate, stated that four Attorneys General in collaboration with the Governor, and himself, and Senator Taylor, were working on fool proof toll bridge legislation, and that it would be ready for introduction the next week—that was on January 24.

I am looking at a newspaper, the date of it is Thursday, January 27. It is the Point Marian News, and across the headlines, it states: "May Present Free Bridge Legislation Next Week." I think this newspaper is printed in Senator Tarr's district, and there are statements here made in the news column, made by Senator Wade, of Cumberland.

Frankly, Mr. President, I have a radio program every Sunday afternoon, and for the past couple of weeks, at least, I have told the radio audience that I would discuss these toll bridge bills that the Senator stated, on January 24, would be presented the following week. I listened today, and I noted that although a couple of weeks have passed, the bills have not been introduced, and because they have not been, due to the fact that statements have been made that they would be presented, the people I suppose have the right to believe that we do not want to pass legislation freeing the toll bridges.

Mr. President, at this time I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Cumberland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WADE. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Wade, in view of the statements that you made, and I am assuming that you are in touch with the four Attorneys General on the progress of drafting these bills to free the toll bridges, when do you think they will be introduced?

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, first may I correct the gentleman from Northampton, Senator Yosko. If I said four Attorneys General were working on the project, I should like to correct the record. I stated that four attorneys were working on it, two of which are Attorneys General of the Commonwealth.

Secondly, in answer to his interrogation, I should like to say that after a conference late last week, I believe the bills will be ready for introduction this week, at the latest early next week.

Mr. YOSKO. Thank you very much, Senator Wade. I hope that next week will be the last week, and I hope that the bills, when presented, will be fool proof bills.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I should like again to say to the members of the Senate, and to Senator Yosko in particular, as I said on the floor of the Senate some few weeks back, that the introduction of our plan, embodying several bills, does not preclude the possibility of other plans, and we would welcome his plan. Again I say, let us get the job done. I am in thorough accord with Senator Yosko, Senator Tarr, and any other Senator in this body, and we are particularly anxious that the measure finally adopted by the Legislature of the Commonwealth will be fool proof. Therefore, he may have a better plan than we devised and are working on, and I suggest to him that he go ahead and prepare his plan, and present it to the body of the Senate. That is the real legislative process. All of these plans should be introduced.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, what we want are fool proof bills. Since the Senator from Cumberland guarantees that the bills that he will present will be fool proof bills, I see no necessity for any other committee functioning to draft similar bills. What we are interested in is freeing the toll bridges, and if he has people on the job that can do the job, that is all with all of us, not only those of us in the Senate, but the people in Pennsylvania as well, so that we will wait until he presents his bills, we will look them over, and if they are not fool proof, then we will try to draft bills that are fool proof.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, at the expense of losing the friendship of some of my good friends in the Senate, I just want to say briefly that I do not guarantee any particular set of bills, or any of them. I am sincerely hoping that the bill, when drawn, will be a fool proof bill, and that it will get the job done.

Again, Mr. President, I want to say that we welcome any other plans. We want to make it as fool proof as possible.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, February 8, 1949, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. DONLAN. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 6:04 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time until Tuesday, February 8, 1949, at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, February 7, 1949.

The House Met at 4:30 o'clock p. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William Hugh Freyer, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Who dost hold us to account for the use of all our powers and privileges; Guard us always from distraction and dissensions and grant that we may do well the work Thou givest us to do. Especially we pray Thee to guide these Thy servants, that by wise legislation and faithful administration the rights of all may be protected and our State be enabled to fulfill Thy purpose, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Wednesday, February 2, 1949.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Wednesday, February 2, 1949, when, on motion of Mr. AMARANDO unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Royer, as to the purpose of this bill and the reason for its introduction

Mr. SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROYER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is the object of this bill to shift the burden from the state to the federal government?

Mr. ROYER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Cambria, the shift will be made from the state government to private insurance companies. They will be the insurer instead of the state being liable for $250, which the present law incorporates.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Krise.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 17, as follows:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of March one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 83) entitled "An act for the protection of public health by regulating the serving of milk for drinking purposes to patrons of hotels restaurants lunch rooms fountains and dining cars and providing penalties" making first violations of said act summary offenses instead of misdemeanors and changing penalties

Section 1 Section two of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of March one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 83) entitled "An act for the protection of public health by regulating the serving of milk for drinking purposes to patrons of hotels restaurants lunch rooms fountains and dining cars and providing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 [Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars nor more than fifty ($50) dollars or imprisonment for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days or either or both at the discretion of the court] Any person co-partnership association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act or any rule regulation or order made pursuant to this act shall for the first offense upon summary conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) and in default thereof such person or the responsible officers and agents of the corporation or association shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment for not more than sixty (60) days and for a second or subsequent offense be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or in the case of individuals and the responsible officers and agents of corporations and associations to undergo imprisonment not exceeding six months or both

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, while I was in general agreement with the purpose for which this bill was designed, as outlined last Wednesday, and I am still in general agreement with that purpose, I was impressed by the arguments advanced by the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Weiss, who from my point of view pointed out valid objections to the measure as returned from the Committee, as the Committee amended it. I refer to the interpolation of the phrase "violation of any provision of this act or any rule, regulation or order." There has been a pronounced disposition to curtail the powers of our departments to promulgate rules and regulations and orders that have the force of law, but which may not actually be the law, as it is sometimes proven when the orders and regulations are taken into court.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, because of that particular provision I must oppose this bill as I would have opposed the other bills had I been sufficiently alert last Tuesday to notice the character of the amendments made by the Committee.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I have listened with interest to the remarks made by the gentleman from Cambria as to the possibility that these bills may have the effect of giving enlarged powers to the Department of Agriculture. I, nevertheless, at the last meeting of this House on Tuesday heard the gentleman from Westmoreland advance his argument, and I have requested that a copy of his remarks be transcribed at the earliest possible moment so that they might be presented to The Chairman of the Senate Committee which received the ten bills which were passed last Wednesday.

I do not now comment on the merits of the gentleman's remarks or the merits of his argument. But I feel that the Senate in receiving this bill might, along with the arguments on the other ten bills, consider the remarks made by the gentleman from Westmoreland. However, it would seem that if the Senate does have a group of ten or eleven measures, they could do the same thing with the eleventh that I presume they will do with the ten, if they find merit in the gentleman's contention.

For that reason, I urge that the membership of this House support this measure and pass it over to the Senate so that the measures may be considered in a group.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, when the other bills were pending on third reading, was the Majority Leader fully cognizant of all the implications contained in the amendments to the bill?

Mr. BRUNNER. I was not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have to confess to this House my lack of diligence. I should have checked and double checked on the amendments as made by the Committee. That was a lesson I learned thirty years ago, and I regret so say that I will have to learn it all over again. I hope that I will not be remiss on future occasions, but I find some consolation in the fact that the Majority Leader of this House arose in his place, as I sat silent in my place and voted for the amendment to an important string of bills, an amendment which he did not know anything about and did not know it was in the bill. Now, because the gentleman said he erred ten times last week he says that the proper thing to do is to repeat the error once again. I submit that that is a distinctly unparliamentary way of doing things. The bill is either right or wrong; the amendments are either right or wrong. If it is wrong, then this House, should evidence its regret that the respective Floor Leaders did not more fully inform the Members to instruct the Senate by amending the eleven bills.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the Minority Leader did not intend to add to my remarks a different interpretation than I meant to give them. I answered the gentleman to the effect that I was not aware of the implications that those bills might have had. I do not yet concede that the point raised by the Gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Weiss, is correct nor will I at this time. I therefore, see no reason for holding this bill back from Senate consideration, anymore than the other bills which were passed on Wednesday, and I again take the position that this bill merits favorable consideration.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Floor Leader, the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Montgomery have any figures to show the amount of revenue that was collected by the Department during the pervious bills, before these bills were amended?

Mr. BRUNNER. I do not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, is there any way in which we can find out how much money the Department collected from fines under these particular bills?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I believe that that information is available and could be readily obtained.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman object to holding the bill up until such time as we can get the revenue, due to the fact that we are now amending the bill to the extent that the Department can make rules or regulations and possibly be much more interested in the revenue that is derived from this source?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, if I can understand the gentleman's alleged question, which I think is more of a statement, may I say that I do not agree with the gentleman, in the first place that these bills give the administration more power. Therefore, I do not think it is relevant to delay the passage of this bill until such time as we can find out from the Department of Agriculture how much in fines and penalties was obtained under the Act before we amended it.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, if when these bills were recommitted on second reading the amendments which were then put into the bill gave the Department the right to make rules and regulations under the law.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, May I say to the gentleman I believe so, but may I also add this point, which I overlooked in replying to his previous question? I I would not look at a criminal measure as a revenue producing measure. That is an incident to the enforcement. These bills increase the penalties against any violator, that is the basic objective of these bills, and for that reason, together with the other reasons which I have expressed, I see no reason why this bill should not take the same course as the others did last Wednesday.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman.

This particular bill is no different from the other measures which we adopted on the floor last Wednesday, and I say to you that rather than strengthen the law, we are weakening this law. Now, if it is for revenue for the Department, well and good, let us admit it. If not, then to my mind we are not strengthening the law, and I ask the Members to vote against this bill.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. Briefly, Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I have a clipping from the Philadelphia Inquirer of last Friday, in which the headlines are "Dog Food Firm Fined $500 for Misbranding." The article goes on to say: "A dog food firm of 777 North 45th Street, accused of misbranding food for animals, pleaded guilty to charges when arraigned yesterday. The owners of the firm waived a hearing and were fined $500 and costs." Mr. Speaker, what I would like to know is, were they fined under the present law?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, it is obvious that they must have been fined under the present law because these bills are in process of being acted on.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, under the present law does not such a violation demand court action?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Montgomery will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not talking about the objective of House Bill 17, Printer's No. 25, and I ask that he be informed to that effect.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's interrogation should be directed to the bill before the House.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, this bill is one of eleven and I see no reason why we should not deal with this bill upon its own merits, and when the roll call is taken I request that only those answering to their names be recorded.

The SPEAKER. Only those answering to their names will be recorded.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, for the same reasons which I expressed last Wednesday, I wish to repeat my objections to this companion measure, the reduction of the penalties and the nature of the offense from that of a misdemeanor on the first offense to a summary offense on the first offense.

I state again to the House that I am unalterably opposed to the bill before us today as I was to the ten companion measures last Wednesday, and for the reasons stated, namely that the penalty in such cases of adulteration of food should be increased and not lessened, and the offense should not be reduced from a misdemeanor to a summary offense on the first offense. We have a situation in Philadelphia in the minor judiciary which demands that greater safeguards should be imposed for the public safety and that the powers of the local minor judiciary should not be enhanced at this time, but rather they should be reduced. Therefore, for that reason, Members of the House, I beseech you, as I said before, to vote against this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

RESOLUTION

THANKS EXTENDED TO FRANCE

Messrs. KEMP and NEFF offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 7, 1949

The members of the House of Representatives were fortunate today in witnessing a beautiful act of friendship extended from one great people to another. The people of France, grateful in their hour of need to the people of Pennsylvania, and in recognition of the ties existing between the two, have sent to their friends across the sea a memento of that gratitude and friendship.

The ceremony accepting the Pennsylvania Car of the Gratitude Train, was simple, but impressive, and rang of sincerity; therefore be it

Resolved, by the members of the House of Representatives, That we extend to the people of France our sincere thanks for their touching gesture, and to everyone who aided in making the acceptance ceremony such a complete success.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. THOMPSON.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 19.

In the House of Representatives, February 7, 1949.

Whereas, It has been proposed time and again that serious consideration be given to the question of revising the Gregorian Calendar promulgated in the year one thousand five hundred eighty-two and now in use all over the world; and

Whereas, The World Calendar Association has worked diligently for more than two decades in an effort to promote a constructive calendar reform program and to devise a more useful and logical calendar system than that resulting under the outmoded Gregorian Calendar; and

Whereas, That association after careful study and consultation has produced a new calendar which is known as the World Calendar; and

Whereas, The World Calendar, which is a twelve-month, equal-quarter schedule designed to eliminate the innumerable frustrations caused by current calendar irregularity has many advantages over the Gregorian Calendar which have a strong appeal to the public in general as well as to business interests in particular namely:

- (1) The two halves of the year are identical.
- (2) The four quarters of the year are exactly alike with respect to the number of days and business days.
- (3) There are exactly thirteen weeks in each quarter.
- (4) Each month has the same number of week days.
- (5) All the years will be the same, so that a given date (such as, e. g. the twenty-fifth of December) will always fall on the same day of the week; and

Whereas, The Gregorian Calendar, our present calendar system, will next coincide with the World Calendar on January first one thousand nine hundred fifty, and the changeover from the Gregorian Calendar to the World Calendar could be made at the end of this year—and if it is not done then, cannot be done until January first one thousand nine hundred fifty-six; and

Whereas, The governments of seventeen nations are already formally on record as favoring the adoption of the World Calendar sponsored by the World Calendar Association, and if the government of the United States adopted it, it is likely that most other governments would follow suit; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur). That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to adopt the World Calendar sponsored by the World Calendar Association before January first one thousand nine hundred fifty, in order that the changeover from the Gregorian Calendar may be made at the end of this year one thousand nine hundred forty-nine; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, to the President of the United States, to the presiding officers of both houses of the Congress of the United States, and to each Representative and Senator from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. EVANS, ROVANSEK, COLE, NIXON, POLEN and WILLIAMS.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 20.

In the House of Representatives, February 7, 1949.

Whereas, The law known as the Taft-Hartley law passed by the Eightieth Congress of the United States is in disfavor with organized labor and restricts much of the power held by Labor Unions; and

Whereas, Organized labor is a dominating force—if not the dominating force—in the life of the United States today and discrimination like that of the Taft-Hartley law against organized labor is unthinkable when the gains of labor and labor unions during the past few decades are considered; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of Pennsylvania hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to repeal the Taft-Hartley law; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE BILL No. 3.

An Act to further amend the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employees in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined," by changing the rank which the Adjutant General may have in the Pennsylvania National Guard.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

BIRTHDAY OF TADEUSZ KOSCIO SZKO

Messrs. SARRAF and KAMYK offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 7, 1949.

February 12th, is the birthday of Tadeusz Kosciuszko, a benefactor of the infant United States, and far too little appreciated by the ultimate beneficiaries of his sacrifices and life devoted to the realization of the dignity of man.

Since his beliefs and convictions, not concerned with territorial boundaries, were those also of Jefferson and Lafayette, it was natural that the cause of freedom, wherever it existed should bring such men together.

Our own struggle for the enjoyment of those inalienable rights, for the fulfillment of the destiny of individuals, did attract this man to our shores, where he shared the privations sacrifices and bitter defeats, then glorious victories of that small band, under General Washington, who gave us our heritage of freedom. He served in the artillery and became Washington's adjutant, friend and counselor.

When the liberty of America was secure General Kosciuszko returned to his native Poland, and fought and bled, in its struggle to free itself of the fetters of Russia.

His personal life was as beautiful as his ideals; he was among the first to sponsor freedom for American slaves; he emancipated the serfs on his own estate, insisting upon the sole condition that they provide free education for their children; he refused to use his talents as a soldier in the cause of tyranny, rejecting the plumes of Napoleon.

Since our country made this man one of its citizens, and he made himself one of its heroes; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, acknowledge the debt, the people of America owe to Tadeusz Kosciuszko, and in his honor, bow in fervent prayer that his beloved Poland be delivered, as he helped deliver us, from the chains of thralldom.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. McKINNEY from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 2, entitled:

An Act to amend article fourteen of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. SENATE

TUESDAY, February 8, 1949.

The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplin Rev. DOCTOR PHILIP DAVID BOOKSTABER, Rabbi, offered the following prayer:

This being Scout Anniversary, the greatest movement for boys, for developing citizenship and character, which movement represents the different sections, regardless of race, creed, or color in Pennsylvania, your Chaplain will give the Scout Oath, that we may by example inspire the youth of our Commonwealth and our Country.

On my honor, I will do my duty to God and my Country, to obey the Scout Law, to help other people at all times, to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight; a Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent.

We pray to Thee, oh Heavenly Father, that the founders of this movement, chartered by Congress, and that all of us, as leaders in our Commonwealth, by precept, example, and vision and courage, to take the stewardship we have for the youth of our Commonwealth, and lead them into upright citizenship and character.

Bless the leaders of our Commonwealth, our Governor, our Lieutenant-Governor, and these men of the Senate who deliberate for the welfare and the integrity of our Commonwealth.

Forevermore we ask it in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. KEPHART, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

COMMUNICATION

THE LEHIGH COAL AND NAVIGATION COMPANY

Philadelphia 9, Pa.
December 15, 1947.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the General Assembly met:

In compliance with the requirements of the 19th Section of Act of Assembly, passed March 20, 1918, entitled "An Act to Improve the Navigation of the River Lehigh," I wish to report that no tolls were received on the Lehigh Navigation during the year 1947.

Very truly yours,

JOHN C. BOLINGER, Jr.
Assistant Secretary.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania }
County of Philadelphia } ss

Before me, the subscriber, a Notary Public of the County of Philadelphia and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, personally appeared on this fifteenth day of December, 1947, John C. Bolinger, Jr., Assistant Secretary of The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, who being duly affirmed according to law, did depose and say that the above statement is just and true to the best of his knowledge, information and belief.

JOHN C. BOLINGER, Jr.

Affirmed and subscribed before me the day and year aforesaid.

RITA McMAHON, Notary Public.

COMMUNICATION

The CHAIR cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication which was read by the Clerk:

SAVING FUND SOCIETY OF GERMANTOWN AND ITS VICINITY

Philadelphia, January 9, 1948.

Mr. Charles A. P. Bartlett, Librarian,
Senate of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Penna.

Dear Sir:

We are pleased to enclose for your files two copies of the 93rd Annual Statement of the Saving Fund Society of Germantown and Its Vicinity.

Very truly yours,

H. H. HEWITT, Treasurer.

The PRESIDENT. The communication will be noted in the Journal and the report will be printed in full in the Appendix.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, two weeks ago in this chamber, I excoriated the Republican gang which has the City of Philadelphia throttled in its bloodsucking grip like an octopus or a boa-constrictor. At that time I mentioned a precinct leader who is alleged to have bought a $45,000 home in a straw name. Someone mentioned Magistrate O'Malley and I denied that. I said I would take care of Magistrate O'Malley later.

That time has now come. A jury has acquitted Magistrate O'Malley of the charges brought against him by the Commonwealth. That is enough for me. I believe in the jury system and if a jury has seen fit to acquit, its verdict should be accepted. I hold no brief for Magistrate O'Malley or for the Republican gang in Philadelphia.

But one good thing has come out of Magistrate O'Malley's trial and that is an article appearing in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin on Friday, February 4, 1949, by Earl Selby. I would like to read it into the record.

"Larry Eldredge, it can now be disclosed, came out of the O'Malley trial with one major belief:

"He thinks Our State ought to legalize gambling.

"With the storm of the trial behind him the grey-haired

Eldredge sat in the cushy green leather chair of his law office and said:

"It's obvious we can't stop gambling.

"You can't have laws that run counter to the settled conviction of the community. I'm not looking at the morals of whether you ought—or ought not—to gamble. I'm a legal scholar, interested in facing the facts.

"If gambling is a fact—and it is—let's face it. Let's take out of the hands of criminal gangs the millions of dollars that they take from gambling. Let's stop them from using these millions to bribe policemen, magistrates and other public officials. Let's take the profits out of gambling, insofar as the criminal gangs are concerned.

"You can do this by stopping any need of protection. Let the profits go to the State. Have a state lottery. Legalize horse racing. Let the profits be used by the State for hospitals, for penal institutions, for other vital services.

"You can destroy the criminal gangs by destroying their financial power. Gambling is the only thing they make millions out of today. They use this money to pervert the processes of law. Take the money out of this system and it collapses. That's the only way to stop the criminals." * * *

"Sadder and much less rigid than when we first interviewed him last summer, Eldredge said he was discouraged—'Not because I've lost a case—I've lost cases before and I'll lose them again'—but because the jury acted as it did in acquitting O'Malley.

"This was a good jury—a good cross section of the people. We had good reports on those men and women. And yet after one hour they threw out our case. I guess all you can say is that if that's the kind of government people want that's the kind they'll get.

When he started the case, Eldredge said, 'I knew it was going to be dirty, and nasty. I knew I was getting into something I knew nothing about. I knew nothing about criminal law. I knew nothing about criminal procedure. I knew I would be scorned. (I knew I'd be reviled.) I knew I was going to make enemies. I knew I might even make them among judges.'

"And yet I had to accept the attorney general's offer to go into the case. For 20 years in three great law schools I've been teaching that lawyers, with their training and skill, should willingly accept public service. I've been trying to make my students see that is their responsibility. And yet in the trial people challenged my motives.' * * *

"The Special Prosecutor frankly admitted that he could not get the legal evidence to prove in court what he felt to be true in fact.

"Evidence disappeared,' he said. 'Other information was withheld through fear.

"You'll be gone in a few months,' I was told time and again. 'I'll be in the gambling racket all the rest of my life. If I tell I'll be thrown out. My business will be done.'

"They laughed at me when I asked for facts. People told me things that were true, yet when I went to the primary source all mouths were closed. When you try to prove graft and acceptance of bribes you have only two sources of proof—the underworld people, who won't talk because of fear or ruination of their business, or the few crooked lawyers who are the actual 'pay-off' men. These lawyers won't talk because they know it means disbarment and jail.

"One gambler made a mistake and inadvertently said too much. A few nights later, after word of this got around, he walked into a restaurant patronized by the gamblers. All he heard from the others was 'shhh' and 'rat.' He got white in the face, turned on his heels and walked out.

"The best compliment ever paid me was by a coldly cynical political leader. He complained that 'no one could get to Eldredge.'

"I'm not sorry I took the case. I couldn't live with my conscience if I hadn't.

"But now it's all over.

"I'm glad to be out of it. * * *

I am very happy to subscribe to every thing that Mr. Eldredge said.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

COMMITTEE FOR THE SAINT PATRICK'S DAY DINNER

The PRESIDENT. At this time, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell, for a very important announcement.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I have an announcement of the Bi-Annual Dinner of the Pennsylvania Legislative Sons of St. Patrick, which will be held on Tuesday Evening, March 29, 1949, at the Penn-Harris Hotel, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

The House has asked me to announce the Committee of the Senate for this famous St. Patrick's Day Dinner, which is as follows:

Joseph M. Barr, G. Graybill Diehm, Fraser P. Donlan, Louis H. Farrell, Elmer J. Holland, A. H. Letzler, John W. Lord, Jr., Roland B. Mahany, John R. Meade, A. J. Tallman, Paul L. Wagner, John M. Walker, Lloyd H. Wood, T. Newell Wood, and G. Robert Watkins.

Thank you.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. KEPHART asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, there are a number of bills now pending in this body that relate to the government of Philadelphia. They require careful consideration and study, and should be in one committee, as suggested by several members of the Joint State Government Commission.

The Committee on Constitutional Changes has before it Senate Bills Nos. 3 and 5, relating to the consolidation of the City and County of Philadelphia and Home Rule for that City. It also has the bill that was introduced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Rosenfeld, the number of which I do not have before me.

There is now before the Elections Committee Senate Bill No. 4, transferring the functions of the Registration Commission to the County Board of Elections. Inasmuch as this bill is part of the same subject, I now report it, on behalf of the committee, for re-referral to the Committee on Constitutional Changes.

I am requesting that the Chairman of the Committee on Constitutional Changes hold a public hearing at an early date on all bills in his Committee that refer to Philadelphia's governmental structure. I also suggest that the Committee on First Class Cities of the House be invited to attend, in joint session, with the Senate Committee on Constitutional Changes. This will avoid the necessity for another hearing to be heard by the House Committee when bills on this subject reach that body, as I trust they soon will. Everyone appreciates the extreme importance of this legislation now before the Senate, and it should be fully considered after a public hearing at which all who so desire may be given an opportunity to express their opinion.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. KEPHART, from the Committee on Elections, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 4, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the thirtieth day of March, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 115), entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the first class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, bodies of electors, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commission, election officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, real estate brokers, rental agents, certain public service companies, persons, firms, and corporations operating vehicles for moving furniture and household goods, and boards of school directors; and imposing penalties," abolishing the registration commission in such cities and requiring the county commissioners at the expense of the county to act as a registration commission therefor.

which was re-referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Mr. STIEFEL, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 72, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two hundred five of the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine, (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employees in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," increasing the maximum aggregate number of officers and men in the State Police Force.

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 17, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven of the act, approved the eleventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 101), entitled "An act to facilitate vehicular traffic between the eastern and western sections of the Commonwealth by providing for the construction, operation and maintenance of a turnpike from a point at or near Irwin in Westmoreland County, the western terminus of the turnpike heretofore constructed by said Commission, to a point on the western boundary line of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania touching on the State of Ohio or the State of West Virginia, and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission; authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the Commonwealth payable solely from tolls to pay the cost of such turnpike; providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act; providing for the collection of tolls for the payment of such bonds and for the cost of maintenance, operation and repair of the turnpike; making such turnpike bonds exempt from taxation; constituting such bonds legal investments in certain instances; requiring suits against the commission to be brought in Dauphin County prescribing conditions upon which such turnpike shall become free; providing for grade separations, grade changes, and relocation and restoration of public roads and State highways affected by the turnpike; providing for condemnation; granting certain powers and authority to municipal subdivisions and agencies of the Commonwealth to cooperate with the commission; and authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds," by providing for salaries for appointed members of the Commission.

Mr. HOMSHER, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 169, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause (f) of section two of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 382), entitled "An act providing for the incorporation as bodies corporate and politic of 'Authorities' for municipalities, counties and townships; prescribing the rights, powers and duties of such Authorities heretofore or hereafter incorporated; authorizing such Authorities to acquire, construct, improve, maintain and operate projects, and to borrow money and issue bonds therefor; providing for the payment of such bonds, and prescribing the rights of the holders thereof; conferring the right of eminent domain on such Authorities; authorizing such Authorities to enter into contracts with and to accept grants from the Federal Government or any agency thereof; and conferring exclusive jurisdiction on certain courts over rates," extending the definition of "municipality" so as to include school districts.

Mr. DOEHLA, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 10, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred five (P. L. 46), entitled "An act authorizing the municipalities of the Commonwealth to vacate, in whole or in part, all streets, lanes and alleys within their corporate limits, laid out by this Commonwealth, whenever the same, or the portion to be vacated, shall have remained unopened for a continuous period of thirty years next preceding such vacation," eliminating the requirement that the portion vacated shall have remained unopened for thirty years, and providing that vacated portions shall not be any part of a State Highway route, and validating vacations heretofore made.

Mr. MALLERY, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 239, entitled:

An Act to provide for and regulate the accumulation, investment, and expenditure of funds by cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships and municipality authorities for the construction, improvement, or replacement of sewage disposal systems for which plans have been approved by the Sanitary Water Board of the Commonwealth.

THE PRESIDENT. At this time, the Chair would like to call to the attention of the Senators that we are honored today by the presence of a former Governor and Lieutenant-Governor of this Commonwealth, the Honorable John C. Bell, Jr. Governor Bell presided over this body at the last session prior to the time I was made Lieutenant-Governor.

Governor Bell, we will be very glad if you will come to the rostrum.

REMARKS BY FORMER GOVERNOR JOHN C. BELL, JR.

GOVERNOR BELL. Mr. President and Members of the best Senate in the United States, it is always nice to come back to the place where you have had such happy memories, and it is certainly a great pleasure for me.

I hope you have a fine session. Thank you very much.

FORMER SENATOR RAUHAUSER PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, while we are on this particular order of business, I would like to call the Chair's attention to the fact that a very distinguished citizen of Allegheny County, a former member of this august body, and now the distinguished District Attorney of Allegheny County, is with us today, and I would like to have him stand up and take a bow. I refer to a former Senator, "Bill" Rauhauser.

The PRESIDENT. We welcome you here, Mr. District Attorney, and hope you will come back to see us many times.

RESOLUTION

URGING THAT THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION BE DIRECTED TO MAKE INVESTIGATION CONCERNING THE MERGER, CONSOLIDATION AND REINCORPORATION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES AND MAKE A REPORT TO THE NEXT SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Mr. KEPHART offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Insurance:

In the Senate, February 8, 1949.

Whereas, Recent years have witnessed the assimilation of many small and independent insurance companies by the larger insurance companies many of which have interlocking directorates and

Whereas, This monopolistic tendency may prove detrimental to the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make an investigation concerning the merger, consolidation and reincorporation of insurance companies, including the purchase of property of one company by another for the purpose of determining whether such activities are detrimental to the general welfare of the citizens of the Commonwealth and to make a report thereon, together with its recommendations, to the next regular session of the General Assembly.

Section 107 Compensation for Services or Additional Services Where by the provisions of this act any services or additional services are imposed upon any public official for which no compensation is provided the board of school directors of the proper district may unless such service is required to be performed without compensation pay out of the funds of the district such reasonable compensation for such service or additional service as it may determine subject to the provisions of this act.

Section 108 Religious or Political Tests etc Prohibited No religious or political test or qualification shall be required of any director visitor superintendent teacher or other officer appointee or employe in the public schools of this Commonwealth.

Section 109 Disposition of Fines All fines that are imposed and collected under any of the provisions of this act shall be paid to the treasurer of the proper school district or when the proper school district cannot be determined into the State School Fund.

Article II

School Districts

(a) Designation and Classification

Section 201 How Constituted All school districts shall remain as now constituted until changed as authorized by this act. Except as otherwise now or hereafter constituted each city incorporated town borough or township in this Commonwealth now existing or hereafter created shall constitute a separate school district to be designated and known as the "School District of". Provided That where any city incorporated town borough or township or a part of the school district remaining after its separation would constitute a fourth class school district it shall remain a part of the school district to which it formerly belonged until the change to a new school district is approved by the State Council of Education as hereinafter provided.

Section 202 Classification The several school districts of the Commonwealth are hereby divided into four classes as follows:

Each school district having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more shall be a school district of the first class.

Each school district having a population of thirty thousand (30,000) or more but of less than five hundred thousand (500,000) shall be a school district of the second class.

Each school district having a population of five thousand (5,000) or more but of less than thirty thousand (30,000) shall be a school district of the third class.

Each school district having a population of less than five thousand (5,000) shall be a school district of the fourth class.

Section 203 Creation of New Cities Boroughs and Townships When a new school district is formed by the creation of a new city borough or township the court of common pleas having jurisdiction shall determine and enter in its decree the class of school districts to which such new district if formed shall belong and if of the first second or third class it shall thereupon become a new school district of such class. If the newly created city borough or township would constitute a school district of the fourth class the court of common pleas having jurisdiction shall so certify and a new school district shall be formed only if and when it is approved by the State Council of Education as hereinbefore provided.

Section 204 Basis for and Change of Classification The last United States census as set forth in the official report thereof shall be the basis on which the population of the several school districts shall be computed. A change from one class of school district to another shall be made in the following cases and in no other.

(1) After the taking of a United States census showing the population of any school district to be such as to entitle it to be changed from one class of school district to another.

(2) When a district which at a decennial census had sufficient population to entitle it to an advance to another class of district has since suffered a large decrease in population a census of the district may be authorized by the board of school directors of the district and if it shall appear that said district has not the required population to remain in the class in which the same then is the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon receipt of the facts disclosed by said census may issue his proclamation declaring such district to be of the class to which it properly belongs as disclosed by the census of the school board.

(3) Where the population of two districts combined subsequent to the taking of a United States census and ascertained by such census is such as to entitle the new or combined district to be in a class different from the class of either of the districts so combined.

(4) Where since the last preceding United States census any territory has been annexed to any city borough town or township whereby the population of such city borough town or township has been increased and the population of such annexed territory cannot be ascertained from the last preceding census of the United States the directors of the school districts affected by such annexation may apply to the court of common pleas for the appointment of a commissioner to make an enumeration of the population of such annexed territory. The court shall certify the population of the annexed territory so ascertained together with the population of the city borough town or township as shown by the last preceding United States census to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The cost of the proceeding including reasonable compensation for the commissioner to be fixed by the court shall be paid by the school district.

Section 205 Change of Class How Effected Whenever it shall appear in any case hereinafter enumerated that the population of any school district in this Commonwealth is such that it should be included in another class of school districts the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall issue a certificate to said school district to that effect and such school district shall with the beginning of the next school year after said certificate has been issued become a school district of the class to which it properly belongs The provisions of this section shall apply when

(1) The Superintendent of Public Instruction after the taking of each United States census has canvassed the same so far as it relates to the population of the several school districts which he is hereby required to do

(2) Territory comprising a separate school district is annexed to a city borough or township and the decree of the court or the vote of the electors effecting such annexation has been certified to the Superintendent of Public Instruction

(3) Territory has been annexed to a city borough town or township and enumeration of the population of such annexed territory has been made

(b) Powers and Duties etc

Section 211 General Powers of Districts The several school districts in this Commonwealth shall be and hereby are vested as bodies corporate with all necessary powers to enable them to carry out the provisions of this act

Section 212 Corporate Seal Each school district of this Commonwealth may by a majority vote of the members of the board of school directors of such district adopt a corporate seal for the use of said district. The seal shall have engraved thereon the following "School District of Pennsylvania," and such other inscription or design as the board of school directors may direct

Section 213 Right to Sue and be Sued Each school district shall have the right to sue and be sued in its corporate name Any legal process against any school district shall be served on the president or secretary of its board of school directors

Section 214 Competency as Witnesses No person on account of being a taxpayer or resident in any school district shall be reason thereof be incompetent to testify in any suit or action in which such school district is a party

Section 215 Conveyances by Districts Any deed for school property properly executed and delivered in the name of any school district as established by this act shall convey to the grantee the entire interest of the grantor in such property irrespective of the manner or name in which said property was conveyed to or acquired by or is held by the school district conveying the same

Section 216 Gifts to Districts Investment Accounts (a) It shall be lawful for any school district to receive and hold absolutely or in trust any devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation of any property real or personal which shall be made to said school district or for any of the purposes of this act Any such devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation shall be administered by or under the direction of the board of directors of the district to which it is made subject to all the conditions and trusts thereto annexed The board of school directors shall not be obliged to accept any such devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation unless it deems it proper so to do

(b) The board of school directors shall promptly invest and keep invested as constantly as possible and to the best advantage any devise bequest grant endowment gift or donation accepted and the proceeds thereof Such investment may be made only in bonds legally and properly issued by a school district in this Commonwealth or in municipal bonds in which savings banks of Pennsylvania are authorized by law to invest their deposits Except in school districts of the first class all investments must be first approved by the president judge of the court of common pleas of the judicial district in which such school district is situated

(c) It shall be the duty of the board of school directors to keep an accurate account of all devises bequests grants endowments gifts and donations accepted the income arising therefrom the proceeds thereof and the expenses of administering the same and at the end of each fiscal year to render a detailed statement of such devises bequests grants endowments gifts and donations held and possessed by such school district the proceeds thereof the investments which have been made therewith the income arising therefrom the expenses of administration and the purposes to which the income arising therefrom have been applied Such statement shall be audited as hereinafter provided for the auditing of school finances

Section 217 Unlawful Gifts It shall be unlawful for any member of or any board of school directors to demand request or accept directly or indirectly any gift or donation from any teacher or supervisor within its employ

(c) Changes in Districts

Section 226 Change in Districts When Effective If any new school district is made by the creation of any city borough township or independent school district or by the annexation of territory comprising a separate school district to a city or borough or township or if the boundary lines of any school district are changed by reason of the changing of the boundary lines of any city incorporated town borough township or independent school district then in any such case the change so far as it relates to school districts or school affairs shall take effect at the beginning of the first school year after such new city borough township or independent school district has been created or such annexation affected or such change in boundary lines permanently effected

Section 227 Filing Copy of Action Creating New District or Affecting Fourth Class District with Superintendent of Public Instruction Whenever a new school district is created by the creation of a new city borough township or independent school district or by the consolidation of two or more districts as a union district or an existing school district of the fourth class is affected by the annexation to a city or borough or township or territory included within a school district of the fourth class the clerk of the courts or other proper officer shall within ten days thereafter make a certified copy of the petition therefor agreement or ordinance and the decree or order creating such new city borough township or independent school district or union school district or of the decree of the court or vote of the electors affecting such annexation and mail the same to the Superintendent of Public Instruction Department of Public Instruction Harrisburg Pennsylvania

Section 228 Approval or Disapproval of Creation or Change of Fourth Class Districts (a) If the newly created city borough or township or independent school district or union school district or the part of a school district remaining after the separation would constitute a school district of the fourth class the receipt of said certified copy shall be deemed an application for the creation of a new school district of the fourth class or change in the boundaries of an existing school district of the fourth class and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall within sixty days thereafter cause the State Council of Education to be convened The council shall thereupon consider such application and determine whether such new school district or independent school district or union school district or change in the boundaries of an existing school district of the fourth class is desirable and whether the welfare of the pupils within the territory affected thereby will be promoted by the creation of such district or change in the boundaries of such existing district

(b) If the council shall approve such application it shall certify its findings and its approval of such new district or change in such existing district thereon and transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the courts or other proper officer from whom the application was received who shall file the same in such original proceedings whereupon the new city borough or township will become a new school district of the fourth class or the school district of the fourth class remaining after such annexation shall constitute a separate school district as so changed

(c) If in the judgment of the council the application should not be granted it shall endorse thereon "not approved" and transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the courts or other proper officer from whom the application was received who shall file the same in the original proceeding. In such event the boundaries of the existing school districts shall remain unchanged. Provided The State Council of Education may for cause shown upon subsequent application by ten taxables of a school district of the fourth class not coterminous with a city borough incorporated town or township vacate such refusal and may approve the creation of such new district of the fourth class or change in boundaries of an existing district of the fourth class and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as herein provided upon the original application and with like effect.

Section 229 Annexation of District of First Class Whenever hereafter the territory comprising a school district of the second third or fourth class is annexed to a city comprising a school district of the first class the annexed school district shall immediately become merged in and become a part of said school district of the first class.

Section 230 Approval of Contracts and Changes after Vote for Annexation Where under the provisions of any act of Assembly an election shall be held for and against the annexation of territory comprising a school district of the second third or fourth class to a city comprising a separate school district and if it shall appear by the vote when counted that a majority has voted for said annexation and the result of said election shall have been certified to the court of quarter sessions having jurisdiction of the proceedings of the board of school directors of said annexed school district shall not thereafter make any change in text books or adopt additional textbooks or contract for any new school sites or let any contract for the erection enlargement alteration equipment or furnishing of any new school sites or let any contract for the erection enlargement alteration equipment or furnishing of any school building without the approval of the board of school directors of the said school district of such annexing city.

Section 231 Tax Levy or Debt for Building or Grounds Pending Change of Boundaries etc While proceedings are pending in court for the changing of any boundary lines of any city incorporated town borough or township or the creation of any new city borough or township the board of school directors in every school district to be affected by such change of boundary lines or creation of a new municipality shall be permitted to levy and assess a school tax and incur debts for the purpose of purchasing ground or building or enlarging a school building in the same manner as though such proceedings were not pending in court for the changing of any boundary lines of any such city incorporated town borough or township or the creation of any new city borough or township.

Section 232 Special Tax Directed by Court In addition to the levies provided for in the preceding sections when it is shown to the court of quarter sessions that by reason of the partition of any school district and the apportionment of the debts of the original district the debts of such school district exceed the amount which the board of directors may collect in any year by taxation the court after ascertaining the amount of indebtedness of any school district may by a writ of mandamus direct the board of school directors by special taxation to collect an amount sufficient to pay the same. If the amount of such indebtedness is so large as to render it inadvisable to collect the same in any one year taking into consideration other necessary taxation the court may direct the same to be levied and collected by annual installments and may order such special taxes to be levied and collected during such successive years as may be required for the payment of the same. The special tax shall be subject to the same penalties for non-payment and shall be computed and collected in the same manner as other school taxes.

(d) Independent Districts

Section 241 Creation of Independent Districts A majority of the taxable inhabitants of any contiguous territory in any school district or school districts as herein established may present their petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which each contiguous territory or a greater part in area thereof is situated asking that such territory be established as an independent school district. Where the territory described in any such petition is to be taken from two or more school districts such petition shall be signed by a majority of all the taxable inhabitants of the part of each school district which is to be included in such independent district. Such petition shall set forth a proper description of the boundaries of the territory to be included in such proposed independent school district and the desire of the petitioners for better school facilities than are or would be provided and maintained by the district or districts of which such proposed independent school district is a part. The court shall hold a hearing thereon of which hearing the school district or districts out of whole territory such proposed independent school district is to be taken shall have ten (10) days' notice. After taking into consideration the welfare of the pupils and taxpayers of such school district or school districts as well as of such proposed independent school district the court may make a decree establishing an independent school district and fix the boundaries thereof which may be more or less than those set forth in such petition.

Section 242 Approval of Fourth Class Districts Adjustment of Indebtedness Costs In all cases where such independent school district is created or the remaining part of the original district would constitute a fourth class school district the merits of the petition for its creation from an educational standpoint shall be passed upon by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the petition shall not be granted unless approved by him. The court shall also determine the amount if any of the indebtedness of the school district from whose territory such independent district is taken that it shall assume and pay. If any such independent district so created shall include the territory of any former independent school district abolished by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) having any indebtedness such indebtedness shall be assumed and paid by such newly created independent school district. Any independent district thus created shall belong to the class of school districts herein provided to which it is entitled to belong by its population as determined by the last preceding United States census.

In all cases where such proceedings result in the creation by decree of the court of a new school district the cost and office fees shall be paid by the new district otherwise by the petitioners.

Section 243 Abolition of Independent Districts Any independent school district established as herein provided may be abolished at any time by the court of common pleas of the county in which its school buildings are located on the petition of its board of school directors or on the petition of a majority of the resident taxpayers in the independent school district after hearing of which due notice shall be given as the court may direct to the school district or districts to which its lands would revert. When so abolished the territory thereof shall become part of and belong to the several school districts within whose boundaries the same is situated and its property and indebtedness if any shall be apportioned among them as hereinbefore provided.

(e) Union Districts

Section 251 How formed Any two or more school districts may form a union school district in the following manner. Each of the districts desiring to form a union school district shall present a petition to the county commissioners of the county where such district is located signed by at least a majority of the members of the board of school directors of each of said districts. The county commissioners shall take no action upon such petitions until they have been approved in writing by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. After such petitions have been approved and filed it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to submit to the electors of the respective districts desiring to form a union school district at the next general or municipal election a question whether or not such school districts shall be united into a union school district. Such question shall be submitted in the form and manner provided by the general election laws of this Commonwealth for the submission of similar questions.

Section 252 Return of Election If a majority of the voters of each school district voting at said election shall be in favor of establishing a union district as shown by the returns of said election a certificate of the return shall be filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and with the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county and with the board of school directors of each of said school districts.

Section 253 When Established Classification Whenever any union district shall be formed as herein provided such district shall become a union school district on the first Monday in July after it has been formed. The classification of any such union school district shall be determined for the purposes of this act by the combined population of all the districts united as shown by the last preceding decennial census of the United States.

Section 254 Liabilities and Property of Component Districts Whenever any two or more school districts shall be consolidated into a union school district as herein provided all the debts and liabilities of the several districts shall become the debts of the union school district unless otherwise provided by an agreement in writing approved by a majority vote of each board of school directors prior to the time said question of forming a union school district is submitted to the voters. All rights of creditors against any of the districts shall be preserved against the union school district. All property heretofore vested in the several districts shall become vested in the union district and all debts and taxes owing to the districts uncollected in the several districts and all moneys in the treasuries of the several districts shall be paid to the treasurer of the new district.

(f) Merger of Districts

Section 261 Standards and Regulations Approval of Plans The State Council of Education shall adopt and prescribe standards and regulations for the merger of school districts or parts thereof. Such standards and regulations shall take into consideration the following factors: topography, density of population, community interests, facility of transportation of pupils, financial ability of the district, school organization and existing school plants. Such standards and regulations may be revised from time to time by the State Council of Education as the need therefore appears.

The State Council of Education shall review and approve or disapprove all plans for the merger of school districts or parts of school districts and for the reorganization of administrative units and attendance areas submitted by county boards of school directors in accordance with the prescribed standards and regulations.

Section 262 County-Wide Plans for Merger etc. In the event that in any county county-wide plans for the merger of school districts or parts of school districts and for the reorganization of attendance areas and administrative units have not been approved and assented to by the electors of the districts affected thereby the county board of school directors shall prepare revised plans and shall submit the same to the State Council of Education on or before the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred fifty-three. If such plans or any plans heretofore prepared and submitted for any county are approved by the State Council of Education the county board shall cause such plans to be submitted to the electors of the districts affected as hereinafter provided.

Section 263 Petitions and Elections for Mergers Returns When Effective Upon the approval of said plans by the State Council of Education it shall be the duty of the county board of school directors to prepare and present petitions for such mergers to the court of common pleas of the county. In case such districts or parts of districts are situated in two or more counties the petitions shall be presented to the court of common pleas of the county in which the largest part in area of the land affected is situated which court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the matter.

The petition for any such merger shall request the submission of the question of such merger to the electors of each district affected thereby at the next general or municipal election to be held at least ninety (90) days after the presentation of said petition. The question to be submitted to the electors shall be framed by the court and be by it certified to the county commissioners for submission to the electors of each district affected thereby. Such submission shall be in accordance with the laws of this Commonwealth relating to the submission of similar questions.

If a majority of the electors of each school district voting therein shall be in favor of merger as shown by the returns of the election a certificate of the returns shall be filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the prothonotary of the court of common pleas, the county board of school directors and the board of school directors of each of said school districts. The merger shall become effective on the first Monday in July next succeeding the election. The merger shall be effective as to only those districts in which a majority of the electors voting on the question shall have assented to the merger. If the electors do not assent to the merger revised plans shall be submitted within five years in accordance with the foregoing procedure.

Section 264 Merged Districts Assets and Liabilities Whenever any school district shall be merged with any other district or districts all the debts and liabilities of the several districts shall become the debts of the merged school district unless otherwise provided by an agreement in writing approved by a majority vote of each board of school directors prior to the time the question of merging is submitted to the voters. All rights of creditors against any of the districts shall be preserved against the merged school district. All property heretofore vested in the several districts shall become vested in the merged district and all debts and taxes owing to the districts uncollected in the several districts and all moneys in the treasuries of the several districts shall be paid to the treasurer of the new district.

In each case where only a part of a district is merged the distribution of assets and liabilities of the part merged and the part not to be merged shall be determined by written agreement by the county board and the board of the district affected before the question is submitted to the electors.

(g) Apportionment of Property and Indebtedness

Section 271 Amicable Adjustment and Apportionment In any case where (1) any school district is abolished and its land reverts to or becomes a part of two or more school districts or (2) any land heretofore annexed to one school district is made a part of the district in which it is located or (3) a new district is made by the creation of a new city, borough, township or independent school district out of one or more school districts or (4) the boundary lines of any district are changed by the changing of the boundary lines of any city incorporated town, borough, township or school district or (5) any part of any school district is merged with any other district or districts or parts thereof then in any such case the school districts to which land has been annexed or from which land has been taken or which have been newly created shall make a just and proper adjustment and apportionment of all school property, real and personal, including funds as well as indebtedness if any to and among such school districts. Such adjustment and apportionment shall be made as of the date of the decree or order creating such new city, borough, township or school district or of the decree of the court or vote of the electors effecting such annexation or merger.

Section 272 Apportionments How and When Made In making such adjustment and apportionment of property and indebtedness the amount and assessed value of land acquired by or taken from such districts as compared with the amount and assessed value of the other land in the districts as well as the value of the school grounds together with the buildings thereon and the furniture and equipment therein and other school property in such districts shall be taken into consideration in determining the amount if any that shall be paid by one district to another or in apportioning the indebtedness if any that shall be assumed and paid by any of the districts. Such adjustment and apportionment of property and liability shall be made by the boards of school directors of the several districts concerned before or during the first school year after such boundaries have been changed.

Section 273 Apportionment by Commissioners In case the boards of school directors of the several school districts cannot make amicable apportionment and adjustment of their property and indebtedness before or during the first school year beginning after any such change in their boundary lines is made any one of such school districts may at any time within the succeeding school year present its petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such school districts is located. The court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners residents and taxpayers of the county not residing in either of the districts whose boundary lines are changed. Such commissioners after a hearing shall make a report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment according to the provisions of this act of all school property as well as indebtedness if any to and among the several school districts from which or to which land has been taken or added or which have been newly created as the case may be. Said report shall state the amount if any that shall be due and payable from one district to another as well as the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed by any district. Due notice of such hearing shall be given to the several districts interested as the court may direct.

Section 274 Confirmation of Report Effect Costs The commissioners shall give the several districts interested at least five (5) days' notice of the filing of their report. Unless exceptions are filed thereto by any district interested within thirty (30) days after the filing thereof the same shall be confirmed by the court absolutely. Any sum awarded by said report to any school district shall be a legal and valid claim in its favor against the school district charged therewith. The amount of debt if any apportioned to any school district shall be a legal and valid claim against such district charged therewith. Upon the report of the commissioners being confirmed such claims or indebtedness charged against any school district may be collected in the same manner as a judgment is collected against any school district.

Such commissioners shall be allowed three dollars ($3) per day for each day actually spent by them in the performance of their duties together with their actual necessary expenses. All costs and expenses of such proceeding shall be apportioned by the court to and among the several school districts as it shall deem proper.

Section 275 Court to Dispose of Exceptions In case exceptions are filed to the report of the commissioners the court shall dispose of the same taking testimony therein if it deems advisable. The decision of the court thereon shall be final and binding on the several districts without any right of appeal.

Section 276 Apportionment by Bill in Equity If the respective school districts shall neglect or refuse to petition the court for the appointment of commissioners to secure an apportionment and adjustment within the period of the second year as herein provided either of said school districts or any ten resident citizens owning taxable property within either of said school districts may file a bill in equity at any time within six (6) years from the date of said change in boundary lines in the name of the school district or for the use of the school district against the other school district in the court of common pleas of the proper county to have such indebtedness apportioned and adjusted and setting forth the facts upon which any claim of amounts due shall be made in accordance with the manner of adjustment set forth in the preceding sections of this act. Such case shall be proceeded with in accordance with the equity rules and a decree of dismissal or of payment shall be made after due hearing by the court subject to further right of appeal as allowed by law.

Section 277 Districts in More Than One County In cases in which such districts are situated in two or more counties the court of common pleas of the county in which the largest part in area of the land annexed to or taken from any district is situated shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the matter. If commissioners are to be appointed the court may appoint the commissioners from any one or all such counties.

Article III

School Directors

Section 301 Board of Directors Election or Appointment The public school system of the Commonwealth shall be administered by a board of school directors to be elected or appointed as hereinafter provided. Section 306 Elections Where District Not Coextensive With or in More than One City Borough or Township Whenever any school district is not coextensive with a city borough incorporated town or township the county commissioners shall furnish the proper election officials with a certified list of the qualified electors of such school district and with necessary ballots to enable such electors to vote on matters pertaining solely to such school district When such school district lies in two or more cities boroughs incorporated towns or townships or any combination thereof the judge inspectors and clerks of each election district within such school district which lies in two or more cities borough incorporated towns and townships or any combination thereof shall make out a complete return of all the votes given at any election for officers in the school district or for the submission of any question to the electors of such district designating the number of votes cast for each person and for and against each question so submitted to the electors Whereupon the judge and inspectors shall appoint one of their number for return judge to meet the other return judge or judges of the school district on the second day after any such election at the oldest election place within the district or at such place within the district as shall have been appointed by the court of common pleas The judges shall then and there add together with number of votes cast for each person voted for and for and against any question submitted to the electors and shall make out the returns as the nature of the election may require complying in all respects with the provisions of existing election laws After the performance of such duties the return judges shall appoint one of their number by consent or lot to deliver within two days thereafter the full returns of the vote for officers to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas and of the vote on questions submitted to electors to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the proper county in the manner now provided by law for making townships or borough returns Such judges shall ascertain and declare the result of such election and shall issue certificates to persons elected to fill such offices within five (5) days after making such returns

Section 307 Newly Formed Districts Where a new school district of the first second or third class is formed by the creation of a new city borough or township and where a new school district of the fourth class is so formed and is approved by the State Council of Education the court of common pleas having jurisdiction shall appoint a board of school directors for such new school district which shall serve until the first Monday of December next following the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after the formation of such new school district

Section 308 Elections or Appointments in Newly Formed Districts At the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days subsequent to the formation of such new school district a board of school directors for such district shall be elected or appointed as provided in this act Such school directors shall be elected or appointed for such terms that the number and terms of those whose places are to be filled at each succeeding municipal election shall be the same as the number and terms of those whose places are filled at the corresponding election in other school districts of the same class

Section 309 Change of Class of Districts If any school district hereafter becomes a district of the first class a new board of school directors shall be appointed in the manner provided in this act for the appointment of school directors in districts of the first class If any school district hereafter becomes a district of any of the other classes and the number of directors therein is increased the additional directors shall be appointed or elected as vacancies in the board of directors are now filled and for terms corresponding to those of directors in other school districts of the same class When the change reduces the number of directors in such district the school directors then in office shall hold office during the respective terms for which they are elected and as vacancies are about to happen by the expiration of the terms of any directors a number of directors shall be elected at the municipal election preceding such vacancies equal to the number of directors required by law to be elected at the corresponding election in other school districts of the same class

Section 310 Annexation of Territory Consolidations When territory comprising a separate school district is annexed to a city or boroughs or township the terms of office of all the school directors of such annexed territory shall expire at the beginning of the first school year after such annexation is affected except the terms of the president and vice-president who shall hold office during the respective terms for which they were elected When two or more school districts are consolidated as a union school district or when two or more school districts are consolidated as a result of the consolidation of boroughs as provided in the General Borough Act the school directors then in office in both or all of the districts shall hold office during the respective terms for which they were elected In either case no election for school director in the district shall be held unless on the first Monday of January next following a municipal election there would be a less number of directors than is provided by law for the district of the same class

At each subsequent municipal election only so many school directors shall be elected as will on the first Monday of January then next following bring the number of school directors to the proper number of the district

Section 311 Appointment in Independent Districts Terms of Office Every independent school district established as herein provided shall have its affairs administered by a board of school directors subject to all the provisions of this act relating to the class of school districts to which such independent district belongs The court establishing such independent school district shall at the time of so doing appoint a board of properly qualified residents of the district of like number and for the same terms as is herein provided for such class of districts In November of every odd year such court shall appoint the proper number of directors for the full term of six years whose terms shall begin on the first Monday of December following their appointment Any vacancy in such board shall be filled by the court for the unexpired term

Section 312 Union Districts Whenever any two or more school districts shall be consolidated into a union school district the directors then in office in each of said districts shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms and shall jointly constitute the board of school directors of the union school district At the first municipal election after a union school district is created and at each subsequent municipal election there shall be elected in the union school district the same number of school directors and for like terms as is provided by this act for school districts of the class to which such union school district belongs so that upon the expiration of the terms of the directors of the former districts which were united the board of school directors of the union school district shall be composed of the same number as in other districts of its class

Section 313 Merged Districts In any instance in which a school district is merged with another district or districts by the terms of this act the directors then in office in each of said districts shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms and shall jointly constitute the board of school directors of the resulting merged school district At the first municipal election after a merged school district is created and at each subsequent municipal election there shall be elected in the merged school district the same number of school directors and for like terms as is provided by law for school districts of the class to which the merged school district belongs so that upon the expiration of the terms of the directors of the former districts which were merged the board of school directors of the merged district shall be composed of the same number as in other districts of its class

Section 314 Two or More Persons Receiving Same Number of Votes If at any election two (2) or more candidates for school director receive the same number of votes for the same office such persons shall in such manner as they see fit decide which of them shall be entitled to the office for which they received an equal number of votes. In case they fail so to do and to file with the president or secretary of the board of school directors in said district within twenty (20) days after the election a paper signed by all the candidates receiving the same number of votes stating which of said persons shall hold said office then the office for which they were candidates shall be vacant and the board of school directors organizing in December following such election shall during the month of December fill such vacancy by the appointment of an eligible person but none of the parties who had received an equal number of votes for such office shall be eligible for such vacancy

Section 315 Filling of Vacancies In case any vacancy shall occur in any board of school directors by reason of death resignation removal from the district or otherwise such vacancy shall in a school district of the first class be filled for the unexpired term by the court of common pleas of the county in which such school district is situated and in a school district of the second third or fourth classes the remaining members of the board of school directors shall by a majority vote thereof fill such vacancy within thirty (30) days thereafter in a district or the second third or fourth class the persons selected to fill such vacancy shall hold his office if the term thereof so long continues until the first Monday of December after the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after his appointment. At such election an eligible person shall be elected for the remainder of the unexpired term. If by reason of a tie vote or otherwise such vacancy shall not have been filled by the board of school directors within thirty (30) days after such vacancy shall have occurred the court of common pleas of the proper county upon the petition of ten or more resident taxpayers shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of a suitable person for the unexpired term. When any member of a board of school directors heretofore or hereafter enlists or is inducted into the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war a temporary vacancy shall be declared which shall be filled by the remaining members of the board or the court as the case may be until the return of such members of the board from the military or naval service or until the expiration of the term for which he shall have been elected whichever shall be the shorter period

Section 316 Vacancies in Majority of Members In case vacancies occur whereby the offices of a majority of the members of any board of school directors other than the board of school directors of a school district of the first class becomes vacant the remaining members shall fill such vacancies one at a time giving the new appointee such reasonable notice of his appointment as to enable him to meet and act with the then qualified members of the board in making further appointments until a majority of the board has been secured when such majority shall fill the remaining vacancies at a meeting attended by the majority of said board. All appointees shall receive a majority of the votes of the members present at any such meeting. The persons selected to fill such vacancies shall hold their offices if the terms thereof continue so long until the first Monday in December after the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after their appointment at which election eligible persons shall be elected to fill the unexpired terms

Section 317 Vacancies in All Members If at any time vacancies exist or occur in the membership of all the members of any board of school directors in any school district other than a school district of the first class the court of common pleas of the county in which such district or the largest part in area thereof is located shall appoint a board of properly qualified persons who shall serve if the terms thereof continue so long until the first Monday in December after the first municipal election occurring more than thirty (30) days after their appointment at which election a board of school directors for such district shall be elected as herein provided in such manner that the number and terms of those whose places are to be filled at each succeeding municipal election shall be the same as the number and terms of those whose places are filled at the corresponding election in other school districts of the same class. Whenever a vacancy of the entire membership of a board of school directors in any school district of the fourth class occurs the county superintendent of schools may enter and take full charge of and at the expense of the district maintain the schools thereof in accordance with the provisions of the school laws of the Commonwealth under the direction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and may continue in charge thereof until a board of school directors has been appointed and has qualified

Section 318 Removal for Failure to Organize or Neglect of Duty If the board of school directors in any district shall fail to organize as hereafter provided or refuse or neglect to perform any duty imposed upon it by the provisions of this act any ten resident taxpayers in the district may present their petition in writing verified by the oath or affirmation of at least three of them to the court of common pleas of the county in which such district or the largest part in area of it is located setting forth the facts of such refusal or neglect of duty on the part of such school directors. The court shall grant a rule upon the school directors returnable in not less than ten or more than twenty days from the date of issue thereof to show cause why they should not be removed from office. The school directors shall have at least five days' notice of the granting of the rule. On or before the return day of the rule the school directors individually or jointly shall file in writing their answer or answers to the petition under oath. If the facts set forth in the petition or any material part thereof is denied the court shall hear the several parties on such matters as are contained in the petition. If on such hearing or if when no answer is filed denying the facts set forth in the petition the court shall be of the opinion that any duty imposed on the board of school directors which is by the provisions of this act made mandatory upon them to perform has not been done or has been neglected by them the court shall have power to remove the board or such of its number as in its opinion is proper and appoint for the unexpired terms other qualified persons in their stead subject to the provisions of this act

The court shall impose the cost of such proceedings upon the petitioners or upon the school directors or upon the school district or may apportion the same among them as it shall deem just and proper

Any person so removed from the office of school director shall not be eligible again as school director for the period of five (5) years thereafter

Section 319 Vacancy where Director Fails to Qualify or Attend Meetings If any person elected or appointed as school director who has been notified of his election or appointment shall refuse or neglect to qualify as such director within ten days next succeeding the beginning of his term of office the remaining members of the board may declare his office as director vacant

If any person having qualified as school director shall neglect or refuse to attend two successive regular meetings unless detained by sickness or prevented by necessary absence from the district or if in attendance at any meetings shall neglect or refuse to act in his official capacity as a school director the remaining members of the board may declare his office as director vacant

He shall in no case except as this section otherwise provides sign any order for any sum unless the same has first been acted upon and approved by the board and the amount thereof and the name of the payee properly inserted. Any orders which shall be for the payment of amounts owing under any contracts which shall previously have been approved by the board and by the prompt payment of which the district will receive a discount or other advantage may be signed without the approval of the board first having been secured. All such orders shall be presented to the board at its next meeting. The president shall perform such other duties as the board may direct and as pertain to his office.

Section 428 Duties of Vice President. In the absence of the president the vice-president shall act in his stead.

(d) Secretary

Section 431 Bond. Before he enters upon the duties of his office the secretary of the board of school directors shall furnish to the school district for the faithful performance of his duties a bond in such amount and with such surety or sureties as may be required of him and approved by the board of school directors. The cost of such bond may be paid for by the school district. In lieu of furnishing a surety bond the secretary may file his own collateral bond in such amount as may be required by the board of school directors secured by an actual deposit with the board of school directors or with any bank or trust company within the Commonwealth which may be agreed upon of any of the securities which depositories may use to secure the deposit of school funds as herein provided. The total market value of the securities thus deposited shall equal the amount of the collateral bond. Such collateral bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as secretary. The securities thus deposited shall constitute a trust fund to be available for the satisfaction of any liability accruing upon the collateral bond.

The securities shall be accompanied by a proper assignment or power of attorney for their transfer. Such trust deposit in the event of any depreciation in its value shall be maintained upon request in writing of the board of school directors at the amount provided therein. The board of school directors may permit the secretary to substitute for any one or more bonds or obligations included in any such securities other bonds or obligations that meet the requirements of this act.

Section 432 Compensation. The secretary of the board of school directors may receive for his services such compensation as the board shall fix the amount of which shall be reported annually to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and be printed in his report.

Section 433 Duties. The secretary of the board of school directors shall perform the following duties:

(1) He shall keep a correct and proper record of all the proceedings of the board and shall prepare such reports and keep such accounts as are required by the provisions of this act.

(2) He shall after the board has acted on and approved any bill or account for the payment of money authorized by this act prepare and sign an order on the treasurer for the payment of the same. He may prepare and sign orders on the treasurer for the payment of amounts owing under any contracts which shall previously have been approved by the board and by the prompt payment of which the district will receive a discount or other advantage without the approval of the board first having been secured.

(3) He shall attest in writing the execution of all deeds, contracts, reports and other instruments that are to be executed by the board.

(4) He shall furnish whenever requested any and all reports concerning the school affairs of the district or such form and in such manner as the State Council of Education or the Superintendent of Public Instruction may require.

(5) He shall have general supervision of all the business affairs of the school district subject to the instruction and direction of the board of school directors.

(6) He shall be the custodian of all the records, papers, office property and official seal of the school district and at the expiration of his term shall turn the same over to his successor.

(7) He shall keep correct accounts with each receiver of taxes, school treasurer or school tax collector of the district reporting a statement of the same together with a statement of the finances of the district at each regular meeting of the board which statement shall be entered in full upon the minutes.

(8) He shall perform such other duties pertaining to the business of the district as are required by this act or as the board of school directors may direct.

(e) Treasurer

Section 436 Bond. Every person elected treasurer of any school district including the city treasurer elected as treasurer of a school district of the first class shall before entering upon the duties of his office furnish to the school district a proper bond in such amount and with such surety or sureties as the board of school directors therein may approve conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as school treasurer. If any school treasurer is re-elected he shall furnish a new bond for each year. The treasurer's bond may be paid for by the school district. In lieu of furnishing such a bond the treasurer may file his own collateral bond in such amount as may be required by the board of school directors secured by an actual deposit with the board of school directors or with any bank or trust company within the Commonwealth which may be agreed upon of any of the securities which depositories may use to secure the deposit of school funds as herein provided. The total market value of the securities thus deposited shall equal the amount of the collateral bond. Such collateral bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer. The securities thus deposited shall constitute a trust fund to be available for the satisfaction of any liability accruing upon the collateral bond. The securities shall be accompanied by a proper assignment or power of attorney for their transfer. Such trust deposit in the event of any depreciation in its value shall be maintained upon request in writing of the board of school directors at the amount provided herein. The board of school directors may permit the treasurer to substitute for any one or more bonds or obligations included in any such securities other bonds or obligations that meet the requirements of this act.

The school treasurer shall not enter upon the duties of his office until his bond with the proper sureties or securities has been furnished to and approved by the board of school directors.

Section 437 Audit of Accounts. The accounts of the school treasurer shall be audited annually as hereinafter provided.

Section 438 Compensation. School treasurers shall be paid such compensation as the boards of school directors of the respective districts may determine. In all school districts of the second, third and fourth class such compensation or commission shall not exceed two per centum of the amount of funds paid out on school orders. No compensation shall be allowed to any school treasurer on account of any balance in his hands paid over to his successor nor for the repayment of any loan or redemption of bonds whether upon order or otherwise. The compensation received by each school treasurer for the preceding year shall be reported annually to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and be printed in his report.

Section 439 Receipt and Payment of School Funds. The treasurer of each school district shall receive all State appropriations, district school taxes and other funds belonging to the school district and make payments out of the same on proper orders approved by the board of school directors signed except in districts of the first class by the president and in any school district of the first class by the secretary. The treasurer may pay out such funds on orders which have been prepared and signed by the secretary and in school districts other than in school districts of the first class signed by the president without approval of the board first having been secured for the payment of amounts owing under any contracts which shall previously have been approved by the board and by the prompt payment of which the district will receive a discount or other advantage. In all school districts of the first class all school orders before being paid by the school treasurer shall be approved by the school controller of such district.

Section 440 Deposit of Funds Monthly Reports. The treasurer of each school district shall deposit the funds belonging to the school district in the school depository if any as directed by the board of school directors and shall at the end of each month make a report to the school controller if any and to the secretary of the board of school directors of the amount of funds received and disbursed by him during the month. All deposits of school funds by any school treasurer shall be made in the name of the school district.

Section 441 Settlement of Accounts. The school treasurer shall settle his accounts annually with the board of school directors for each school year.

Section 442 Other Duties. Payment of Balance to Successor. The school treasurer shall perform such other acts

(e) District Superintendents and Assistant District Superintendents

Section 1071 Election. The board of school directors in every school district of the first and second class shall and in every district of the third class (subject of approval where hereinafter required) may by a majority vote of all the members thereof elect a properly qualified person as district superintendent together with such properly qualified assistant district superintendents as it deems wise. The directors of any school district required or electing to have a district superintendent of schools shall not participate in the election of a county superintendent. The public schools of any district which has a district superintendent shall not be subject to the superintendence or supervision of a county or an assistant county superintendent but shall all be under the supervision of the district superintendent.

Section 1072 Creating Office in Districts Third Class. The board of school directors of any school district not employing a district superintendent on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (1939) shall before creating the office of district superintendent obtain the approval of the county board of school directors. In the event that the county board of school directors shall refuse such approval or shall neglect to act upon the application of the board of school directors for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of the submission of such application to it, the board of school directors may employ one or the other but not both of the following remedies:

(1) It may appeal to the Superintendent of Public Instruction who may sustain or reverse the action of the county board and in the event of reversal shall grant approval to the creation of the office of district superintendent in such district or

(2) It may submit the question of the creation of the office of district superintendent in such district to a vote of the qualified electors of the district. If a majority of such electors voting on the question shall favor the creation of such office, the same shall thereby be created. The board of school directors shall certify their desire to create said office to the county commissioners who shall cause the question to be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of this Commonwealth at the next general municipal or primary election occurring more than thirty (30) days after such certification.

Section 1073 Manner of Election Change of Class of District. The board of school directors of each district of the second or third class electing a district superintendent shall meet in convention at its regular place of meeting on the second Tuesday of April one thousand nine hundred fifty (1950) and every four years thereafter at an hour previously fixed by the board. The secretary shall mail to each member thereof at least five days beforehand a notice of the time place and purpose of such convention. Such convention shall in the same manner as a county superintendent is elected and certified elect and certify a properly qualified district superintendent to serve for four years from the first Monday of July next following his election.

The term of office or commission of a district superintendent or assistant district superintendent shall not be shortened by reason of the fact that the district in which he serves shall because of loss of population enter a class of districts for which there is no provision for a district superintendent or assistant district superintendent and such superintendent or assistant district superintendent shall continue to serve such district from the term of his office or commission.

Section 1074 Districts Having no Superintendent. Any school district of the second or third class having no district superintendent may elect a district superintendent before the regular time fixed for the election of district superintendents in the manner herein provided and he shall serve until the date when the terms of other district superintendents end.

Section 1075 Salary. The board of school directors at any convention electing a district superintendent shall determine the amount of salary to be paid such district superintendent which compensation shall be paid out of the funds of the district.

Section 1076 Election of Assistant District Superintendents. Except in Districts First Class, Except in districts of the first class, assistant district superintendents shall be chosen by a majority vote of all the members of the board of school directors of the district upon the nomination of the district superintendent at the convention which elects the district superintendent or at any subsequent meeting. Five days' notice of such subsequent meeting shall be sent by mail to each member of the board of school directors.

Section 1077 Term and Salary of Assistants. Assistant district superintendents shall serve through the term of the district superintendent at salaries paid by the district and fixed by a majority vote of the whole board of school directors prior to their election.

Section 1078 Commihsions Objections to Election. District superintendents, associate superintendents and assistant district superintendents shall be commissioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the same manner and under the same conditions as in the case of county superintendents. Objections to the election of district superintendents, associate superintendents or assistant district superintendents may be made in writing to the Superintendent of Public Instruction signed among others by at least one-third of the members of the board of school directors of said district, verified by the oath or affirmation of at least three objectors and such case shall be disposed of as in the case of county superintendents.

Section 1079 Vacancies Acting and Subhtitute Superintendents and Assistants. Any vacancy in the position of district superintendent or assistant district superintendent shall be filled by the board of school directors for the remainder of the term.

Whenever a board of school directors finds it impossible or impracticable to fill immediately any vacancy occurring in the position of district superintendent or assistant district superintendent, the board may appoint an acting district superintendent or an acting assistant district superintendent to serve not longer than one year from the time of his appointment.

When a leave of absence has been granted to any district superintendent or assistant district superintendent and it is deemed necessary or desirable, the board of school directors may appoint a substitute district superintendent or assistant district superintendent to serve for such period of time as the regular district superintendent or assistant district superintendent is absent on leave.

Section 1080 Removal. District superintendents and assistant district superintendents may be removed from office after hearing by a majority vote of the board of school directors of the district for neglect of duty, incompetency, intemperance or immorality of which hearing notice of at least one week has been sent by mail to the accused as well as to each member of the board of school directors.

Section 1081 Duties of Superintendents. The duties of district superintendents shall be the same as those now required of county superintendents and also such as shall be required of them by the board of school directors of their respective district. The district superintendent shall have a seat on the board of school directors of the district and the right to speak on all matters before the board but not to vote.

Section 1082 Duties of Assistants Assistant district superintendents shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by the boards of school directors or by the district superintendents.

Section 1083 Annexation and Consolidation of Districts. When any school district having a district superintendent is annexed to and becomes a part of another school district the district superintendent therein shall become an assistant district superintendent in the district to which such school district is annexed for the remainder of his term. When two school districts are consolidated as a result of the consolidation of two boroughs then the district superintendent of the district having the larger public school enrollment shall become the district superintendent of the consolidated district. The superintendent representing the smaller school enrollment shall become assistant superintendent in the consolidated district.

(a) Attendance

Section 1301 Age Limits Temporary Residence Every child being a resident of any school district between the ages of six (6) and twenty-one (21) years may attend the public schools in his district subject to the provisions of this act The Board of school directors of any school district may admit to the school of the district with or without the payment of tuition any non-resident child temporarily residing in the district and may require the attendance of such non-resident child in the same manner and on the same conditions as it requires the attendance of a resident child

Section 1302 Residence and Right to Free School Privileges A child shall be considered a resident of the school district in which his parents or the guardian of his person resides When a resident of any school district keeps in his home a child of school age not his own supporting the child gratis as if it were his own such child shall be entitled to all free school privileges accorded to resident school children of the district including the right to attend the public high school maintained in such district or in other districts in the same manner as though such child were in fact a resident school child of the district and shall be subject to all the requirement placed upon resident school children of the district Before accepting such child as a pupil the board of school directors of the district may require such resident to file with the secretary of the board a sworn statement that he is a resident of the district that he is supporting the child gratis that he will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school requirements and that he intends to so keep and support the child continuously and not merely through the school term

Section 1303 Vaccination Required Penalty (a) It shall be the duty of all school directors superintendents principals or other persons in charge of any public private parochial or other school to refuse the admission of any child to any said schools under their charge or supervision except upon a certificate signed by a physician setting forth that such child has been vaccinated and that a subsequent examination reveals a resulting cicatrix indicating successful vaccination or that vaccination has been performed according to the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Health with the sanction and advice of the Advisory Health Board or that the child has previously had smallpox All certificates of vaccination shall be issued in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Health with the sanction and advice of the Advisory Health Board

(b) Any person who shall fail neglect or refuse to comply with or who shall violate any of the provisions or requirements of this section shall for every such offense upon summary conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) and in default thereof to undergo an imprisonment in jail of the proper county for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days All such fines shall be paid into the treasury of the school district

Section 1304 Admission of Beginners Unless otherwise directed by the board of school directors the admission of beginners to the public schools shall be confined to the first two weeks of the annual school term Beginners becoming (6) six years of age after the beginning of the school term and before the first day of February of any year shall be admitted during the first two weeks of the annual school term or during such additional periods for the admission of such beginners as the board of school directors in any school district may fix

The term "beginners" as used in this section shall mean any child that should enter the lowest grade of the primary school or the lowest primary class

Section 1305 Non-resident Child Placed in Home of Resident (a) When a non-resident child is placed in the home of a resident of any school district by order of court or by arrangement with an association agency or institution having the care of neglected and dependent children such resident being compensated for keeping the child any child of school age so placed shall be entitled to all free school privileges accorded to resident school children of the district including the right to attend the public high school maintained in such district or in other districts in the same manner as though such child were in fact a resident school child of the district

The school district may not be required to accept such children in its schools when their acceptance would involve additional provisions for transportation by the district or would require the district to provide additional teachers or rooms at an expense greater than the amount of reimbursement paid to the district by the State on account of the instruction of such children

(b) Any resident of any school district before accepting custody of a non-resident child of school age for compensation by order of court or by arrangement with an association agency or institution having the care of dependent or neglected children must secure from the superintendent of schools supervising principal or school board in that district a statement in writing that the child can be accommodated in the schools of the district or that the child can not be accommodated and the reasons therefor. If such statements are not furnished within two weeks after a request in writing has been made to the board's secretary the supervising principal or the superintendent of schools the board's assent shall be assumed and the child shall be admitted to the schools of the district as a pupil. If such statement sets forth conditions such as to exempt the district under this section from accepting the child as a pupil and if such exemption is not disapproved on appeal by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and if other arrangement for the child's schooling satisfactory to the county or district superintendent is not made the child may not be placed in the district.

Appeal from the claim of any school district for exemption as provided in this section may be taken to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and his decision thereon after investigation shall be final.

Section 1306 Non-resident Inmates of Children's Institutions The board of school directors of any school district in which there is located any orphans asylum home for the friendless children's home or other institution for the care or training of orphans or other children shall permit any children who are inmates of such homes but not legal residents in such district to attend the public schools in said district either with or without charge for tuition textbooks or school supplies as the directors of the district in which such institutions is located may determine.

Section 1307 Counties Other Than Second Class Responsible for Payment of Tuition In any county other than a county of the second class whenever any child is an inmate of an orphan asylum or home or a children's home or a home for the friendless or a private home or other institution for the care or training of orphans or other children and the maintenance of such children is provided at the cost of the county or the county institution district wherein it is located and such child attends the public schools of the school district wherein such home or institution is located although not a legal resident of such district the county shall in all such cases pay to such school district the tuition charge provided for by this act in the case of pupils attending public schools of another district. Such costs shall be paid annually by the county and shall thereafter be collected by the county from the school district in which such child is a legal resident.

Section 1308 Liability for Tuition and Enforcement of Payment In all cases not covered by the preceding section if a charge is made by any school district for tuition for the inmates of any such institution the officers of the institution shall submit to the board of school directors a sworn statement setting forth the names ages and school districts liable for tuition of all children who are inmates thereof and desire to attend public school in the district together with a blank acknowledging or disclaiming residence signed by the secretary of the school district in which the institution declares the legal residence of the child to be. If said district shall fail to file said blank with said institution within fifteen (15) days from the date it is sent to the district by the institution by registered mail the institution shall again notify the district of its failure to comply with the provisions of this act. If the district shall fail to comply within fifteen (15) days following the second notice said failures to return the blank shall be construed as an acknowledgement of said child's residence. The tuition of such inmates as are included in the sworn statement to the board of school directors shall be withheld by the Superintendent of Public Instruction from any moneys due to the district liable for said tuition upon receipt of a sworn statement setting forth the names ages tuition charges and school district liable for tuition of said inmates. All money thus withheld shall be paid by him to the district entitled to receive the same. The district so charged with tuition may file an appeal with the Superintendent of Public Instruction in which it shall be the complainant and the institution the respondent. The decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction as to which said parties is responsible for tuition shall be final.

If any inmates have been received from outside of Pennsylvania or if the institution cannot certify as to their residence their tuition shall be paid by the institution having the care or custody of said children. If the Superintendent of Public Instruction decides that the legal residence of any said inmates is in Pennsylvania but cannot be fixed in a particular district the Commonwealth shall pay the tuition of such inmate out of moneys appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction by the General Assembly for the maintenance and support of the public schools of the Commonwealth.

Section 1309 Cost of Tuition How Fixed The cost of tuition in such cases shall be fixed as is now provided by law for tuition costs in other cases except where for the accommodation of such children it shall be necessary to provide a separate school or to erect additional school buildings in which cases the charge of tuition for such children may include a proportionate cost of the operating expenses rental and interest on any investment required to be made in erecting such new school buildings. The tuition herein provided for shall be paid annually by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the institution as the case may be.

Section 1310 Assignment of Pupils to Schools The board of school directors of every school district shall for the purpose of designating the schools to be attended by the several pupils in the district subdivide the district in such manner that all the pupils in the district shall be assigned to and reasonably accommodated in one of the public schools in the district. The board of school directors may upon cause shown permit any pupil or pupils in any school district to attend such other school in the district as the board may deem proper or may classify and assign the pupils in the district to any school or schools therein as it may deem best in order to properly educate them. Whenever any child or children of compulsory school age have their residence more than two (2) miles by the nearest public highway from the school within the district to which they have been assigned and free transportation for such child or children to a school within the district is not provided and there is a school in session in some other district in the Commonwealth within two (2) miles by the nearest public highway of the residence of such child or children the board of school directors shall with the consent of the board of school directors of such other district re-assign such child or children to such school in the other district and shall pay to said district the tuition charge provided for by this act. This provision shall include in like manner assignment to high schools in the case of pupils under sixteen (16) years of age who are qualified to be enrolled in such high schools. It shall be unlawful for any school director superintendent or teacher to make any distinction whatever on account of or by reason of the race or color of any pupil or scholar who may be in attendance upon or seeking admission to any public school maintained wholly or in part under the school laws of the Commonwealth.

Section 1311 Closing School (a) The board of school directors of any school district may on account of the small number of pupils in attendance or the condition of the then existing school building or for the purpose of better gradation and classification or other reasons close any one or more of the public schools in its district. Upon such school or schools being closed the pupils who belong to the same shall be assigned to other schools or upon cause shown be permitted to attend schools in other districts

(b) Whenever the average term attendance of pupils regularly enrolled at any one-room school in any school district of the fourth class or in any district of the third class which is located wholly within the boundary lines of a township is ten (10) or less than ten (10) the board of school directors shall close such school. If the board of school directors does not deem it feasible to close such school it may present its petition to the State Council of Education showing the reasons why such school should not be closed. Thereupon the State Council of Education shall consider such petition and shall make such order as may seem just in the premises. If any school has been closed because the average term attendance of pupils enrolled was ten (10) or less than ten (10) and has been reopened upon order of the State Council of Education and the average term attendance is twelve (12) or more after such reopening such school shall be considered re-established.

Section 1312 Free Transportation Where Schools Closed in Fourth and Third Class Districts in Townships In any district of the fourth class or any district of the third class which is located wholly within the boundary lines of a township elementary school pupils who reside within that part of the school district last served by any elementary school closed since the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred seven or within a district all of whose schools have been closed or who are assigned to a training school of a State teachers' college and reside one and one-half miles or more from the school to which they are assigned shall be furnished proper transportation at the expense of the district to and from the elementary school to which they are assigned.

Section 1313 Attendance in Other Districts Where any pupil in any school district resides one and one-half miles or more by the public road from the nearest public elementary school in the district such pupil unless proper free transportation is furnished to a suitable school in the district may attend any public elementary school in another school district more convenient of access on obtaining the consent of the board of school directors of such other school district and without the consent of the board of school directors of the district where such pupil resides. The district where such pupil resides shall promptly pay to the district where such pupil attends the tuition charge provided for by this act. The board of school directors of any district may on account of convenience of access or other reasons permit any pupils to attend the schools of another district.

Section 1314 Attendance in District to Which Territory of Residence Formerly Attached All pupils residing in any territory belonging to any school district established by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) which territory at the time of the approval of said act was attached to another school district for school purposes may if they so desire attend during the entire school term of each year the public schools in the district to which the territory in which they reside was formerly attached. The district in which they reside shall pay to the district in which they attend the tuition charge provided for by this act. Provided That if the school districts in which such pupils now reside has or shall hereafter by the establishment of new schools or otherwise provide within reasonable distance proper school facilities of like grades to those in the district to which they were formerly attached then in any such case such pupils shall attend the schools in the district in which they reside. In case of dispute the decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction as to sufficiency and reasonableness of the school facilities provided by the school district in which such pupils reside shall be final.

Section 1315 Assignment to School in Another State Receiving Pupils from Other States Where any child of school age in any school district resides one and one-half miles or more by the nearest traveled road from the nearest public elementary school or three miles or more from the nearest high school in the district such child unless proper free transportation is furnished to a suitable school in this Commonwealth may on request of his parents or legal guardian be assigned by the board of school directors to a more convenient school in another state. Provided That the consent of the proper school officials in charge of such school in another state to such an arrangement is permitted by the laws of such state and is agreed to by such officials. The tuition of any such pupil attending a school in another state may be paid by the board of school directors of the district in which he is a resident as in the case of a pupil attending a public school in this Commonwealth in a district in which he is not a resident.

The board of school directors in any school district situate adjacent to another state may admit to the public schools in such district pupils resident in such other state and may receive tuition for such pupils as in the case of pupils admitted from other districts in this Commonwealth.

Section 1316 Permitting Attendance of Non-resident Pupils The board of school directors of any school district may permit any non-resident pupils to attend the public schools in its district upon such terms as it may determine subject to the provisions of this act.

Section 1317 Authority of Teachers over Pupils Every teacher in the public schools shall have the right to exercise the same authority as to conduct and behavior over the pupils attending his school during the time they are in attendance including the time required in going to and from their homes as the parents guardians or persons in parental relation to such pupils may exercise over them.

Section 1318 Suspension and Expulsion of Pupils Every principal or teacher in charge of a public school may temporarily suspend any pupil on account of disobedience or misconduct and any principal or teacher suspending any pupil shall promptly notify the district superintendent supervising principal or secretary of the board of school directors. The board may after a proper hearing suspend such child for such time as it may determine or may permanently expel him. Such hearings suspension or expulsion may be delegated to a duly authorized committee of the board.

(b) Enforcing Attendance

Section 1326 Definitions The term "compulsory school age" as hereinafter used shall mean the period of a child's life from the time the child's parents elect to have the child enter school which shall be not later than at the age of eight (8) years until the age of seventeen (17) years. Article XXV

Reimbursements by Commonwealth and Between School Districts

(a) Definitions

Section 2501 Definitions For the purposes of this article the following terms shall have the following meanings

(1) "District Pupils" of a school district shall designate all pupils enrolled in the public schools of the Commonwealth and of adjacent states who are residents of a given school district except those pupils who are enrolled in the public schools maintained by the vocational school district the territorial limits of which include the school district "District Pupils" of a vocational school district shall designate all pupils enrolled in the public schools maintained by the vocational school district who are residents of the district

(2) "District Teaching Units" A district's number of teaching units shall be obtained as follows (i) divide by twenty-two (22) the number of district pupils in average daily membership in a public high school (ii) divide by thirty (30) the number of district pupils in average membership in a public elementary school and (iii) add the quotients obtained under (i) and (ii) above

(3) "Average Daily Membership" shall be computed in accordance with the rules of procedure as established by the Department of Public Instruction for the school term of 1944-1945

(4) "Minimum Subsidy" shall designate the minimum amount per teaching unit payable by the Commonwealth to any school district or vocational school district under the provisions of this act the minimum subsidy shall be eight hundred dollars ($800)

(5) "Maximum Subsidy" shall designate the maximum amount per teaching unit which may be payable by the Commonwealth to any one school district or vocational school district under the provisions of this act The maximum subsidy shall be For the school year 1948-1949 two thousand four hundred dollars ($2400) for the school year 1949-1950 two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) and for each school year thereafter two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)

(6) "Standard Reimbursement Fraction" School districts' or vocational school districts' standard reimbursement fraction shall be computed annually in the month of December by the Department of Public Instruction

In the case of a school district its standard reimbursement fraction shall be computed for the school year 1948-1949 by subtracting from two thousand four hundred dollars ($2400) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's assessed valuation per district teaching unit by six-one thousandths (.006) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand four hundred dollars ($2400) for the school year 1949-1950 by subtracting from two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's assessed valuation per district teaching unit by six-one thousandths (.006) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) and for every school year thereafter by subtracting from two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's assessed valuation per district teaching unit by six-one thousandths (.006) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600)

Until such time as valuations are furnished by the State Tax Equalization Board a school district's assessed valuation to be used for purposes of computing the standard reimbursement fraction shall be the assessed valuation of the district's taxable real property as determined for the preceding year for county tax purposes Provided That if the assessed valuation as determined for county purposes does not adequately represent the market values of the taxable property the State Council of Education may ascertain such market values and base the reimbursement to any one school district upon the market values ascertained by the State Council of Education. When valuations are furnished by the State Tax Equalization Board each district's assessed valuation to be used for purposes of computing its standard reimbursement fraction shall be the valuation placed upon its taxable real property by the State Tax Equalization Board.

In the case of a vocational school district its standard reimbursement fraction shall be computed for the school year 1948-1949 by subtracting from two thousand four hundred dollars ($2400) an amount determined by multiplying the assessed valuation per district teaching unit by three-one thousandths (.003) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand four hundred dollars ($2400) for the school year 1949-1950 by subtracting from two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's assessed valuation per district teaching unit by three-one thousandths (.003) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) and for every school year thereafter by subtracting from two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600) an amount determined by multiplying the school district's assessed valuation per district teaching unit by three-one thousandths (.003) and dividing the difference so obtained by two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600).

A school district's or vocational school district's number of district teaching units for purposes of determination of the standard reimbursement fraction shall be obtained as follows: (i) divide by twenty-two (22) the number of district pupils in average daily membership in a public high school during the preceding school term; (ii) divide by thirty (30) the number of district pupils in average daily membership in a public elementary school during the preceding school term; and (iii) add the quotients obtained under (i) and (ii) above except when the pupil-teacher ratio exceeds thirty-three (33) in which case the sum obtained under (i) and (ii) above shall be multiplied by thirty-three (33) and the product so obtained shall be divided by the pupil-teacher ratio of the district. No school district or vocational school district shall be credited with less than one teaching unit or be assigned a reimbursement fraction lower in value than the minimum subsidy divided by the maximum subsidy. All one-room schools operated in accordance with the provisions of this act shall if their operation is approved by the State Council of Education be credited with at least one teaching unit. The State Council of Education shall withhold its approval of any one-room one teacher school unless (i) topography, distance or condition of roads are such as to make transportation of pupils impractical; or (ii) it is impossible to accommodate pupils in existing graded schools in the district or other districts; or (iii) the district is financially unable to construct a consolidated school.

(b) Instruction

Section 2502 Payments on Account of Instruction. Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for the school year 1948-1949 on account of the instruction of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools an amount to be determined by multiplying the number of teaching units based on the number of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools by two thousand four hundred dollars ($2400) and by the district's standard reimbursement fraction.

Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for school year 1949-1950 on account of the instruction of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools an amount to be determined by multiplying the number of teaching units based on the number of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools by two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) and by the district's standard reimbursement fraction.

Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for the school year 1950-1951 and for every school year thereafter on account of the instruction of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools an amount to be determined by multiplying the number of teaching units based on the number of all pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and joint elementary schools by two thousand six hundred dollars ($2600) and by the district's standard reimbursement fraction.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section when because of sparsity of population, road or climatic conditions or lack of other available high school facilities the State Council of Education has approved the continued operation of a small high school the district shall receive an amount based on a number of teaching units equal to the number of teachers approved by the State Council of Education as being required to provide a satisfactory educational program in such school provided that the number of teachers employed is not less than the number approved.

For no year shall any school district or vocational school district receive less than the minimum subsidy per teaching unit.

Section 2503 Payments on Account of Tuition. Each school district regardless of classification sending pupils to another school district or vocational school district or to a joint high school approved by the Department of Public Instruction shall be paid by the Commonwealth for every school year on account of tuition an amount to be determined by multiplying the sum of "overhead cost per pupil" and "instruction cost per elementary pupil" or "instruction cost per high school pupil" as the case may be as defined in section two thousand five hundred sixty-one of this act or in the case of district pupils attending a school not located in this Commonwealth on the basis of a reasonable tuition charge per pupil to be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction (i) by the number of district pupils sent to schools of other districts or to a joint school and (ii) by the district's standard reimbursement fraction and (iii) by seventy-five-one-hundredths (.75) and (iv) subtracting from the amount so obtained the per pupil State appropriation paid to the district where the pupil attends school multiplied by the number of pupils.

Section 2504 Payments on Account of Vocational Curriculum. Every school district and every vocational school district regardless of the classification shall be paid by the Commonwealth for every school year the sum of thirty-five dollars ($35) in vocational agriculture and vocational industrial education, twenty dollars ($20) in vocational home economics education and fifty dollars ($50) in vocational distributive education per pupils in average daily membership in vocational curriculum approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Section 2505 Payments on Account of School Nurses. Every school district and every vocational school district shall be paid by the Commonwealth for every school year on account of the employment of properly certificated school nurses an amount equal to one reimbursement unit for each nurse having the care of fifteen hundred or more pupils in average daily membership in the district's public schools and for each nurse having the care of less than fifteen hundred such pupils the fractional part of one reimbursement unit equal to the number of such pupils under her care divided by fifteen hundred. The reimbursement provided for by this section shall be paid by the Department of Health out of any money appropriated to said department for administering the provisions of Article fourteen of this act.

Section 2506 Payments on Account of Approved Travel. Every school district and every vocational school district regardless of classification shall be paid by the Commonwealth for every school year on account of approved traveling expenses in the discharge of teaching and supervisory responsibilities of teachers, coordinators, supervisors and directors in vocational education eighty per centum (80%) of the sum expended by the school district for such approved travel.

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. ROSENFELD asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I have been around this body for the past sixteen years in various capacities. From time to time, particularly as a member of this body, I have uttered the expression and heard the expression uttered, that certain things were impossible because the Constitution forbids quick action on certain legislation. That problem has run through matters involving taxation, education, the functions of the state, our local subdivisions, and our counties with all their classes and with all their differences, and there is not a meeting of one committee in this Senate where the problem does not arise, and where some effort is not made somehow to by-pass the constitutional restrictions so that needed legislation could be put on the books. Boards and commissions have been organized, and the entire state is swarming with boards and commissions; General State Authorities have had to be concocted in order to avoid constitutional restrictions, and I think, perhaps, if we consider it seriously, we should realize that we have reached the point where this State is very much in need of a new constitution.

Now, Mr. President, in the entire history of the Commonwealth, we have had only four Constitutions: the first in 1776, which lasted for fourteen years; the second in 1789, which lasted for about forty-eight years; the third in 1838, which lasted for about thirty-five years, and the last one, in 1873. We have had no new Constitution in this Commonwealth since 1873. Seventy-six years, almost, have gone by and during that time we have amended the Constitution sixty-seven different times, almost one amendment a year. We have considered hundreds of other amendments, but by reason of the fact that we were limited because of time, we never proceeded any further.

Mr. President, I think it is high time, considering the serious problems which the Commonwealth is running into, that we, as quickly as possible, have a call for a Constitutional Convention and within a period of a year and a half we can have a new Constitution in this Commonwealth, which can clarify and ease the burden of taxation, simplify many problems that come before us, fix the responsibility for many obligations which now swarm through all the communities, some of which are handled by the State, some by the political sub-divisions.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. ROSENFELD and DENT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 237, entitled:

An Act relating to the preparation of a new Constitution of the Commonwealth by a constitutional convention for submission to the electorate, and its adoption or rejection by them and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

JAMES H. DUFF.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT UNDER RULE 38

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. LORD, JR. and Mr. PEELOR, To grant unanimous consent to immediate consideration of the nominations reported from the Committee on Executive Nominations, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the nominations reported at to-day's session.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. LORD, JR. and Mr. PEELOR, That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—48

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SECRETARY

Mr. WATKINS. I wish to announce that the Committee of the Senate on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations, and the House Committee on Cities of the First Class, will hold a public hearing on the Philadelphia bills in the House Caucus Room, on Tuesday of next week, February 15, beginning at 9:30 o'clock A. M.

Mr. STIEFFEL. Mr. President, the time which has been assigned for the public hearing next Tuesday is not convenient because sometimes the train from Philadelphia is late, and I presume some citizens from Philadelphia would like to come to the hearing.

Mr. President, I would therefore suggest that the time be changed to 10:00 o'clock instead of 9:30.

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD. Mr. President, I am willing to make a fifteen minute concession. "The Governor" ordinarily arrives here at about 9:25 or 9:30, and it should not take them over fifteen minutes to reach the Capitol. Therefore, Mr. President, I am willing to postpone it until 9:45 A. M.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, these bills are of a weighty nature, and I presume the people who will come to speak on them pro and con should be given an opportunity to peruse the bills and be prepared to get us ready for the combat.

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD. Mr. President, I am assuming it is going to take some several hours for this hearing, that is the only reason I am trying to get started early.

I would be willing to start the hearing at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon as far as I am personally concerned.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, what is fifteen minutes in the lifetime of the Legislature?

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move the Senate do now adjourn until Wednesday, February 9, 1949, at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 3:52 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time until Wednesday, February 9, 1949, at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, February 8, 1949

The House met at 1:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William Hugh Fryer offered the following prayer:

O Lord, our heavenly Father, Whose blessed Son came not to be ministered unto, but to minister; we beseech Thee to bless all who following in his steps, give themselves to the service of their fellowmen. Endue them with wisdom, patience and courage that they may do the work which Thou givest them to do, in truth, in beauty, and in righteousness, with singleness of heart as Thy servants, and to the benefit of our fellowmen. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Monday, February 7, 1949.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Monday, February 7, 1949, when, on motion of Mr. BEAVER, unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

DELEGATION FROM PHILADELPHIA WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the Hall of the House today Father Schiaroni, Assistant Pastor of St. Donato's Church, Philadelphia, his mother, father, two sisters and friends, who are the guests of the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Varallo.

YORK SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome students from York Springs High School and their teacher. They are guests of the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, who is himself a graduate of this High School.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By consent of the House leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. REIDENBACH for himself for the remainder of the week.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. STUART asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. POSTA asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

An Act to amend sections six hundred fourteen and six hundred fifteen of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" relating to bribery in athletic contests and soliciting or accepting a bribe in athletic contests.

REPORT FROM JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Mr. BRUNNER presented the following communication and material set forth therein from the Joint State Government Commission.

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

February 8, 1949.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to Act No. 380, 1939, P. L. 1084, Section 2 (e), the Joint State Government Commission undertook to gather information concerning such legislative acts pertaining to the functions of the City and County of Philadelphia as it deemed might be useful to the General Assembly.

Public hearings were held in the City of Philadelphia on July 19 and December 15, 1948, to afford citizens an opportunity to present their views, facts and proposals, looking toward the improvement of the administrative machinery to the extent that the same may be dealt with by law.

At its meeting on February 1, 1949, the Joint State Government Commission took the following action:

"That this Commission transmit to the Legislature its records relating to Philadelphia, and that having transmitted the record to the Legislature, inquiries upon the part of the Commission concerning Philadelphia cease and terminate unless the Legislature requests future action."

Pursuant to the foregoing action, there is transmitted herewith said record, consisting of:

1. Transcript of hearing July 19, 1948.
2. Transcript of hearing December 15, 1948.
3. Pamphlet entitled "Philadelphia's Management," Committee of 15, 1948.
4. "A Plan to Complete the Consolidation of the City and County of Philadelphia" submitted by the Institute of Local and State Government, University of Pa.
5. Pamphlet: "How to Modernize Philadelphia's Government."
6. Letter of Mr. Thomas Evans dated December 3, 1948, enclosing pamphlet entitled "Demand for Action," September, 1948.
7. Statement submitted by Richardson Dilworth.
8. Statement submitted by Negro Citizens' Legal Committee.
9. Letter dated January 20, 1949, from Walter P. Miller, Jr., Chairman, Committee of 70, (two enclosures).
10. Letter dated January 25, 1949, from William Barclay Lex, Chairman, Subcommittee on Elections, Committee of 70.
11. Letter dated January 28, 1949, from Mr. Thomas P. McHenry, County Commissioner of Philadelphia County.
12. Joint State Government Commission "Summary of Philadelphia City-County Government Survey" dated February 1, 1949.

Respectfully submitted,

WELDON B. HEYBURN,
Chairman.

(For report see Appendix).

RESOLUTION MEMORIAL SERVICES

Mr. WOOD offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered, and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, February 8, 1949.

Resolved, That Tuesday the eighth day of February, at one-thirty-five o'clock P. M., be set apart by this House of Representatives, for addresses and resolutions on the lives, character, and public services of our deceased members as provided in a resolution previously adopted by this House.

The SPEAKER. This being the day and hour agreed upon to pay tribute to the memory of our deceased Members, all business of the House will now be suspended.

Fellow Members: Since the last session of this General Assembly, eight of our associates have passed away. These men were conspicuous, having played a prominent part in the work and the development of the efficient processes we now enjoy. As we look about, observe the same surroundings, work with the same subjects, and conform with the same practices as when they were here such a short time ago, it seems that the presence of these men can still be felt. Yet, while the memory of them will linger for years to come, it behooves us to officially recognize their absence, and to write the record of our deepest respect for them, of how highly we cherish the memory of our close association with them and how regretfully we close the pages of their activities among us, while we still adhere to the lessons they have taught us.

The Chair requests the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, Chairman of the Select Memorial Committee to preside during these ceremonies.

Mr. WOOD presiding.

The CHAIRMAN. Prayer will be offered by the Chaplain of the House, the Reverend William Hugh Fryer, Pastor, Church of the Trinity, Coatesville.

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain as follows:

I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; even so saith the spirit; for they rest from their labours.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, in Whose hands are the living and the dead, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh are in joy in felicity; We give Thee hearty thanks for the good examples of all those Thy servants, who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labours.

Remember Thy servants, Ellwood, Harry, Thomas, Irvin, Thomas, Robert, Furman, William, O Lord, according to the favor which Thou bearest unto Thy people, and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of Thee, they may go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service, in Thy heavenly Kingdom.

We entrust to Thy care all those who mourn, be Thou their comfort and strength, lift up Thy countenance upon them and give them peace.

And grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that having served Thee with constancy on earth, we may be joined hereafter with Thy blessed saints in glory everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The CHAIRMAN. It is most fitting, that we pause in our deliberations to honor the memory of our departed colleagues, who in this great Hall of the House of Representatives served so long and faithfully.

The Chief Clerk will call the roll of our deceased Members.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Ellwood Jackson Turner, County of Delaware.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Harry E. Trout, County of Lancaster.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Thomas B. Stockham, County of Bucks.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Thomas P. Mooney, County of Allegheny.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Irving Sidney Dix, County of Wayne.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Robert W. Munley, County of Lackawanna.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable Furman H. Gyger, County of Chester.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHIEF CLERK. Honorable William B. Patten, County of Philadelphia.

The SECRETARY. Absent.

The CHAIRMAN. Members of the House who through the years have had close and intimate association with these distinguished men will refresh our memories of their sterling qualities of character and service not only to their constituents, but to all the people of this great Commonwealth.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Chairman: I think it is a beautiful and proper custom to set this time aside from other business of this House in order that we may pay solemn tribute to those of our colleagues whose bodily presence has passed away from us, but who still live among us in spirit and in memory.

As we pause together to honor the departed, we find courage in the fact that life does not end with the lapse of mortal breath. The beautiful sunset is but the beginning of a glorious sunrise.

Those of us who knew personally, the members of this House who have passed away, realize that the genuine sorrow and fine memories which followed their departure give eloquent testimony to the high measure of worth which attached to each of those no longer able to respond to the calling of the roll. Their passing left the Commonwealth poorer, but their services here in this House helped to shape its course toward greatness.

It would appear that Ralph Waldo Emerson, must have had in mind legislators to whom we pay tribute today, when he wrote his poem "A Nation's Strength." Permit me to quote a verse or two:

A Nation's Strength

What builds the nation's pillars high
And its foundations strong
What makes it mighty to defy
The foes that round it throng?
Not gold, but only men can make
A people great and strong:
Men who, for truth and honor's sake,
Stand fast and suffer long.
Brave men who work, while others sleep
Who dare while others fly—
They build a Nation's pillars deep
And lift them to the sky.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Memory is the ivy that cloaks the ruins of the strong human towers that the fallen. Time furnishes the verdure that mantles the scars that time itself has caused. The passing of those who have served us as the strong pillars of our existence confronts us with its period of blinding grief. We cry aloud but there is no answer from across the veil.

Robert G. Ingersoll, standing beside his brother's grave, delivered an oration that has become a classic for all time. In that oration there was a deathless sentence. Speaking of the despair that attends the departure of those we cherish or esteem, Ingersoll said that: "In the midst of that black night hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing." As we meet today in this memorial service, the rustle that we hear is the laughter that lives in memory, the comradeship that abides, the fellowship that is born among those who till a common field.

We today turn back the pages of the Legislative Journal and for the hour, those to whose memory this service is dedicated, once again, in the mirror of our minds, occupy their familiar seats. They join with us in the promotion of the causes we must needs serve. Our mission is the creation and perpetuation of a human welfare state and that too was the cause served by those we today commemorate.

Those to whom we today pay tribute, in their day paid tribute to those who had gone before them. The hour will come when members of this House will pay their tribute to us, and let us hope that we, in our time, can maintain the traditions of service that have been established for us.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Chairman, I have here in my hands a resolution in commemoration of one of the greatest men who ever trod the floor of this House. I have been thinking about this for days, and as you sit in your seats and determine what you ought to say and then get up to say it, the memory of this great man who is a personal friend of mine, causes me to choke up.

His death was a personal loss to me; yet his death was not only a loss to me, it is a loss to this State and to this Nation. Ellwood Jackson Turner whom everyone knows as Ellwood J. Turner, gave his life to this State. He was a driver, he was honest, he was fair, and above all he was a friend of humanity.

I noticed that when the clerk read the roll and the Secretary of the House answered "absent", I was afraid that that did not apply to Ellwood J. Turner. As each of us within the hearing of my voice and myself are moldering in our graves, a letter addressed to the State Capitol to the Honorable Ellwood J. Turner, would always be received. His monument will live long after this building has collapsed and turned to dust.

The loss to this State by the death of Ellwood J. Turner is something which I myself, and I do not believe anyone else here can aptly describe. He was a friend of the Commonwealth, a great soldier of the Commonwealth, and above all, Mr. Chairman, a great Legislator. I wish I could bring forth into words what the feeling is down deep in my heart. I cannot; words fail me.

Therefore, Mr. Chairman, I offer the following Resolution and ask for its unanimous adoption.

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE ELLWOOD J. TURNER

Messrs. ROBERTSON, MILLIKEN, CLENDENING and BLOOM offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

After a long and active career, the Honorable Ellwood Jackson Turner, a Member of the House of Representatives from the Second District of Delaware County, residing at Idlewild Lane, Upper Providence Township, (Media Post Office), departed this life on March 1, 1948, at the Chester Hospital, Chester, Delaware County, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Turner was born in the City of Allegheny, on August 9, 1886, the son of Frederick F. and Jennie Short Turner. At the age of one he moved with his parents to Delaware County and resided there the rest of his life. He was educated in the public schools of Chester, graduating in 1903, and attended Swarthmore College for one year. Transferring to the University of Pennsylvania, he graduated with a degree of LL. B. in 1908. During his college career, he played football and was a member of Mask & Whig Club. He was president of his class in law school for three years.

Mr. Turner was admitted to practice law in Philadelphia County in 1909, but transferred to Delaware County in 1910 and opened his law offices in Chester, where he practiced until his death. He was a member of the bar of Philadelphia and Delaware Counties, the Supreme and Superior Courts of this State, and the Federal District and Circuit Courts, at the time of his death.

Elizabeth Addis Downing became the wife of this illustrious Member of the House on November 8, 1911, and of this marriage five children were born: William Howard, Frederick Fairthorne, II, Ellwood Jackson, Jr., Mrs. Robert G. Gilfillan, Jr., and Mrs. Harry F. Jensen.

Mr. Turner was active in Kiwanis International from its early days. He was a Charter Member and first President of the Chester Kiwanis Club, which he helped to organize in 1919, and served a second term as President in 1924. He was elected Governor of the Pennsylvania District in 1919, and Vice-President of Kiwanis International in 1920.

During the First World War he was a sergeant in Co.

G., First Pennsylvania Reserve Militia; Secretary of Chester Division of the Pennsylvania Committee on Public Safety; a Four-Minute Man in the War Bond Drives; Chairman of the War Camp Community Service, of the Liberty Loan Drive, and of the Salvation Army Drive. During the Second World War, he served as a member of the Civilian Defense Board of the Third Service Command; Pennsylvania Bar Association Committee on War Work; The Committee on War Activities of The Council of State Governments; and the Committee on Relief of The Council of State Governments, of which he was chairman.

Ellwood J. Turner was first elected to the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in 1924, and was successively re-elected in 1926, 1928, 1930, 1932, 1934, 1936, 1938, and 1940. He did not stand for re-election in 1942. In 1943 he was elected to fill a vacancy and was re-elected in 1944 and 1946.

During this long legislative career, which spanned 24 years, he was always held high in the respect of all who knew him, of all who worked with him and of all who were against him for his honesty, integrity and absolute fairness. He was Majority Leader for the 1933 session and Minority Leader during the 1935 and 1937 sessions. In 1939, he was elected to the high office of Speaker of the House, wherein he served with distinction. His term as Speaker was noted for the dispatch and orderliness with which the work of the House was conducted. The fairness and impartiality which was shown by Mr. Turner, as Speaker and on the floor of the House, to friend and foe was an outstanding highlight of his personality. After his term as Speaker, he worked quietly behind the scenes in a constant effort to build and strengthen the State of Pennsylvania and make it the leading State in this nation. At his death, he was a member of the Board of The Council of State Governments and Chairman of the Interstate Commission on the Delaware River Basin (Incodel). He also served as Chairman of the Joint State Government Commission from 1939 to 1942.

During his legislative career, he was a strong advocate of economy in government and constantly worked to effect such measures which were aimed primarily at cutting down expenditures and effecting economies all along the line in the legislative procedures of the House.

His early and active interest in the stream clearance program resulted in some of the great strides in this State in the effort to rid our streams and water supplies of pollution and secure adequate recreational areas. He fostered and gave complete aid and assistance to bills for municipal authorities which enabled the organization of the present sewer and water authorities in this State.

In his own Delaware County, he organized and served as solicitor for the Central Delaware County Sewer Authority, Darby Creek Joint Authority and Muckinipates Authority, all joint municipal authorities formed to rid the streams of Eastern Delaware County of gross pollution. His work with these groups set a pattern for many of the municipal authorities throughout the State. He also was solicitor for the Chester Municipal Authority, a water authority serving the City of Chester, and worked tirelessly to enable it to locate a new source of supply and bring good water to that great industrial center. Taking over his duties as solicitor at a time when it was faced with chaos, he successfully guided the Authority through various law suits and to the point where, at his death, its vast water supply project on the Octoraro Creek was well under way toward successful completion. He also served as solicitor of the Pennsylvania Municipal Authorities Association.

Because of his interest in this work, he became the first Pennsylvania member of Incodel which has for its main objective the clearance of streams in the Delaware River Basin. He was chairman of this great commission for many years. Mr. Turner believed that joint problems of contiguous states should be resolved between those states and not referred to Washington. He felt that representatives from the four states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware could solve their own problems without Federal interference. He fostered and guided Incodel through its inception and infancy. As Incodel was the first joint state activity of its kind, he had no precedents to draw from. The present Incodel is his monument to posterity.

Those weekly breakfasts of Delaware County sausage and scrapple and old fashioned buckwheat cakes, held during his many sessions, will bring a feeling of nostalgia to those who were so fortunate as to attend them. As a host, he was at his best, and will be remembered for countless years; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this House deeply mourns the passage of this great man, a friend to everyone, an exceptionally hard worker, and as brilliant and able a man as this legislative body has ever seen. Time will not dim his picture, for the monuments of his achievements in the Legislature and in human relations will live on into the far dim recesses of the future; and be it further Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to Mrs. Elizabeth D. Turner, widow of the deceased.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Royer.

Mr. ROYER. Mr. Chairman, thirteen years ago, when I was elected to the General Assembly, I became the colleague and friend of the late Honorable Harry E. Trout. He was an experienced legislator and he was held in the highest regard and highest respect by the entire membership of this House. During my legislative childhood, so to speak, he assumed the responsibility of guiding and directing me in the practices and procedures of this House. His consideration of me and the advice which he so freely gave to me cannot be measured in any of my spoken words. He had great understanding and tolerance which was mixed with a keen sense of humor. I would say that his greatest quality and asset was his ability to make and hold friends, and because of him, those friends became friends of mine.

I am truly honored to say of Harry E. Trout, he was my friend. I now present the following resolution.

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE HARRY E. TROUT

Messrs. ROYER, BOMBERGER and WOOD offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

Harry E. Trout, a former member of this House of Representatives and long a resident of Manheim, Lancaster County, passed away August 7, 1947.

Mr. Trout was born in Rapho Township, November 25, 1870. He graduated from Millersville State Teachers' College in 1893 with a degree of Master of Arts as well as Bachelor's Degrees in Arts and Sciences.

A teacher in the public schools of Bucks, Clearfield and Lancaster Counties for fourteen years, he was Superintendent of Schools in Clearfield Borough from 1901 to 1908. Thereafter, he engaged in the insurance and real estate business in Manheim until 1914. In that year, he purchased the newspaper known as the "Manheim Sentinel" and published that paper until the time of his death. His other business interests were the Lancaster Automobile Club, of which he was a director, and the Manheim Building and Loan Association of which he was a founder and director from its organization in 1911 until the date of his death.

Harry E. Trout had many and varied social and public interests. For many years he was President of the Manheim Welfare Association. He was also a director of the Rossmere Sanitorium. For more than fifty years he was a member of the Masonic Lodge. As a newspaper publisher, he was a member of the Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association.

First elected to the General Assembly to fill the vacancy of Thomas Brown from Mt. Joy in 1932, he was reelected at every subsequent election until his death. An able and conscientious legislator, he served as chairman of the Motor Vehicle Committee from 1939 to 1947, when he asked to be relieved of that position because of illness. He also served on the Legislative, Educational, Ways and Means, Highway, and Labor Committees.

Harry E. Trout was a substantial citizen in his community, county and State. Aware of his civic responsibilities, he gave willingly of his time, energy and wisdom to fulfill his obligations and considered it a privilege to do so. Now therefore, be it

Resolved, by this House of Representatives, That in the passing of Harry E. Trout, his family and many friends have suffered a great loss and Manheim and Lancaster County have lost one of their ablest citizens and public servants; and be it further

Resolved, That this House of Representatives mourns the passing of one of its beloved senior members and as evidence of its feeling of heartfelt sympathy the Chief Clerk is hereby directed to send copies of this resolution to Harry E. Trout's widow, Mary E. and daughters Josephine and Helen, the latter the wife of J. H. Simpson, Allentown, Pennsylvania.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Yeakel.

Mr. YEAKEL. Mr. Chairman, any remarks that I may make or might make will be reflected in the resolution which I am about to present. I do this with the feeling that a good and noble friend and colleague has passed to the great beyond. Nevertheless, let us all remember that we are traveling upon the level of time, from whose bourne no traveler returns.

I therefore, Mr. Chairman, offer the following resolution.

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE THOMAS B. STOCKHAM

Messrs. YEAKEL and KELLER offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

When eulogies are drawn, the temptation is great to wax flowery. But when a man such as Thomas B. Stockham is the subject, the urge to eloquence gives way to sober reflection. There is the realization, that death has called another of that type of man the world so desperately needs; a man of substance. There was nothing frivolous or light about Thomas B. Stockham, he devoted his full energy to every task before him. Though the tasks he assumed were many, he performed each with an excellence that was perfection.

He was born, and always lived in his beloved Morrisville. There he engaged in the practice of civil engineering, architecture, real estate and insurance. He found time to belong to—Pennsylvania Real Estate Board, Past President; Bucks County Real Estate Board, Past President; National Real Estate Board, member; Bucks County Firemen's Association, Vice President; Bucks County Fire Police Association; Bucks County Bankers Association, Chairman Publicity Committee; Pennsylvania Society of Architects; American Institute of Architects; Pennsylvania Roadside Council; Column Lodge No. 120 F. & A. M. Member 30 years; Atlantic Deeper Waterway Association, President; The Pennsylvania Society; Morrisville Fish & Game Association; Loyal Republican Club; Diocese of Pennsylvania; Morrisville Chamber of Commerce, Organizer; Delaware Valley Protective Association; Bucks County Schools, Director; Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission, Member for State of Pennsylvania.

He was the organizer of The Morrisville Bank, Executive Vice President; Morrisville Rotary Club, President; and the Capitol View Fire Company, Chief. He was Chairman of the Senior Scout Committee of Region III, Boy Scouts of America and served as Regional Commodore. But this impressive list of organizations did not consume his entire time. He was active in Republican affairs, a member of the Executive Committee, Republican County Committee, and served six terms as a Member of the House of Representatives, from Bucks County.

His private life too, was full and complete. He married the former Elmira E. Harper, and with her, reared three sons.

On June 4, 1948, The Supreme Authority decided that Thomas B. Stockham had earned the ultimate reward. He died that day, after addressing a firemen's meeting at Newtown, Bucks County, Pennsylvania; therefore be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives, That as we this day honor his memory, remember his going in and out among us, think of his military bearing with a heart full of wit and humor. Let us revere his memory and dwell upon that which was good and amiable in his character, while he answers the summons of the Great Architect of the Universe; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to his family.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Chairman, Tom Mooney was known to me from my childhood days. He was born in Lawrenceville in the city of Pittsburgh, the second legislative district. Tom came here in 1935 and I came with him. He was reelected until 1947, when he died. As the Members of the House who were here when Tom was here remember, he was of a type that many of us are, who worked hard, moved about gently, but always watchful and alert for what was best for our great State, particularly his district. Back home everybody knew Tom; we miss him just as you miss him here. The State misses him. Everyone misses Tom because he was known to us as a great leader, a humanitarian and busy body, always helping the little fellow. I cannot talk too much about Tom, Mr. Chairman, and I wish to offer the following resolution and ask for its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE THOMAS P. MOONEY

Messrs. SARRAF and KAMYK offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

Thomas P. Mooney, a prominent member of the House of Representatives for over a decade, having been elected in 1934 and having served continuously since then, died on December 12, 1947.

Mr. Mooney was born in the Lawrenceville district of the City of Pittsburgh on August 8, 1869, and lived there in the 6th Ward and in the same voting district during his entire life. He was always concerned with helping people and as a consequence was greatly respected by everyone who knew him. He was married to the former Mary McMahon and had two children, John Mooney and Mrs. Rita Mooney Geltz.

Politically, he was a life long Democrat, and for a period of fourteen years, served as chairman of his ward committee. He was elected to the National Democratic Convention for the years 1920, 1924 and 1928, and began his service in the House of Representatives in 1934.

Aside from his political activities he was active in the affairs of St. John the Baptist Church and School and was a member of numerous associations, including the Knights of Columbus, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Catholic Order of Foresters, St. Vincent DePaul's Society and was a life member of the Lawrenceville Board of Trade; therefore he it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby extends its heartfelt sympathy to his son, John Mooney and daughter, Mrs. Rita Mooney Geltz, and pays this well earned tribute to the memory of the deceased upon his passing from a long life of usefulness to his State and community; and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be directed to send a copy of this resolution to the two aforesaid survivors of the Honorable Thomas P. Mooney.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pike, Mr. Depuy.

Mr. DEPUY. Mr. Chairman, in memory of Irving Sidney Dix, a distinguished member of this body from Wayne County for a period of many years, I wish to present the following Resolution.

RESOLUTION

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE IRVING S. DIX

Mr. DEPUY offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

When I am here no more
You may yet living be Then will these lines of love
Recall your love for me;
And should you read these lines
And kindly think of me
I will remember you
Through all Eternity.

When Irving Sidney Dix made that promise to us, he could little realize that he shall be here evermore.

So full was his life with thoughts for others, that he paid scant heed to himself or the place he occupied in the hearts of his fellowmen.

The "poet of the Poconos" could have considered his life full, complete and useful had he been but that. His poetic contribution to posterity is a legacy any man would be proud to have given.

Poetry though, was only one of his fields. Editor and publisher, he held a place, not great but unique in the fourth estate. His paper "The Wayne County Citizen," was near to the heart of the simple folk who love beauty, because his personality was in every issue.

Ready always to serve his country in time of crisis, he saw war service in 1917, and humane service in 1932, as a member of the Wayne County Emergency Relief Board. His desire to serve took him into many fields and many organizations. He belonged to the Honesdale Chamber of Commerce, Honesdale Business Men's Association, Honesdale Camera Club, Wayne County Sportsmen's Association National Geographic Society and Philatelic Society, the National Editorial Association, and was a charter member of the Wayne County Historical Society.

"When Dorothy gave me a lock of her hair
No wealth from the Orient seemed half so fair."

He married Dorothy Lillian Hempstead, and together they reared three children, Arthur and Edward Dix and Mrs. Virginia Bates.

It was inevitable that his path should lead to a high position of trust, serving the people he loved. He first entered the Legislature in 1938 and served in its House of Representatives for ten years. We who knew him, saw him first capture our hearts, then our respect, then our admiration. Knowing him was an experience, and we are better men because of it.

We grieve for ourselves that he is gone, but we find solace in the certainty that he has achieved the ultimate destiny of every child of God.

But through that maze where mankind must be going
And all unknowing
There will be a light for all a larger light
To make that pathway bright.

Those were his words, and we are confident that his pathway was lighted by the brilliance of his own goodness; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the passing of Irving Sidney Dix the Commonwealth has lost one of its most colorful citizens, whose place in history will always reflect credit upon it; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to his family.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Reidenbach.

Mr. REIDENBACH. Mr. Chairman, in commemoration of Robert H. Munley, if I were to elaborate at length on Mr. Munley, as I knew him from childhood it would take me a very long time. So, I am going to offer this Resolution on behalf of Mr. Munley.

RESOLUTION

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE ROBERT MUNLEY

Messrs. REIDENBACH, NEEDHAM, WARGO and ROBERT A. PRICE offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

The members of this House of Representatives were shocked and deeply saddened by the sudden passing of Representative Robert W. Munley on January 25, 1947.

Robert Munley, having represented the Fifth Legislative District of Lackawanna County continuously since 1938, took an active part in the last session until the date of his unexpected death.

A resident of Archbald, where he received his public school education, after his graduation from St. Thomas' College (now the University of Scranton), he settled in his home town and early began following the example of his father, the late W. J. (Ring) Munley, who was a member of this House from 1923 until 1938, and who is one of the best known men in political life in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

From 1933 to 1938, he was Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the Twelfth Pennsylvania District. In 1938, after his father's death, he was first elected to the House of Representatives as his successor.

Since 1938 he served his constituents ably, growing in stature as a legislator with each session. He was well-informed and conscientiously and studiously devoted himself to his legislative duties.

Representative Munley was a Democrat and a liberal. He firmly supported organized labor throughout his career as a member of the House of Representatives. At the same time, he held the esteem of his political opponents. His loss is not only his party's, but also that of this House of Representatives, the labors of which he put above party.

A well-rounded citizen, Mr. Munley was active for years in furthering the Boy Scout movement. He was a communicant of St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Archbald. In addition to being a leading political figure in his section of the State, he was also noted for his interest in sports. He served as deputy boxing commissioner for the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission for several years—a position he was proud to acknowledge because of his great interest in that sport.

The people of this Commonwealth have lost a conscientious lawmaker of undisputed integrity and prove ability. His community is justly proud of having had so capable a representative—doubly saddened at his passing almost in his youth.

Thousands called him friend and many journeyed to pay last respects from all the State, including William E. Habbyschaw, Chief Clerk and William R. Roan, Secretary of the House of Representatives. His omnipresent smile and his helping hand will be missed by all; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that in the passing of Robert W. Munley, his family, community, and State, have suffered a grievous, painful loss, and in recognition thereof, this House extends to his widow, Mrs. Marion Langan Munley and their sons, Robert and James, this expression of its sincere sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House shall transmit to his widow, a copy of this resolution.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Leisey.

Mr. LEISEY. Mr. Chairman, my former colleague and friend, the Honorable Furman H. Gyger, a former member of this House from the Second Legislative District, was a graduate from the West Chester State Teachers College, a master farmer, whose occupation was that of dairy farming.

As a legislator, he was particularly interested in agriculture, dairy industries, education and welfare. He was a leader and active member of the local and State Grange, civic and social organizations. He was a hard worker, with sincerity of purpose. He is not only greatly missed by his family, but also by his many friends and acquaintances in Chester County and throughout the State.

RESOLUTION

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE FURMAN H. GYGER

Messrs. LEISEY, HARNEY and WILLIAM E. BROWN offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

Furman Holme Gyger, a former Member of this House of Representatives for five terms, passed away on June 17, 1948.

He was born in East Pikeland Township, Chester County, December 9, 1888. In 1909 he graduated from West Chester Teachers College and after teaching four years, engaged in farming beginning in 1913 and thereafter became increasingly more vitally interested in agricultural problems and activities until his death.

Mr. Gyger's life embraced many lines of endeavor in the social, political, business and cultural life of his community. He was a Trustee of Pennsylvania State College since 1926; East Pikeland Township Auditor from 1915 to 1933; a member of the Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania State Grange from 1933 to 1939; Director and President Pomona No. 3 Fire Insurance Company; Director Interstate Milk Producers' Association; President of the Tri-County Artificial Breeding Co-op; Past Master Pomona No. 3 and Kimberton Grange No. 1304; President and Director of Agriculture Extension; President Alumni Association of West Chester State Teachers College; and a member of the Phoenixville Rotary Club, Phoenixville Masonic Lodge, Phoenixville Chapter, Phoenixville Commandery, and Reading Shrine.

His service as a Representative during the 1927 session and the period from 1941 through 1948 marked him as an outstanding and able legislator; therefore, be it

Resolved, by this House of Representatives, That the death of Furman Holme Gyger is a great loss to his family, friends, community, and State; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to his widow, Francanna Hoffman Gyger, as a token of the heartfelt sympathy and sense of loss felt by the Members of this House.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Costa.

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Chairman, in memory of William B. Patten, a former colleague of mine from Philadelphia, I offer the following resolution and ask for its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

IN COMMEMORATION OF HONORABLE WILLIAM B. PATTEN

Mr. COSTA offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

William B. Patten was born in Williamstown, Pennsylvania, where he spent a happy youth, securing an education in the borough's public schools.

At the age of eighteen he moved to Philadelphia and there devoted the remainder of his long life to public service.

Long active in political affairs he was Secretary of the 37th Ward Republican League. He was for forty years a member of the 37th Ward Executive Republican Committee, and twenty-six years, its chairman.

Even though he attained success in the business world, as a painting contractor, his devotion to the public good impelled him to lend his talents to its service in the offices of the Recorder of Deeds, Real Estate Assessor District Attorney, and Board of Revision of Taxes.

While he neither sought nor wanted high office, his long and faithful service could lead but there and in 1946, his grateful constituents sent him to the House of Representatives, where he proved that their trust was not unfounded.

Aside from his career in public life, Mr. Patten was also a family man. He is survived by his widow, three sons and a daughter, all of his children in turn having married; therefore be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that in the passing of William B. Patten, the people have lost one of their most faithful servants.

That the House extends to his widow and family its most sincere sympathy; and be it further Resolved That the Chief Clerk of this House shall transmit to his widow, Mrs. Edith Patten, 1214 W. Hazzard St., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a copy of this resolution.

The CHAIRMAN. As a further mark of respect to our beloved colleagues, will the Members rise and remain standing in silence until the gavel falls.

THE SPEAKER (Herber P. Sorg) IN THE CHAIR.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess for fifteen minutes. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 99.

An Act to add a new section to article two of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1001), entitled, as amended, "An act providing for the regulation of aeronautics within this Commonwealth; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission and the Department of Revenue in respect thereto; providing for the licensing and registration of airman and aircraft; establishing the legal status of air navigation; providing for sovereignty in, and ownership of, space; providing for lawfulness of flights; regulating civil causes of action arising out of operation of aircraft; fixing the status of contracts, crimes, and torts in, by, or by means of operation of aircraft; imposing duties upon officers, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and clerks thereof; providing for denial or revocation of licenses; providing for certain penalties and their disposition; and repealing certain existing laws," defining the Commonwealth airways system.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

RESOLUTION

PROCEEDINGS OF MEMORIAL SERVICES TO BE PRINTED

Mr. McKINNEY offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, February 8, 1949.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be and is hereby directed to have printed in booklet form the proceedings of the Ceremonies in memory of our deceased members held in the Hall of the House of Representatives, Tuesday, February 8, 1949.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 2, entitled:

An Act to amend article fourteen of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," by adding thereto a new section placing additional powers upon the Department of Military Affairs and increasing the duties of other administrative departments in connection with the establishment of a recreational camp at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 301, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation from the General Fund to the Department of Forests and Waters for the use of the Water and Power Resources Board in continuing the work of correcting existing and preventing future silting of the Schuylkill River.

The first and second sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in connection with this bill, I have presented for the consideration of the Majority Leader a list of questions which I think be answered for the information of this House. I believe that the Majority Leader has the questions in hand and I will be very glad to hear what his answers to the questions are.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, this morning I received a list of questions from the Minority Leader, raising certain questions with regard to this appropriation bill for the desilting of the Schuylkill river. I have before me questions as they were submitted to me, and I would like to read into the record the questions which were asked and the answers by which I have replied to the same questions.

A question was asked as to what is the total amount appropriated for the Schuylkill desilting project up to this time.

May I inform the gentleman, and the membership that there was a five million dollar appropriation in the 1945-47 biennium, and in addition another five million dollars was made available under Appropriation Act 57-A of the 1947 session, whereby five million dollars was earmarked from the public building and construction fund. In reply to the gentleman, therefore, the total amount for the two bienniums is ten million dollars.

The second question is, over what period will the proposed appropriation carried in the pending bill finance the desilting project.

Mr. Speaker, from the information that I have received I would say that it would cover a period at least as far as the end of the present biennium.

The next question is, what additional appropriations, if any, will be required to finance the desilting basin phase of the Schuylkill project.

May I say, Mr. Speaker, that with the five million dollars made available by this bill, we of course, will have a total sum of fifteen million dollars appropriated or allocated to the project. The budget message provided for a total of seventeen million dollars to be appropriated during the next biennium. This five million dollars, however, is a part of that seventeen million dollars, so that in effect we are voting for an advance of five million dollars out of the seventeen million dollars allocated to the next biennium. Of course, I think the gentleman knows that for permanent structures it is estimated that the sum of eight million dollars will be spent. Those permanent improvements will be paid for when and if the General State Authority is enacted at this session of the Legislature and proceeds on its business.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman a question? Will that eight million dollars be a deduction from the seventeen million dollars?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, it will not. The gentleman, I think, is familiar with this fact, that at the end of last fall, in 1948, or perhaps earlier, the Secretary of Forests and Waters stated that it was necessary to have twenty-five million dollars in addition to the ten million dollars appropriated thus far in the present and the past biennium. Eight million dollars of the twenty-five million dollars will be financed by the General State Authority; the seventeen million dollar balance will be out of the general fund.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, one further inquiry. Is the executive budget based upon that supposition?

Mr. BRUNNER. I believe it is, yes, Mr. Speaker. I refer the gentleman to the budget of the Department of Forests and Waters, which contains the seventeen million dollars allocated or proposed or estimated for this coming biennium.

The next question is, after the amount carried in the pending bill has been appropriated, what further appropriations in connection with the Schuylkill project will be required.

I believe I have answered that to the gentleman's satisfaction.

The following question is, when will the next appropriation be needed.

Of course, the next appropriation will be needed as of June 1, 1949, the beginning of the biennium.

The next question is, how does it come about that an appropriation for the desilting project is needed at this time?

Mr. Speaker, I must of necessity be general in reply to the gentleman on this question, but I would say this, that at the time the program was started in 1945 it got under way of necessity rather slowly, and then began to accelerate at such a fast pace, that at the present time they are going beyond the point where they estimated they could possibly be at this time in this year, and therefore, in order to prevent a serious breakdown in the program, to keep it at its present high pitch, in order to complete the work to Norristown by June of 1951 or by the summer of 1951, whichever it may be, it is necessary to sign commitments at this time. Contractors who are not engaged in work to be done on this project into the months of the years to come, will, of course, look for other work elsewhere and will thus prevent us from having available for our purpose men who are the best available trained and skilled men for this type of work.

May I also say that we have, of course, purchased four dredges which are the property of the Commonwealth, and of necessity, it will be necessary to get skilled technicians now so that they will be available and continue in the service of the Commonwealth on this project.

The next question is, was it the presumption during the 1947 session of the General Assembly that the desilting program was financed up to the end of the biennium.

That is true. I think my answer to the previous question, in part or in whole, will apply as an answer to this question as well. But due to the acceleration of this program, they have gotten further than they expected to be at this time.

The next question is, what has been the total cost of engineering services in connection with the desilting project up to this time?

May I refer the gentleman, and for the purpose of the record, to the second progress report of the Schuylkill River project, dated December 31, 1945, which states that the following expenditures were made as of that date, which is sufficiently close to the present time, I think, to be accurate; engineering for work contracted up to the end of this biennium was $482,552; engineering design and planning for work beyond June 1, 1949, was $241,300; for management and supervision of construction of work contracted up to May 31, 1949, the sum of $170,148; for management and supervision of construction for work beyond June 1, 1949, $85,000. I have not added that total, but I will give you the breakdown on it.

Now, the gentleman asks the question as to why was it deemed necessary to organize a new firm to handle the engineering phase of the Schuylkill project, instead of employing firms which are going concerns at the time the services were needed.

May I say to the gentleman that from my investigation he is inaccurate except in one respect. There is an association of Decand and Harris or Harris and Decand. That is one of the firms in the engineering setup in this project. It was not organized until after the war. It is an association, but the Harris part of the association has been in existence for years; it has been a going concern. Of course, such a concern as Day & Zimmermann and the other two, whose names escape me at the present time, I can assure you they were going concerns for years and are local concerns in the state of Pennsylvania. I think it might be well to tell the gentleman that the Chief Engineer, if that is his name, Decand, was the area engineer for the United States Navy for the third, fourth and fifth naval districts, and was, of course, familiar with the Schuylkill work.

The next question is, why was the contract with the engineers filed as a confidential or secret document.

May I reply to the gentleman that my investigation reveals that this was neither confidential nor secret, it was in the same category as any other state contract, and, to the best of my knowledge, available to any citizen for inspection if he were so inclined to look at it.

The next question, 11 is, why were representatives of the press denied the privilege of securing copies of the contract.

May I quote the Secretary of Forests and Waters for this record: "I know nothing whatever of the press being denied access to the contract and have had no requests from the papers."

The last question, No. 12, is, are there any details of the desilting project which are now regarded by those in charge of the project as being of a top secret nature.

My reply to the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, is no. We are not in a period of emergency and insecurity; there are no secrets, and anybody who is so inclined has an invitation to go to the Department of Forests and Waters and receive more complete facts.

May I add this in closing that I think by the gentleman submitting these questions we were able to find that which I trust will be informative to the Members and to the public generally.

May I say this in closing, that so far as any matters of budget are concerned, this side of the House has prevailed upon the Budget Secretary to be available to the members of the Democratic party at his office at any time suitable or convenient to both.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to thank the Majority Leader for the comprehensive answers which he has made to the questions submitted. I also desire to thank the gentleman for the statement that what has hitherto been a mystery at the budget office will be available for investigation upon inquiry. I want to put on the record this statement, that a considerable number of months ago newspapermen came to me and complained personally that they had been denied access to the contract under which these specific operations were being promoted, and that information was listed in the Department as confidential. I have no personal knowledge on that point but I do have the testimony of what I consider reputable newspaper men.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 182 entitled:

An Act providing for the acquisition by the Department of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth of certain land in Dauphin County for use of the various State departments boards and commissions and making an appropriation

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of information.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, can we act on a bill when it is not on file?

The SPEAKER. Has the gentleman from Allegheny looked in his Senate file?

Mr. MORAN. Yes, Mr. Speaker, my Senate file.

The SPEAKER. Will the Member please examine the Senate file and see whether this bill, Senate Bill No. 182, Printers No. 19, is on file? For the information of the Members, this bill will be found in the Senate file. The Chair is informed that the bill has been filed on the Member's desk.

Does the gentleman from Allegheny now have Senate Bill No. 182 on his desk?

Mr. MORAN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read and agreed to.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. SPEAKER I desire to offer the following amendment to the bill by adding a new section.

The amendment was read and agreed to as follows:

Amend page 2 by adding a new section to read as follows:

Section 3. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

The title was read and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this measure has suddenly developed as a highly controversial bill, so far as a considerable number of the Members of this House are concerned. There are statements made that this building is wholly unsuited for warehouse purposes, that it has been designed for heavy industry, and that its purchase by the Commonwealth will prove to be a disappointment. I am, therefore, suggesting to the Majority Leader that a group of Members of this House be appointed to visit this building and return with report tomorrow. I presume there are other Members other than the official group that desire to go to the building, if they will be permitted to do so.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the minority leader, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire as to whether the Minority Leader intends to go personally to see the proposed area which the state may acquire?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will try to make the trip. I prefer not to be a Member of the official group, leaving that to the abler members of my party, but if I can I shall trail along with them and make the visit.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I inform the gentleman that I have already contacted the Department of Property and Supplies and they will have available for a limited number, transportation to this location immediately after this session, so that the Members on both sides, and those who desire to go along in their own cars as well, can be taken through this plant and given an opportunity to see it at first hand—the subject of this legislation.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, how many members would the Majority Leader suggest the minority nominate?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, they could all come if they had their own cars.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his generous invitation, but I desire him to be a little more specific.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I am certain that there are Members on the other side of the House who could with complete agreement and accord ride in the same car with two Members on this side of the House, and with their great powers of observation would realize that this is what we consider to be an excellent opportunity to acquire a very much needed property.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring?

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 4, as follows:

An Act authorizing the Armory Board of the State of Pennsylvania with the approval of the Governor to acquire a certain tract of land for use of the Armory Board of the State of Pennsylvania and making an appropriation therefor

Section 1 The Armory Board of the State of Pennsylvania with the approval of the Governor is hereby authorized to purchase in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania a certain tract or tracts of land located in the City and County of Philadelphia described as follows All that certain lot or piece of ground with the improvements thereon erected situate in the Twenty-fourth Ward of the City and County of Philadelphia and described according to a Survey and Plan thereof made by Joseph Johnson Surveyor and Regulator of the Eleventh District dated March 15 1895 as follows to wit Beginning at the point formed by the intersection of the Southerly side of Race Street (sixty feet wide) with the Westerly side of Thirty-third Street (sixty feet wide) thence extending Southwardly along the said side of Thirty-third Street One hundred forty-two feet to a point on the Northerly side of Cherry Street (thirty feet wide) One hundred forty-eight feet six and one-quarter inches thence extending Westwardly along the said side of Cherry Street One hundred sixty-five feet and three quarters of an inch to a point extending Northwardly on a line at right angles to said Cherry Street Fifty-four feet eleven and seven-eighths inches to a point thence extending Northwardly on a line at right angles to said Race Street Seventy feet ten and one-quarter inches to a point on the Southerly side of Race Street aforesaid thence extending Eastwardly along the said side of Race Street to the first mentioned point and place of beginning

Section 2 Said tract of land when purchased shall be added to the lands of the State Armory located at Thirty-third Street and Lancaster Avenue and shall be used in connection with the operation of said State Armory The deeds of conveyance shall be deposited with the Secretary of Internal Affairs Said lands shall not be acquired until the titles thereto have been approved by the Department of Justice

Section 3 The sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000) or a much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Department of Military Affairs for use of State Armory Board for the payment of the purchase price of said tract of land and the expenses incidental thereto including title searches

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—3

Cooper, Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 65, as follows:

An Act to further amend section one of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred seven (P. L. 292) entitled "An act to provide for the protection of insane persons feeble-minded persons and epileptics and the appointment of a guardian for the said insane persons feeble-minded persons and epileptics unable to care for their own property authorizing the guardian to support the wife and children of the said insane persons feeble-minded persons and epileptics defining the powers of the guardian and authorizing the sale of real estate of the ward" permitting petitions to be presented to the president judge of the court of common pleas when such courts are not in session

Section 1 Section one of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred seven (P. L. 292) entitled "An act to provide for the protection of insane persons feeble-minded persons and epileptics and

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time welcomes to the House a former Member, the gentleman from Luzerne, Honorable James J. McLane.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. O'DONNELL asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. MINTESS, O'DONNELL, ALTSHULER and GALLAGHER offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

Whereas, The Honorable Herman H. Yaffee has exemplified the best tradition of Americanism through achievements which have marked him as outstanding in academic and professional life; and

Whereas, He has shown a sympathetic and kindly attitude for his fellowmen through work in fraternal, charitable and civic organizations; and

Whereas, He has been happily joined in marriage for eighteen years to the former Lillian Newman in a union blessed with two children fortunate in a family tradition rich in the blessings of mutual love, admiration and trust; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby congratulates the Honorable Herman H. Yaffe on the eighteenth anniversary of his wedding.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Yaffe.

Mr. YAFFE. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my fellow members from Philadelphia for their kind wishes and congratulations. I hope to say the same thing to them on the appropriate dates. Thank you.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. STERNBERG, MINTESS, PETTIGREW, HOMER E. BROWN, GRANVILLE E. JONES, Mrs. MONROE and Mr. HOGGARD offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

Whereas, It is proper this august Body do pause in its deliberations for the purpose of expressing its felicitations on proper occasions, and

Whereas, It is believed that such occasion presents itself, and

Whereas, The Honorable Samuel Floyd, a member of this House from the thirteenth district of Philadelphia, was married on February sixth, to Deisher West, at the home of his bride and from the reports of several members of this House, a grand reception was held at the Home of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives do extend its felicitations and best wishes to the Honorable Samuel Floyd and his wife Deisher and wish them much health, happiness, prosperity and good luck in the years to come, and be it further

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Floyd.

Mr. FLOYD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank the Members of the House for this Resolution.

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. HEATHERINGTON and MIHM offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 8, 1949.

John Lewis Powers has been a member of the House of Representatives since 1932. His tenure in office has been marked by an earnest determination and tireless effort to see his job well done. His energy has been directed to a realization of those things nearest the public good and need, particularly in the control of floods on our rivers. He has long sought to enfranchise our absentee voters, believing the right to vote should be universal.

His social life is full and complete, he belongs to the Elks, Eagles and many other social and political organizations.

His private life is that of a happy family man. In short, he is the typical American public official, the type of whom we are so viciously proud. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives on the anniversary of the birthday of John Lewis Powers, voice our appreciation of him. We extend our congratulations and our thanks for his job well done, his life well lived, and his vindication of the American way of life.

The SPEAKER. The Chair regrets that the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Powers, because of illness cannot be with us today to be recognized. The Chair wishes to extend his best wishes for speedy recovery.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, February 9, 1949

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. PHILIP DAVID BOOKSTABER, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray. We gratefully acknowledge Thee, our Lord, our creator, and preserver, the rock of our life, and the shield of our health.

We render thanks to Thee for our lives which are ever in Thy hands, for our souls which are ever in Thy keeping. Truly Thy mercy and Thy love never fail us.

Therefore, we give thanks to Thee in these deliberations that we may come to build new statutes for our youths throughout the Commonwealth, and throughout the land.

We ask Thy blessing upon our Governor, upon our presiding officer, the Lieutenant Governor, and upon all who work with them for health and sanity of judgment in their deliberations, for the good of this Commonwealth. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. LORD, JR., further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LORD, JR., asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, the General Assembly at the Session of 1945 directed the Joint State Government

Commission to revise the Penal Laws of the Commonwealth. There had been no revision of the criminal laws from 1860 until 1939. At that time all of the old laws were assembled in one Act without any attempt at consistency or uniformity. This Act has created many problems. To remedy these defects, the present Code is submitted.

From 1945 until the present time—as a matter of fact, up until last night—the Commission through its sub-committee on Penal Laws has been studying the now proposed Act. During the last two years, as Chairman, I had the privilege of considering the entire field of our criminal law together with my colleagues in the General Assembly. We were most ably assisted by an Advisory Committee composed of outstanding jurists, law school professors, Bar Association representatives, District Attorneys, and defense counsel. As a result of this exhaustive consideration, the present proposed draft is now presented to the General Assembly. It represents the considered judgment of these experts in criminal law.

The proposed Crimes Act achieves the following:

It corrects substantive deficiencies and brings about consistency and uniformity both as to the classification of all crimes and their penalties;

It streamlines the entire criminal law in a brief, concise arrangement which, it is believed, will make the understanding of the context easier and will avoid many now existing ambiguities;

It eliminates old, archaic and obsolete language contained in old laws;

It does away with many conflicting provisions in the law.

I feel certain that I speak for the Commission and its sub-committee when I say that we feel the proposed law is vitally needed on our Statute books and will do much in the way of clarifying and making modern the penal laws of the Commonwealth.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LORD, JR. read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 243, entitled:

An Act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 244, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania, East Falls, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," by increasing the minimum amount to be paid to certain members on retirement.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 246, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043), entitled "An act establishing a public school employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," by increasing retirement allowances from the one one-hundred sixtieth (1/160) basis to the one one-hundred fortieth (1/140) basis; permitting retirement while under age sixty-two on full allowances after completing thirty-five years of credited service, or on reduced allowances after twenty-five years of such service; increasing the scale of disability benefits; and providing supplemental State annuities to bring certain members' annuities up to the corresponding State annuities for like periods of service.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. BERGER read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 247, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1798), entitled "An act providing a fixed charge, payable by the Commonwealth, on lands acquired by the State and the Federal Government for forest reserves, or for the purpose of preserving and perpetuating a portion of the original forests of Pennsylvania, and preserving and maintaining the same as public places and parks; and the distribution of the same for county, school, township, and road purposes in the counties, school districts, and townships where such forests are located; and making an appropriation," by increasing the amounts which the counties will receive from the State for forest reserves.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

Mr. YOSKO read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 248, entitled:

An Act providing for the payment of the court of certain moneys involved in disputes between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and any county officer acting as agent of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, in presenting this bill, I would like to say a few words about it. Much has been talked about, and many words have been uttered about solving the housing problem. We have heard the Governor in his message state that he was willing to go along with a subsidy to provide builders to build houses for low rental income groups. However, I believe that in our society there is a large segment who have been completely forgotten; that is the man who makes a fairly good income, but is unable to save enough money to make a down payment to buy a home.

If the subsidy that the Governor speaks about is used for the low income groups, this other large group of good Americans will not be helped.

Now, there is one thing we should bear in mind in talking about housing. Our system is based on a free enterprise system, and a competitive system.

Now, Mr. President, in the mills today and in the factories, there is no competition between the workers, due to the fact that it is so mechanized that the worker of today knows that when he goes into that mill, he will get a job putting a screw into an assembly line manufacturing plant, and as long as he lives, he is going to put that screw into that machine going by on the assembly line. The next man is going to tighten up that screw.

If we go along and build nothing but modern brick apartment housing, that man is going back to an apartment. He is not going to have the interest in that apartment that he would have if he went back to a home, and a lot, and in that lot he is able to go out at night and scrape his hands in the garden. In other words, if the man next door to him grew a rose, he would try to grow a better rose, and he would again feel, in his heart and soul, that he is something in this world instead of a machine working beside a machine.

With this in mind, Mr. President, I present this bill to form a small home subsidy to encourage a man to build a home. Let him get this down payment from the state, and pay it back with the mortgage that he can get from a bank or a building and loan or an insurance company.

Then, he can go back to his own castle at night and feel he is a part of the system, and owns this house, and that it is his own house to do with it as he wishes.

With that in mind, Mr. President, I present the following bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HOLLAND and NEFF read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 249, entitled:

An Act to encourage and promote the construction of private dwellings and their ownership by the individual citizen through the granting of State-aid to individuals desiring to build or purchase private homes; establishing certain minimum standards and imposing certain restrictions and limitations on loans made; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Commerce and certain lending institutions: establishing a revolving fund, and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Messrs. BARR and KEPHART read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 250, entitled:

An Act to amend section thirty-one of the act approved the second day of May, 1929 (P. L. 1278), entitled "An Act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by reclassifying counties of the first and second classes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 251, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of that act approved the tenth day of July, 1919 (P. L. 887), entitled "An Act dividing the counties of this Commonwealth into eight classes; designating the mode of ascertaining and changing the classification of counties; and providing for the regulation of their affairs according to their respective classes," by reclassifying counties of the first class.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

URGING THE SENATE OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA RECORD ITS CONDEMNATION OF THE UNJUST PERSECUTION GIVEN JOSEPH CARDINAL MINDSZENTY AND MEMORIALIZE THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO SEVER DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH COMMUNISTIC HUNGARY

Mr. LORD, Jr., offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations:

In the Senate, February 9, 1949.

Whereas, The whole world is shocked and astounded at the unjust and improper verdict given Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty in communist dominated Hungary; and

Whereas, This religious persecution is an outrage against Americans of all faiths; and

Whereas, It is indicative of what may be anticipated in communist controlled countries and is a warning of the spread of tyranny and oppression among free peoples; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania record its strong condemnation of this unjust persecution and that it hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to sever diplomatic relations with Communistic Hungary as a nation which would condone and foster such outrageous conduct; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, at this point in the Senate business, I would like to suggest to the membership that there have been complaints from the transcribing room and the news room that the Members, in presenting resolutions, are not furnishing the desk with sufficient copies.

I would appreciate it very much, in order to expedite the operation of these various departments, if the Members would present six or seven copies of each resolution to the desk so these various agencies can be served.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

O Almighty God, our refuge and strength; keep us, we beseech Thee under Thy watchful Providence. Protect our country, guard our homes, and sanctify our lives. So guide our hearts that we may use and not abuse the liberty wherewith Thy Son Jesus Christ hath made us free. In times of prosperity kindle in us a spirit of grateful service, and in adversity endue us with courage, faith and sympathy for others. May truth, purity, and charity dwell among us from generation to generation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 182 as follows:

An Act providing for the acquisition by the Department of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth of certain land in Dauphin County for use of the various State departments boards and commissions and making an appropriation

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 For the purpose of acquiring a tract of approximately twenty-four (24) acres in the City of Harrisburg Dauphin County upon which is erected a modern industrial plant formerly occupied by the Harrisburg Steel Company the Department of Property and Supplies is hereby authorized to acquire in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the area above generally described which is now being offered for sale at auction by War Assets Administration

Section 2 The Secretary of Property and Supplies is hereby authorized to make the deposit of approximately ten thousand dollars ($10,000) required to be made at the time of the auction sale and to bid such price for said land and buildings as shall be deemed by him to be fair and reasonable subject to the approval of the Governor If the Commonwealth is the successful bidder such additional deposits shall be made as are required by the terms of the sale Any funds appropriated by the General Assembly to the Department of Property and Supplies for any other purpose shall be available for the purposes herein

The title to the property shall be approved by the Department of Justice

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, this bill strikes me as highly irregular procedure for the State government to engage in. It is highly irregular for any government to ever bid at an auction sale. The government disposes of property by auction; they no not buy property at auction.

I think it is highly unusual and highly irregular that this bill was not introduced in the Senate until the first day of February, 1949, and we are asked under pressure of time to pass this bill by the ninth day of February. The celerity and speed of the bill thru this House should clearly excite some suspicion. I think it is highly irregular and highly unusual of this House to vote for an appropriation of $10,000, which is actually signing a blank check allowing the Department of Property and Supplies to bid any sum of money whatsoever for this property. I do not think the Members of this House as the trustees of the State's money can so violate their trust as to impose that trust upon somebody else.

I think it is highly irregular and highly unusual that productive enterprise suddenly becomes and is considered to be warehouses, and that this State government which would supposedly have favored a movement of productive enterprises into this State, should suddenly decided to buy up productive capacity.

But the most unusual thing about this bill, the most amazing thing about this bill is that there is a way for the State government to acquire this property from the Federal government without any irregular or unusual proceeding being necessary.

If I may, I would like to read from Title 50 of the United States Code, Annotated, in the setting up of the War Assets Administration and providing for the disposal of property.

Section 1622, subsection 2 provides: "A surplus of property shall be disposed of so as to afford governmental and public institutions, non-profit or tax-supported educational institutions, charitable and eleemosynary institutions, non-profit, or tax-supported hospitals and similar institutions, states, their political subdivisions and instrumentalities, and volunteer fire companies an opportunity to fulfill in the public interest, the legitimate needs".

Later on subsection F of the same section says: "The disposal of surplus property under this section to states and political subdivisions and instrumentalities thereof shall be given priority over all other disposals of property provided for in this Act".

Now, Mr. Speaker, it has been customary that as government property has been disposed of and has been sold to states, it has been sold by negotiated sale and not by the State government with its unlimited taxing going into an auction sale and outbidding private persons. Actually there is no need for any rush in this matter. Of course, this auction will take place on Friday. As I see it, one of three things can happen. Either some private enterprise or some man can come into the State engaged in productive enterprise and buy that plant, and if he does furnish payrolls for the County of Dauphin, I do not see why he should not be allowed to purchase a property to be devoted to a productive enterprise. If it is a speculative buying of property the State can proceed by eminent domain proceedings to take as much of the property as it needs for its own uses and let the rest go.

The third alternative, as I see it, is that nobody buys and then the State can still continue to proceed under Title 50 of the United States Code, that automatically they should have done instead of coming into this House and asking this House to use these highly irregular and unauthorized proceedings.

You say "What is the harm"? I think it is an extremely dangerous precedent for this House or this General Assembly to ever give to any governmental official an absolutely blank check to spend any sum of money he sees fit for a piece of property at public auction. It is not done, and I think it is a very bad precedent.

The next thing that I think is bad is that it has a tendency to drive industry out of the State, for what industry can afford to bid against the whole State budget of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania? This bill provides no maximum bid. I have a $10,000 minimum, but the sky is the limit.

The thing that makes me wonder about this bill, when I see a bill rushed through the Senate such as this Bill has been, I wonder what pressure is behind that bill. In Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, there are men who consistently and habitually bid at auction sales. We call such men the "Forty Thieves". Those men attend sales where a piece of property is up for auction and offer themselves to be bought off for a price. When that property is put up for auction they will withdraw their bid for a consideration.

Mr. Speaker, I am not saying that anybody is getting any consideration, but I must point out that that is the reason that the government should not engage in transactions of this kind, because there is purely and simply that danger when some governmental official, a deputy of the Department of Property and Supplies, has a tremendous responsibility placed upon him when he comes down to bidding on that property. Or maybe money has nothing to do with it. Maybe one of these industrialists in the County of Dauphin in the election finds himself on the wrong side of the political fence, and is thereby punished by the political powers. I do not know what the actual conditions are, I know nothing about the facilities, I haven't seen them, but this bill itself on the face of it, without knowing anything about this building, just as an ordinary procedure of government, which many of you gentlemen know better than I do, this bill is a most highly unusual and irregular bill in the speed of its passage and certainly was not necessitated by any great public need at this time. Twenty-four acres is a devilish lot of storage space to be acquired at any one time. Twenty-four acres of storage space is a lot of storage space to have been developed in the short space of two years.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, from my observation I presume from what the gentleman has said that he considers this purchase and this measure highly irregular. Perhaps the gentleman would prefer where public funds are to be used to acquire a piece of property, that all the bidders in the State and for that matter, in the nation be advised to what extent the State will go in the bidding by inserting a ceiling in the bill. If that were the case all we would have to do is to bid ten dollars above the State's figure, and then the State would be out of the picture. If you think that this Department when they are acting for the State, spending state funds, which after all are yours and mine, should tell the people having funds what they should do in this matter, then I take the proud position that I disagree with the gentleman 101 percent.

The State has the power to acquire real estate when it is vital for its functions. We submit that as to the facilities of the State in the Harrisburg area, there are not proper facilities available. After all, this is not a secret process, it is a public sale, without reserve, and surely the gentleman knows the legal connotations and interpretations of that procedure.

It is rather difficult to reconcile the gentlemen of the minority standing on the floor of the House and attacking a Federal agency for the disposal of public property. I never anticipated that we would have to meet an argument of that nature this morning.

While it is not for us on this side to be surprised by the attitudes of the minority side, I say that we have just cause for surprise when a Member stands on the floor and attacks a policy of a Federal agency which is in charge of the same party of which I think the gentleman is a member.

For his further information may I add that there is a recapture clause which provides that anytime within the next twenty years should the Federal government for national security purposes wish to buy back this property, it may do so, and has a chance to do so, on notice within one hundred twenty days. That obligates any and every purchaser of this property to move everything out of the building within one hundred and twenty days, no matter what the nature of the material may be. Surely the Members of this House will realize that for anybody to go into this property, which has a special use and move heavy equipment at a time entirely up to the Federal Government, would not be a very secure position to hold.

We are not going to drive industry out of this state by this bill. After all, industry has been coming into this state seeking its many advantages and contributing to the welfare of the people. We have heard the Governor say so many times on the floor of this House, and we on this side of the House are proud to have had the opportunity in placing before the people in the past, present and we will continue in the future, such programs as we feel will continue to encourage industry in this state, for the benefit of the people who live therein.

Now, Mr. Speaker, there is a practical reason for haste. We on this side of the House ascertained that this property was available. We ascertained there was some space for sale.

It became apparent that the Commonwealth could not with public funds just arbitrarily take the position that "We will bid for this property," and place an estimate in the hands of others so that they can become bidders. We took the proper legislative legal procedure by introducing a bill which would go through this legislature and put the people of this state and this House on notice exactly as to what we planned to do. We see a need, we subscribe to that need and we feel confident that if the State is fortunate enough to acquire this property the taxpayers of Pennsylvania will be benefited by such a transaction.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I had not expected to intervene in this discussion. However, I cannot permit one remark made by the Majority Leader to pass unnoticed.

He expresses great surprise that a member of the minority group would presume to criticize the Federal policy administered by his own party. I wish to assure the Majority Leader that we have no great white haired father in the Senate, we have no great white haired father at Washington, and we have no great red haired father here in Harrisburg, to tell us what we must necessarily do.

I appreciate the difficulties under which the Majority Leader works in, inasmuch as he must accept a policy that is handed to him; he must hold the line as to that policy, while we on this side hereby declare ourselves free as regards those policies, or as regards any proposals that may emanate from Philadelphia, from Allegheny or from any other county in this State.

I yield to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Kondrath.

Mr. KONDRATH. Mr. Speaker, I am very much concerned about the ultimate result of the passage of this bill. I come from a group of people who wear overalls every day of the week. We are very much concerned about the great number of unemployed in the city of Harrisburg and in the tri-county area. We would like to see machinery in that plant with people working at those machines, earning wages instead of being qualified for receiving unemployment compensation checks. While the State may save a few dollars through the course of years, keeping their supplies handy to Harrisburg, the State can also get much more revenue from taxes which an employer would pay and through the wages which are paid to employes who may be hired by a good going concern.

There are several companies interested in the purchase of this building. They should be given that opportunity. It is about time that this state should take the position that has been enunciated by several other states that they will cooperate with industry, that they will revive old business and bring in new business and continue to expand industrially.

I am quite certain that this particular problem is of deep concern to the citizens of Harrisburg. On this very day a delegation of leading Harrisburgers has gone to Washington to appeal to the authorities that may be in power there to help them in this situation, if the state of Pennsylvania does not recognize the problem of the unemployed here in Harrisburg and throughout the state. I think we can find land, we can find structures throughout the state, that can well provide the space that we have need for. I do not think it is very far from Harrisburg to Indiantown Gap. If we need space for storage I am quite sure that we could find the available space at Indiantown Gap.

In 1936, the site on which this building is located was flooded. Can you imagine what would happen to the cartons that would be stored in that building if another flood arose, and we have no guarantee that we will not have a repetition of the flood of 1936. The plant is in a desirable location for many industries, its easy access to power, water and transportation. I think that the Commerce Department of our Commonwealth is obliged to make every effort that they can to bring in some industry for that plant, that will use that plant to bring progress and prosperity to all of our people of this Commonwealth.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, will the majority leader tell me from his governmental experience whether he has ever heard of government bidding at an auction sale.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I believe that I have. I cannot cite the gentleman a specific example.

Mr. BRANDON. Will the gentleman tell me—

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I continue for just a moment? I think in the Department of Public Assistance there have been some examples but as I say, in wanting to be fair, I cannot give you a specific example.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me if the Department of Property and Supplies has ever proceeded to use the State's priority given to it by the Federal Code?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know the nature of the gentleman's question. Will he please repeat it?

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, has the Department of Property and Supplies attempted to use the priority in purchase of this property granted to it by Title 50 which I have read on the floor of this House?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I don't believe so.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, was there any reason why this bill was delayed that this gentleman knows of, until the first day of February, 1949 and not introduced in the first meeting of this House?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, it came to the attention of the state, I am reliably informed, at a comparatively recent date, after it had been weighed by those who had the responsibility of expending state funds, and had been decided and agreed upon to be a good measure, subject to the approval of this Legislature, which after all represents the people, and at the earliest possible moment a bill was prepared. It became evident that the deliberations by individuals in arriving at the conclusion took until the day before the date of introduction of this bill. There is nothing unusual, I observe, in introducing a bill in this House or in the Senate for the purpose of putting it through in five days. That has been done with many, many measures in the past and will be done in the future, and it is only the uninformed legislative observers who make public statements, as they have a right to do, not on the floor of the House but in the public press, that this was the fastest bill ever to be put through this legislature. Many of us here have seen bills put through even faster, not in point of days but in point of time.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me if there is any reason, if the state should decide to acquire all of this property or any part of it, why it should not proceed in the normal channels of the law after the property is sold at auction?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I think this is a direct approach to the problem. We enter into this as any other bidder. We do not wait to see what industry or person acquires it and then uses a ringaround to acquire title, when they are legally able to do so. I think this is the fair way. We place ourselves in a position where we justify the need for this property, and on that basis we seek to acquire it.

Mr. BRANDON. One final question Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me what criticism I made of the Federal government in my opening remarks, and will the gentleman kindly state to me what the statement I made was that would indicate to him that I was in favor of telling how much the state was willing to bid for this property?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman made a comment, if I can recall correctly there is no maximum amount in the bill which the officers having the authority to bid for the property on behalf of the State, can use as a top figure. Everybody knows that any maximum amount in a bill of this nature would be a ceiling on any bid to be made by the state. Anybody who can read can determine the ceiling by which we are bound.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I went through the buildings with the Committee of Members of the House here yesterday afternoon. I have got to say that these buildings are in wonderful shape; they are substantial buildings. There is a lot of floor space. However, they are wonderful buildings for a manufacturing plant, but I certainly do not think they would make a good place to store records.

I understand that there is feeling among some of the leaders, so-called leaders, here in Harrisburg, that they do not want manufacturing plants to come into this city. It has been rumored that they are worried that they may get a lot of employees here in Harrisburg who might be organized and might work against them politically, and since a lot of them have been getting elected by small margins, this is probably the measure which is worrying them.

The building is also in the flood zone, I understand. I made a lot of inquiries over the town last night and ascertained that records could not be stored in these buildings without making a lot of changes, and the expense would be enormous to do that.

It would mean a loss of taxation to the city of Harrisburg; it would also mean a loss of payroll; it means that the Department of Property and Supplies would at the most employ possibly fifteen people in these buildings. The state at the present time now has a barracks out here on Herr Street, which I understand is quite a plot of ground. There is a corral on it to take care of the horses of the National Guard, and since the National Guard does not use horses any more, why don't the state make use of this ground? I understand there is plenty of room out there to put up a substantial building that would be suitable for storing records.

Mr. Speaker, I understand that organized labor is absolutely opposed to this bill. I understand that leading citizens of Harrisburg, the majority of them are opposed to this bill. I understand the Chamber of Commerce also is against this bill, and I would ask that Members of this House to vote "no" on this measure.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Westmoreland yields to me. I am wondering whether the Member appeared as a result of due process issued by the Majority Leader. (Referring to Member entering Hall of House.)

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I inform the gentleman from Cambria that we on this side of the House need not issue any calls to duty. We were all elected, conscious of the fact that we represent our constituents, and with pleasure and complete accord we appear here daily to complete our chores.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, proceeding on the supposition that the majority party tends to see that this legislation passes today, may I suggest that as soon as it is passed, and we are definitely against passing it, as soon as it is passed that the leaders would propose to the administration in Washington a postponement of this sale for the coming Friday in order to give the state a chance for a direct buy, as suggested by Representative Brandon, according to the Code, where in such cases it would be possible for the State to get the property at a much less price. Also it gives a chance for development in case we might have some big steel companies interested in purchasing the property.

On the question recurring?

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Lovett, Weiss and Moran.

IN COMMEMORATION OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Mr. MINTESS offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 9, 1949.

So much has been written and said about Abraham Lincoln that today it is impossible to add anything new. Yet, few of us understand this man who attained greatness in simplicity, who not preached but practiced the fundamental law of God. To Lincoln compassion, tolerance, patience and love were not words to be used in a speech, but words to live by. His life from the early days when he educated himself to the day he assumed the highest office in the land, was guided alone by his devotion to simple goodness.

Lincoln was a sad man, the personal frustrations, the turmoil and chaos of his day, the threat to the very life of his country, the greed, caprice, cupidity, avarice and ambition of those about him, all weighed heavily upon him and furrowed his noble brow. But his gentle humor and great patience, together with his total lack of self concern, sustained his perspective and enabled him to see the task before him. He depended upon God for the strength he needed, and he never found it wanting.

What a paradox that our proud and sophisticated people owe so much to this simple, homely backwoodsman, who read his Bible at night, turned the other cheek and loved the sinner. Truly, had Lincoln not lived, our nation would have "perished from the earth". For it was his guiding genius and tremendous ability, tempered by his abiding humility and deep faith in God that enabled him to lead and guide and save from itself, a nation rent asunder and spilling its life blood.

The greatness and simplicity, pride and humility, melancholy and humor, stern justice and compassion that was Lincoln is a heritage to Americans and an ideal every American should strive to emulate. Therefore be it Resolved, by the House of Representatives, That it interrupt its business and ponder and reflect upon the man who gave his entire life to, and went down in death for, "The People". And in raising its voice in gratitude, speak the only words which, somehow, considering Lincoln, seem appropriate—Thanks, Abe.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. MINTESS. Mr. Speaker, we are privileged to celebrate with divine gratitude the birthday, and to honor with devotion the memory of one of the greatest men who ever lived—Abraham Lincoln.

His humility, his patience, his forthrightness, his courage, his statesmanship shine with a brilliance that passing years cannot efface.

These qualities, even in this far distant day spell-out the nobleness of character which it becomes all men to emulate.

All Americans honor Abraham Lincoln, but to two groups with which I am identified, his memory has a more intense quality on these occasions.

I speak as a Republican paying honor to the first great leader of his party. I speak as a Negro again voicing undying gratitude for the Emancipation Proclamation.

But, Mr. Speaker, I would say more. Lessons from the life of this great man mean little unless, to use some of his own immortal words, "We take increased devotion" for "Unfinished tasks."

If peace and liberty are not the burning issues of this hour, then, Sir, I am woefully inadequate to read the signs of the time.

Much do we hear these days of extending human rights. To me, human rights mean liberty. Much do we also hear of confidence no longer repose in our party by many citizens.

I would direct the attention of all who are as sincere for their achievement, as to the cause of permanent world peace, to return to the serious prayerful study of the life of Abraham Lincoln.

Stripped of all else the life of Abraham Lincoln depicts just one thing, the scaling of the heights from the depths, on more than one occasion with but one pole star and one precept; right, eternal, everlasting right. This lesson as simple as it is profound is available to us all.

Oh Day of Days

When a decision must be made

When duty calls, and Right

Asserts her ways

No middle ground the path is Bright

He made his Choice, He Choose the Right.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED TO COMMUNISTIC-CONTROLLED COUNTRIES

Messrs. CONWAY, GALLAGHER, DRISCOLL and McGEE offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 9, 1949.

Whereas, The entire civilized world was shocked by the trial of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty and the severe sentence which was imposed by the Communist-controlled court; and

Whereas, The opinion expressed on all sides, is that we have here the best evidence of the intention of the Communists to destroy religion wherever it exists; and

Whereas, The destruction of the freedom of religion is only one of the many freedoms being destroyed by the Communists in every country in which they have control; and

Whereas, Vast numbers of persons in all walks of life in all these countries are obliged to suffer on a scale civilization has never heretofore experienced; therefor be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, mindful of the great crimes and injustices being practiced upon the peoples of the Communistic-controlled countries, hereby expresses its sincere sympathy and hopes the day will not be too far distant when all of their sufferings will have become a memory only, and that they again will be among the free peoples of the world.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. HELM asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. KONDRATH asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him

Session 1949.

138th of the General Assembly.

Vol. 31.

HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1949.

No. 13.

SENATE

MONDAY, February 14, 1949

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, prayer was offered by Dr. WALLACE L. GALLUP, Regional Director, National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Eternal God, our Father, who has made of one blood all the peoples of the earth to dwell together in justice, amity and brotherhood, give us, we pray Thee, a new and lofty conception of ourselves, of each other, of this Commonwealth, and of our Country.

May we never forget that we are the servants of the State and that the State is the servant of the people. Keep us, we pray Thee, from the sins of bigotry and hatred, and furnish our minds and strengthen our hands with the ideals of justice, of good will and of brotherhood. Direct us in all our thinking and in all our planning that we might honor Thee and ourselves and so make our best contributions to the welfare and the happiness of all our people, our neighbors here and there around the world.

In the name of one common God, the God of this one world, we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. LETZLER, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

An Act to further amend section two of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 720), entitled "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth, under certain terms, conditions, and limitations, of certain streets in cities of the second class, second class A, and third class as State highways, and for the improvement, construction, reconstruction, resurfacing, and maintenance by the Commonwealth of certain defined widths of said streets; imposing duties on such cities and on public utility companies using such streets; providing that no assessment shall be made upon the Commonwealth in the elimination of any grade crossing thereon; authorizing cities, persons, associations, or corporations to enter into agreements with the Commonwealth to bear a portion of the cost of construction or maintenance; providing for the assessment of certain portions of the cost of street improvements on abutting property owners; regulating the replacement of certain facilities of public utility companies; prohibiting the opening of said streets after improvement without a permit, and providing penalty therefor; regulating the maintenance of detours; authorizing the increase of city indebtedness in certain cases; and appropriating money in the Motor License Fund for the purposes of this act," adding new routes in McKeesport Allegheny County.

which was re-referred to the Committee on Highways.

REMARKS MEMORIALIZING ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The PRESIDENT. Gentlemen of the Senate, the time has arrived when this body will pay tribute to a former President of the United States of America, Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday was celebrated on Saturday of last week.

Being ever mindful of the important part he played in connection with the affairs of Pennsylvania during the days of The Civil War, His pictures and portraits are displayed in this Capitol and a number of them in the Hall of this Chamber.

Two members of the Senate will speak in tribute to Abraham Lincoln, and I take pleasure in calling upon the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan, as the first speaker of the afternoon.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President. As a Freshman in the Pennsylvania State Senate I can think of no other honor that could come to me, greater than that of the opportunity to extol, in my humble way, the life and actions of this great republican—this great champion of personal liberty and exponent of American Democracy, Abraham Lincoln. We interrupt, momentarily, our normal pursuits today to honor an American citizen who served his country with complete devotion.

On the anniversary of the birth of this great President who held the Union together during a period of strife and struggle in our nation's history we think of him as the Great Emancipator and the friend of the lowly and humble people of the land. Actually, the contributions of Lincoln to American life and popular government were far greater and more complex than the stories of his Civil War leadership as told in history books.

Abraham Lincoln was perhaps the first outstanding American leader who was powerful enough in influence and strong enough in the qualities of leadership to implement the doctrines of Thomas Jefferson and set in motion the proper vehicle for a government based on liberalism and progressive action.

Modern Democrats often claim that they are Jefferson Democrats and all of us respect and admire their choice of leadership. Jefferson was a great American—far-sighted in his vision of the political future, kindly and understanding toward human needs and liberal in his thinking. In the book "Political Parties of Today" by Prof. Arthur N. Holcombe of Harvard University we read that the foundation for the Republican party was laid by Thomas Jefferson 70 years before its actual appearance as a party. It was Jefferson who gave expression to the principles on which the Republican party is founded, and this was recognized early by that great Republican leader, Abraham Lincoln. Lincoln publicly subscribed to the principles of Jefferson.

When Lincoln undertook to campaign for the United States Senate in opposition to Douglas the famous series of Lincoln-Douglas debates gave him an opportunity to assert leadership in his party and expound the liberal platform which led him to the White House and established as a course of future action for his party along lines of liberal and progressive action.

We are proud and happy that the traditions of Abraham Lincoln have not been forgotten by the millions who carry the standard of Republicanism today.

We see these same theories of progressive liberalism, as first expounded in the Republican party by Abraham Lincoln and carried to greater fulfillment by such distinguished political leaders as Gov. Duff being stressed in the national picture. I refer, of course, to the remarks of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the titular head of the Republican party, who started nation-wide Lincoln Day observances with this explanation of his views, and I quote: "Our party has solemnly declared that we believe whole-heartedly in unemployment insurance, in old-age assistance on an increased basis, in broader social security generally, in slum clearance and public housing, in public development of our water power resources, in farm price supports, in vigorous protection of the rights of labor."

This sounds like a page out of the book from Gov. Duff's long established and well known party platform. It harkens back to the fearless and humane leadership of that great American whose name has been inscribed upon the glorious pages of history and whose life provided the youth of the nation with an ideal they might well emulate. Abraham Lincoln was a man who stands out in American history because he possessed great qualities of leadership, sympathy with human misery and a desire to fit the functions of government to the needs of the people. This desire to have the government serve the people rather than the people serve the government has been an outstanding characteristic of democracy and is in sharp contrast to foreign developments which strive for dictatorship and seek to relegate the mass of the people to a position of secondary importance to that of the state.

If Lincoln were living to day I am sure he would be in the forefront of those who challenge the right of government by tyranny and the principle that the rights of man must be subjected to the welfare of the state. We in America have learned that through liberty, democracy and equality a nation can reach its highest mark of achievement and the dignity of man may be preserved.

The Poet Shakespeare has written:

Some men are born great,

Some achieve greatness,

And some have greatness thrust upon them.

It is not my privilege to classify Abraham Lincoln in his proper category. History has placed him there with universal unanimity accorded to no other American citizen, living or dead. He achieved greatness. He was born in adverse circumstances. Nancy Lincoln gave birth to her boy baby in a log cabin on a wilderness trail in the frontier State of Kentucky in 1809. Modern hospitals, agents of mercy and trained attendants that are the rightful heritage of every American mother today, were unknown in those perilous times. It was a time when the fittest survived, and only to 45 years of life instead of the 67 years that is the normal expectancy of every individual in our great country today.

In the standards of those days, he was not ill-fed, ill-clothed or ill-housed. He was not born in a hopeless environment. It was a time when the commandments for survival were, "Eat it up, wear it out, make it do."

Abraham Lincoln's formal education was negligible compared with present day standards. He did not have the advantages of college training and guidance. He was, however, taught early in life that that self-discipline and hard work were essential to solid character. He was also told that the privilege for self government involved the responsibility of self support.

Abraham Lincoln recognized no class in America. He was so engrossed in the principles of a democracy that he would tolerate only those principles that would make a better America. He was a common man and loved the common man, but he loved his country above all. He believed in the Capitalistic system and abhorred an ism that detracted from the democratic way of life. He believed and he knew that in this country opportunity was open to all.

I could spend hours speaking on the virtues of Abraham Lincoln. Because of his humility-kindness-generosity and understanding he lives in our hearts. His life, as the years increase, stands out as a marble statute to direct us in everything that is right and good. His actions and his life will be an inspiration for everything that smacks of Americanism in years to come.

And as I come to the end of this brief message I call upon the members of this body to give thought to the life and works of this great man and join in thought with Josiah Gilbert Holland that America may ever be blessed with Honest Leaders in High places.

"God, give us Men! A time like this demands

Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;

Men whom the lust of office does not kill;

Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;

Men who possess opinions and a will;

Men who have honor; men who will not lie;

Men who can stand before a demagogue

And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking!

Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog

In public duty and in private thinking;

For while the rabble, with their thumb-worn creeds,

Their large professions and their little deeds,

Mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps,

Wrong rules the land and waiting Justice sleeps."

As we celebrate the birthday of Abraham Lincoln we pledge ourselves again to uphold the principles for which he stood and face with courage the future regardless of the dangers or hardships involved. We shall not succumb to the wiles of persuasive propaganda nor the blustering threats of those who parade their armed might in the hope of intimidating us and destroy our will to preserve the fundamental tenets of free government.

Abraham Lincoln has shown us the way. We will not desert his leadership. The words of that great champion of democracy still ring out to inspire us to meet the tests which lie ahead!

Thank you.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan. The second speaker of the afternoon is the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Stiefel.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President and members of the Senate, there are two key points to my address, one is that the immortality of Abraham Lincoln consists in the fact that he was the greatest exegete of that immortal document, the Declaration of Independence, and the second one is that even greater than the menace of totalitarianism is the menace of futilitarianism, a word coined from the word "futile."

I am indeed grateful to the leadership of the Senate of Pennsylvania for the signal honor which was again bestowed upon me to deliver one of the Lincoln Day addresses during the current session of the General Assembly.

The core of America's strength is the invincible courage, inventive genius and glorious traditions of our people, our greatest menace is the feeling of futility and despair which holds in its talons many parts of the world and may some day attempt an invasion of our land.

In a world torn asunder by a global clash of ideas, beset by the machinations of "Totalitarianism" from without and cankered by "Futilitarianism" from within, the American Creed, as preached and demonstrated by Abraham Lincoln, spells a Message of hope, solace, succor and steadfastness to a perplexed humanity.

With the Euroasian Sphinx-bear casting his ominous shadow athwart Democracy's path of advancement, the enslaved and downtrodden masses the world over are lifting today their eyes to the towering figure of America's Great Emancipator and Martyr-President and offering their fervent prayers for the victory of the Lincoln tradition of integrity, simplicity, equality, freedom through law and constructive humanitarianism. In this age of insecurity and apprehension Abraham Lincoln becomes the Guide of the Perplexed and the Helmsman of Mankind's Soul.

The Lincoln Legend is blessed not only with immortality but also with eternal youth—it sprouts annually a succulent literature dealing with Lincoln and hundreds of editorials containing timely evaluations of his leadership and spirit.

Preparatory to this address I have compiled a number of excerpts from Lincoln Day editorials which appeared in 1947 and 1948 in some of the leading newspapers of the nation. These gems of condensation contain classic summaries of the essence of Lincolnism.

"Wherever his story has been told, his deeds recounted, it has brought new hope."—Tampa Morning Tribune.

"He loved his country better than any of its component parts."—The Wichita Eagle.

"He had a sense of mission rather than of self."—New York Times.

"The spirit of Lincoln is as universal as his character is enduring."—The Indianapolis News.

"No country is more greatly blessed than one which has known the spiritual inspiration of such a leader."—The Knoxville Journal.

"As we had need of Lincoln's leadership in time of crisis we have need of his wisdom, tolerance and example in all our years."—Oakland Tribune.

"His humility was personal; he lacked nothing of faith in his convictions or in the future of a united nation."—The (Philadelphia) Evening Bulletin.

"A gigantic figure emerges, and one which personifies independence and freedom."—The (Cincinnati) Enquirer.

"Lincoln lives immortally because he was of those rare human beings, a glorified spirit, who passes his days in passionate love for humanity."—The (New York) Daily Mirror.

"We revere his memory for the inherent goodness of the man, the wisdom of his counsel and the humanity of his administration."—Los Angeles Evening Herald, and Express.

"He was a true liberal—a believer in American ideals and constitutional rights—an unostentatious exponent of true religion."—The Salt Lake Tribune.

"Abraham Lincoln was a rare combination of the idealistic and the practical."—The El Paso Times.

"For millions of Americans he is the flowering of the best in our civilization and our political systems."—The (Allentown) Morning Call.

"The strength of Abraham Lincoln was in his unsurpassing gentleness. History has no figure to whom he is comparable, save one."—The (Portland) Oregonian.

"The value of the Lincoln tradition is that it challenges us to do as he did—to face the issues of our time with courage, patience, humility, and wisdom."—The Des Moines Register.

"He developed himself as an individual, but as an individual he identified himself with the mass of humanity."—The (Dallas) Times Herald.

"A confused and distraught world sorely needs a revival of the wisdom of 'Homely Abe,' that the common man everywhere may be treated with dignity."—The Miami Herald.

The clash of ideas which is underlying the current global cold war is not the product of our era—it dates back to the inception of our Republic, when the Declaration of Independence set into motion the liberating concepts of freedom and equality. Because these concepts are universal any war that is fought for their preservation is a world-war and not a local or civil war. This is the reason why our Civil War was a world-war as its diplomatic reverberations revolved around a combat between the favored classes of the caste system and the Common People of the world. Palmerston of England was fully aware of the global aspects of America's Civil War—attuned to the wishes of the interventionists in England who wanted to see a dismembered America, he was also aware of the sympathies of the cotton mill workers of Lancashire whose sympathies were with the North.

By commemorating the birthday of our Martyr-President, in accordance with the noble traditions of this august body, and by rededicating ourselves to the lofty principles of American Democracy, so pointedly enunciated by him, we will again stress and underscore the political ideology of our great Nation for the preservation whereof we are now enmeshed in a global cold war.

The original definition of this ideology born on the soil of Pennsylvania and in the City of Brotherly Love set into motion dynamic forces that become the torchbearers of mankind and shapers of its destiny. Embodied in our Declaration of Independence, which Charles Sumner so aptly called "that title-deed of the human race", our American political ideology began its triumphal march "per aspera ad astra" and its sustained advance that marked the birth and emergence of our Republic, as the vanguard of mankind.

The crystallization of this ideology is a long process that dates back to the first shot at Lexington and the final phases whereof are now beginning to emerge perceptibly from the amorphous cataclysm of the present world-crisis.

In 1861, Abraham Lincoln redefined the concepts of "Life, Liberty and Pursuit of Happiness" of the Declaration of Independence by stating that there would be no cessation in "the struggle for maintaining in the world that form and sustenance of government whose leading object is to elevate the condition of men; to lift artificial weights from all shoulders; to clear the paths of laudable pursuit for all; to afford all an unfettered start and a fair chance in the race of life."

Lincoln's epoch-making redefinition of the basic principles of the Declaration of Independence not only enkindled the zeal of America but also fired the imagination of the masses abroad. Lincoln's masterful pen was blessed with the distilled political wisdom of free men everywhere and at every time. His understanding of people is still unsurpassed. Not only did he clearly see the meaning of Democracy, but he was able to convey it to the rest of us, so that we too could understand and bask in its warmth.

Lincoln's letter of January 19, 1863 "to the Workingman of Manchester" was one of the master-moves of American diplomacy that neutralized the British sympathizers of the South. With a pen dipped in the spirit of the Declaration of Independence Lincoln stated inter alia as follows:

"I know and deeply deplore the sufferings which the workmen at Manchester, and in all Europe, are called to endure in this crisis. It has been often and studiously represented that the attempt to overthrow this government, which was built upon the foundation of human rights, and to substitute for it one which should rest exclusively on the basis of human slavery, was likely to obtain the favor of Europe. Through the action of our disloyal citizens, the working-men of Europe have been subjected to severe trials, for the purpose of forcing their sanction to that attempt. Under the circumstances, I cannot but regard your decisive utterances upon the question as an instance of sublime Christian heroism which has not been surpassed in any age or in any country. It is indeed an energetic and re-inspiring assurance of the inherent power of truth, and of the ultimate and universal triumph of justice, humanity and freedom."

Lincoln's redefinitions of the principles of the Declaration of Independence clearly show that he was the greatest exegate of that immortal document.

Today we are confronted with a struggle similar in the underlying principles to the issues of the Civil War, but far more perplexing because of its global dimensions. The present titanic global cold war hinges upon one question: Whether or not this world can exist "half-free and half-slave."

If Lincoln were here today he would combat totalitarianism by making the Declaration of Independence a cosmopolitan document and by teaching the Euroasian continent that the individual is the theme-center of the world and that states are mere creatures to insure his liberty and protect his equality.

Democracy is invincible as long as we are steadfast and brave. And lest we deviate from the course chartered by Lincoln for future generations of Americans let us forever remember his sagacious advise:

"Neither let us be slandered from our duty by false accusations against us, nor frightened from it by menaces of destruction to the government, nor of dungeons to ourselves. Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith let us to the end dare to do our duty as we understand it."

THE PRESIDENT. Thank you very much, Senator Stiefel.

Both of these addresses will be printed in the Journal.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 10, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred five (P. L. 46) entitled "An act authorizing the municipalities of the Commonwealth to vacate in whole or in part all streets lanes and alleys within their corporate limits laid out by this Commonwealth whenever the same or the portion to be vacated shall have remained unopened for a continuous period of thirty years next preceding such vacation" eliminating the requirement that the portion vacated shall have remained unopened for thirty years and providing that vacated portions shall not be any part of a State Highway route and validating vacations heretofore made

Section 1 Section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred five (P. L. 46) entitled "An act authorizing the municipalities of the Commonwealth to vacate in whole or in part all streets lanes and alleys within their corporate limits laid out by this Commonwealth whenever the same or the portion to be vacated shall have remained unopened for a continuous period of thirty years next preceding such vacation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted &c That the municipalities of the Commonwealth shall have the power and authority to vacate in whole or in part all streets lanes and alleys within their corporate limits laid out by this Commonwealth [whenever the same or the portion to be vacated shall have remained unopened for a continuous period of thirty years next preceding such vacation] Provided That the portion vacated shall not be any part of a State highway route

Section 2 All street vacations in whole or in part made by any municipality in this Commonwealth of streets lanes and alleys laid out by the Commonwealth prior to the effective date of this amendment are hereby validated notwithstanding that said streets lanes and alleys so vacated in whole or in part had not remained unopened for a continuous period of thirty years next preceding such vacation Provided That such vacations have otherwise complied with the requirements of law

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 17, as follows:

An Act to amend section seven of the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 101) entitled "An act to facilitate vehicular traffic between the eastern and western sections of the Commonwealth by providing for the construction operation and maintenance of a turnpike from a point at or near Irwin in Westmoreland County the western terminus of the turnpike heretofore constructed by said Commission to a point on the western boundary line of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania touching on the State of Ohio or the State of West Virginia and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the Commonwealth payable solely from tolls to pay the cost of such turnpike providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act providing for the collection of tolls for the payment of such bonds and for the cost of maintenance operation and repair of the turnpike making such turnpike bonds exempt from taxation constituting such bonds legal investments in certain instances requiring suits against the commission to be brought in Dauphin County prescribing conditions upon which such turnpike shall become free providing for grade separations grade changes and relocation and restoration of public roads and State highways affected by the turnpike providing for condemnation granting certain powers and authority to municipal subdivisions and agencies of the Commonwealth to cooperate with the commission and authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds" by providing for salaries for appointed members of the Commission

Section 1 Section seven of the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 101) entitled "An act to facilitate vehicular traffic between the eastern and western sections of the Commonwealth by providing for the construction operation and maintenance of a turnpike from a point at or near Irwin in Westmoreland County the western terminus of the turnpike heretofore constructed by said Commission to a point on the western boundary line of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania touching on the State of Ohio or the State of West Virginia and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the Commonwealth payable solely from tolls to pay the cost of such turnpike providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act providing for the collection of tolls for the payment of such bonds and for the cost of maintenance operation and repair of the turnpike making such turnpike bonds exempt from taxation constituting such bonds legal investments in certain instances requiring suits against the commission to be brought in Dauphin County prescribing conditions upon which such turnpike shall become free providing for grade separations grade changes and relocation and restoration of public roads and State highways affected by the turnpike providing for condemnation granting certain powers and authority to municipal subdivisions and agencies of the Commonwealth to cooperate with the commission and authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds" is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new subsection to read as follows

Section 7 * * * * *

(d) The chairman of the commission shall receive an annual salary of five thousand five hundred dollars ($5,500.00) and the other appointed members of the commission shall each receive an annual salary of four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) payable in monthly installments solely from funds provided under the authority of this act payment to begin when such funds shall have been provided

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. TARR. Senator Walker, for the information of the members of the Senate, I would like to know at the present time the number of Turnpike Commissioners.

Mr. WALKER. I understand there are three, Mr. President.

Mr. TARR. And the salary of the Turnpike Commissioners at the present time, is what, Senator Walker?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the Chairman of the Commission is paid a salary of $6500 a year, and the other two members are paid a salary of $6000 per year.

Mr. TARR. Senator Walker, at the time of the creation of the Turnpike Commission, before the addition of the eastern terminus, I believe that the Turnpike Commissioners were paid a lesser salary, is that correct?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, at the time just before the eastern extension was put on, the members were paid $5000 a year, and when the eastern extension was put on, the salary of the Chairman of the Commission was raised to $6500, and the salary of the other members of the Commission was raised to $6000. This bill would become effective if and when the western terminus of the Turnpike would be opened up and the bonds sold, and then this increase would become effective.

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I wish to thank the gentleman from Allegheny.

It is not my intention to stand here for a long time this afternoon and make any prolonged address concerning a raise in salaries for members of any branch of the government. However, it seems to me that the approach to the increase in salary for the members of this Commission is all wrong. The Superintendent of Highways in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, according to the Pennsylvania manual, receives $12,000 a year for the management of forty thousand miles of roads. We know that at the present time, the Turnpike can not be much over 200 miles, because that is all the length we have in the state. Notwithstanding the fact, under this act, the Chairman of the Turnpike Commission will receive somewhat more than $12,000 and his aids would receive $10,000, comparing that with the heads of the other departments of the Commonwealth, I believe that is just a little bit too much money.

I understand that they have a lot of work to do—I understand that they must meet at least twice a month. I know that they do not have as much work to do as the Lieutenant-Governor of this Commonwealth and his salary at the present time is $8000 a year. I know that they would not have much more work to do than a Senator of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and his salary still remains $3000 for two years. Now, if we are going to increase salaries of heads of departments when they take on more mileage and more work, then I believe it is time we go back and revise our whole system of payment. Every time we have more children in the schools, we should raise the salary of the Superintendent of Public Instruction; every time that we have more to do as Senators, I believe we should go back then and raise our salaries from the $4.00 per day which we receive as the expeditors of this billion dollar budget.

I would not like to see anyone get any less money, because I, on this side, am keeping my eye open for a little more money.

I am going to ask that we give due consideration to the precedent that we are setting, by voting an increase to the Turnpike Commissioners solely on the basis that we are extending a road. Are we or future Senators or future members of the General Assembly going to be asked to increase the salaries of these Commissioners every time they put on a piece of new road? If so, I would say it would be time for us to start to give the Superintendent of Highways an increase every time we build a new inch of road, and that we give the Senators of Pennsylvania an increase in salary every time we pass a new bill. It seems that if we do not stop somewhere on this method of financing our different departments, we are going to get back to just where we started.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am inclined to agree with the gentleman from Fayette, that I do not want to prolong the evening's discussion, but as the gentleman from Fayette knows, this salary raise comes out of the funds that are obtained by the Turnpike Commission from the tolls. I can appreciate his concern about salary raises. I had a somewhat similar reaction when I read the first bills that passed the 81st Congress, and I know just exactly how he feels.

Mr. President, I think his reference to the Secretary of Highways is intended well, but as I understand it, some of the fiscal experts here in the Senate have already prepared and introduced a bill that attempts to make more equitable the salaries of those public officials that are concerned with the intricate details of running our government, and I think he will find that those will be adjusted as time marches on.

I appreciate his concern over the cost of government, and I assure him that those of us on this side will always join with him in this problem.

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I hope I did not leave the impression with the gentleman from Allegheny that I was more concerned with the salary of the Highway Superintendent than my own.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I might say I also am concerned about the salary paid to the gentleman from Fayette, but my concern arises from an entirely different source.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 67, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1046) entitled "An act providing for equalization of assessed valuations of real property throughout the Commonwealth for use in determining the amount and allocation of Commonwealth subsidies to school districts creating a State Tax Equalization Board and prescribing its powers and duties imposing duties on certain local officers agents boards commissions and departments and making an appropriation" by changing the time for the beginning of the use of market values for the determination and apportionment of Commonwealth subsidies

Section 1 Section fifteen of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1046) entitled "An act providing for equalization of assessed valuations of real property throughout the Commonwealth for use in determining the amount and allocation of Commonwealth subsidies to school districts creating a State Tax Equalization Board and prescribing its powers and duties imposing duties on certain local officers agents boards commissions and departments and making an appropriation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 15 Determination and Apportionment of Commonwealth Subsidies As soon as possible each year after the final adjustment of values by the board the board shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the market value of all real property in each school district in the Commonwealth Beginning with payment to be made [during] for the school year one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty each school district's assessed valuation to be used for purposes of computing its standard reimbursement fraction shall be the market value of the taxable real property in the school district as finally adjusted and determined upon by the board and not the assessed valuation for county tax purposes as now provided by law Beginning with the year one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and every two (2) years thereafter in place of the valuations now required by law to be used for such purposes the market value of the real property in each school district as finally adjusted and determined upon by the board shall be used by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in ascertaining and determining the amount of funds required to meet payments to school districts and vocational school districts which become due and payable by law within the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred fifty-one and each biennium thereafter and to apportion and allot the same to and among the respective school districts

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, two years ago, when the school bill was before this Senate, I offered amendments at that time to increase the return back to the first-class school districts in the amount of from $700 to $1000, and at another time, amendments from $800 to $1200, pointing out to the members of the Senate at that time that that bill alone was going to cost the State $48,000,000, and of the $48,000,000, the people in the first class districts in Pittsburgh, not counting Philadelphia, paid one-sixth of those taxes. In other words, they were going to be soaked $8,000,000. Under the terms of that bill, the people of the City of Pittsburgh, namely, the first class district in Pittsburgh, was only receiving $755,000. In other words, they were being, should I say, milked of $7,245,000.

At that time, there was pending in this Legislature, the State Tax Equalization Board bill, which finally was enacted, wherein the State Tax Equalization Board was to go throughout the state and equalize the assessments, so that the return made to the various school districts could be done on a fair and equitable basis.

On first glance at this bill, it looks very innocent, there is one word stricken out, the word "during", and a little word put in with an underlining "for". In other words, Mr. President, it means to the people of the first class districts that it will be two years before they will get back even a portion of the money that is rightfully due them.

At the time I offered my amendments two years ago, the gentlemen on the other side voted me down. Several days later there were three bills that appeared before them, that was the personal property tax for the first class school districts, the per capita tax for the first class school districts, and the mercantile tax. In other words, in order for us to keep our school systems going in the first class districts, we had put on the people of these districts three more taxes.

Mr. President, those taxes were put on for only a two year period, because we were told, at that time, that the State Tax Equalization Board would have their work finished and ready to present to us at this session of the Legislature.

If we pass this bill as it is, later on there will come over here again, three bills, the personal property, the per capita and the mercantile tax bills, and if your memories serve you gentlemen on the other side, you will remember that the first class district in Philadelphia was ready to secede from being a first class district on account of one tax, that is the per capita tax, which the first class school district in Pittsburgh chose to put on.

I understand through some of the legislative engineers around the Halls here, that Philadelphia can not see their way clear without putting that tax on.

Mr. President, my point in getting up here is to point out to you gentleman that if you pass this bill, the return to the first class districts will again be so inequitable and so unfair that later on in this Session, through your passing this bill, you will have to vote three more taxes on the people of the first class school districts, namely Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I appreciate the concern of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, for the tax situation.

Senate Bill No. 67, a very innocuous little measure, presupposes, under Act 447, creating the State Tax Equalization Board, that this Board would determine the market value of taxable real property in each school district, and report the same to the Department of Public Instruction, which, in turn, must use these values in determining the rate of appropriation to be made to the respective school district.

Most of the provisions of Act 447 seem to contemplate that the State Tax Equalization Board will make its first report to the Department of Public Instruction on or before July 1, 1949. Under a normal operation of the provisions of Act 515, which prescribe the procedure to be followed in determining the amounts of State appropriation to the various school districts, the findings of the State Tax Equalization Board would then be used, for the first time, in determining the appropriations to be paid to school districts during the year 1950-51. However, Section 15 of Act 447 indicates that the findings of the State Tax Equalization Board are to be used in determining the payments to be made to school districts during the school year 1949-50. Therefore, the provisions of this section are at variance with the provisions of other parts of the Act, and with the normal operation of Act 515.

Other reasons why the market values, as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board, should not be used as a basis of determining payments to be made during 1949-50, include the following:

Since the assessed valuation of real property in the State as a whole is not more than one-third of the market value, it will be necessary to revise the formula in Act 515 for determining such payments before it is used in connection with market values, or the amounts paid to school districts will, on the average, be reduced by at least one-half. The necessary amendments to Act 515 must be made before the Department of Public Instruction will be in a position to determine and to advise the school districts of their reimbursement fractions or rates of appropriation.

A school district must be able to estimate the amount of appropriation to be received from the State during the following year at the time it prepares its budget. Therefore, it has been the policy of the Department of Public Instruction to advise school districts, during the month of February, of their respective reimbursement fractions or rates of appropriation to be used in determining payments which the districts will receive during the following year. We believe the payments to be made during the school year 1949-50 should be determined on the basis of assessed values rather than market values. School districts should be advised, during the month of February, of the rates of reimbursement to be used in determining payments during the year 1949-50. We cannot advise them of reimbursement fractions determined on the basis of assessed values unless and until Act 447 is amended as indicated in Senate Bill 67.

Any reimbursement fractions determined on the basis of the present provisions of Section 15 of Act 447 would need to be based on the market values as determined by the State Tax Equalization Board, which values are not yet available for the use of the Department of Public Instruction, and would be determined, if the market values were available, under the present provisions of Act 515, which would result in a drastic financial loss to practically all school districts.

Therefore, Mr. President, I urge the Senate to vote for this bill.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Somerset permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARE. It is a pleasure.

Mr. BARR. Do you think the reimbursement to the first class districts is fair the way it is now?

Mr. HARE. Under the assessed valuation back of each unit of children, only the fact that we have created a minimum reimbursement for cities of the first class prevents them from assuming an additional burden. I am not entirely straight on this figure of $1,600,000 for Pittsburgh, but on the basis of the past reimbursement units on the assessed valuation back of each twenty-two secondary or thirty elementary, it might be computed then that during the last biennium, you could conceivably say that Pittsburgh was overpaid $1,600,000.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the gentleman from Somerset is not sure of his figures, I am positive of that, because the return, under the bill passed two years ago, to the first class district of Pittsburgh, was only $755,000.

The point that I am trying to make is, gentlemen—I know you are going to pass the bill, but I just want to get it on the record. If you take Volume IV of the legislative proceedings of the last session, and look under date of June 12, at the remarks of Senator Wagner when we were debating these amendments, he will remember that we were told under this new State Tax Equalization Board, that we would get relief in the next biennium.

Now, Mr. President, we are back here for the relief, but I find that we, one of the first class districts, who are paying, as I say, $8,000,000 toward this, are only getting $755,000 in return.

I ask the gentlemen from the first class districts to vote against the bill.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, for the benefit of the record, I have just been corrected by my esteemed colleague, the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wagner. He said the figure is about $1,629,000, so that I was about $29,000 short.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to make a brief statement concerning the bill that was just passed.

When the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare, was on the floor, he was reading a paper from the Department of Public Instruction, in which, if I remember correctly, he stated that the State Tax Equalization Board did not have the figures for all of the counties.

I am informed definitely that last Wednesday they did have the figures for the sixty-seven counties. Am I correct?

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, for the benefit of the gentleman from Allegheny, the statement said the figures were not available to the Department of Public Instruction.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not know how far the Department of Public Instruction is from the State Tax Equalization Board, but I presume they are both in the capitol buildings.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, the thing I am pointing out is there is an appeal factor in this thing, and you might be involved in appeals from 2,544 school districts. They have the right to appeal any equalization plan the State Tax Equalization Board might recommend.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the State Tax Equalization Board does have the figures now for the sixty-seven counties.

Mr. HARE. I have no knowledge of that, Mr. President.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I went to the members of the State Tax Equalization Board last Wednesday, because I wanted to get some information on the bill that was just passed, and I asked them if I could have the figures for Northampton County, asked them whether they were available, and I was informed that the figures had been compiled in the sixty-seven counties, but they could not release them.

Mr. President, when they say they have them, but they are not available, what is the mystery surrounding them?

I think we ought to find out why they are not available. The State Tax Equalization Board apparently did its job, and went out and made the assessments for the sixty-seven counties, and if that is true, then I think the information ought to be available, at least to the members of the Senate, and in particular to the Department of Public Instruction, so that the Act will become effective at the earliest possible date.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 72, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two hundred five of the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine, (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employees in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," increasing the maximum aggregate number of officers and men in the State Police Force.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, February 15, 1949, at 3:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 6:44 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time until Tuesday, February 15, 1949, at 3:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, February 14, 1949

The House met at 4:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

O God, who has made of one blood all nations to dwell upon the earth, and who by Thy Son Jesus Christ, hast broken down the walls of partition between Jew and Gentile, slave and free, Greek and barbarian; break down, we beseech Thee, all that divides us one from another; shame our jealousies and lay low our pride; do away with all race-prejudice, that bonds of fellowship and mutual service may unite the east and the west, the north and south, that we may live in peace together, in honor preferring one another to the glory of they great Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Wednesday, February 9, 1949.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Wednesday, February 9, 1949, when, on motion of Mr. Barkdoll unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 101

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, February 11, 1949.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 101, Printer's No. 44, entitled "An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 3) entitled 'An act relating to officers and employes of the General Assembly fixing the number qualifications compensation mileage and duties of the officers and employes of the Senate and of the House of Representatives providing for their election or appointment term of office or of service removal and manner of filling vacancies and making appropriations to the Senate House of Representatives and Legislative Reference Bureau' by changing the compensation of the officers and employes of the Senate and the House of Representatives and making appropriations."

JAMES H. DUFF.

FORMER MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to welcome at this time, a former Member of the House, in the sessions of 1936 through 1940, the Honorable Warren K. Hess, a Judge of the Courts of Berks County. He is a guest of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger.

The Chair also desires to welcome a former Member from Clarion County, the Honorable Samuel L. Pickens, known to the Members as "Governor" Pickens.

The Chair also desires to welcome a former Member of the House, the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Josephine Coyle.

The Chair also welcomes to the House another Member from Philadelphia County, the Honorable Benjamin L. Long.

ANNOUNCEMENT

There will be a Republican Caucus in the new House Caucus Room during recess.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess for forty-five minutes, until 5:30 p. m. Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the House a former member, the gentleman from Schuylkill, Honorable Elmer McCurdy.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

By consent of the House leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. Yeakel for Mr. KELLER on account of illness.

Mr. Bane for Mr. COCHRAN on account of illness.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 346, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections four and ten of the act, approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149), entitled "An act imposing a State Tax, payable by those herein defined as distributors, on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth, which are ordinarily, practically, and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power; providing for the collection and lien of the tax, and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof; requiring such distributors to secure permits, to file corporate surety bonds and reports, and to retain certain records; imposing duties on retail dealers, common carriers, county commissioners, and such distributors; providing for rewards; imposing certain costs on counties; conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments; providing for refunds; imposing penalties; and making an appropriation," by increasing the amount of the additional tax and by extending the provisions of the additional tax for a limited time; and further providing for the distribution of the additional tax to certain political subdivisions of this Commonwealth, with certain conditions.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means for the purpose of amending the bill, to eliminate the figures above the 1947 Tax Act, and for the purpose of a public hearing. Mr. Speaker, I would like to be recognized on my motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, this tax increase on gasoline is just absolutely unnecessary!

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield? The gentleman will please confine himself to the motion before the House. He cannot debate the merits of the bill on his motion. The gentleman will proceed in order.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to recommit this bill so that the people can have an opportunity to appear at a public hearing, and have it brought out that this is an attempt to push the burden of taxation upon persons driving to and from their work and upon the farmers in Pennsylvania. The people do not want this increase and that can be brought out at a public hearing. I am glad to see so many farmers assembled here tonight in the interest of this motion. They have just handed to me a piece of paper in support of my motion that I should tell to the floor of this House. They say that they farm 9,907 acres of land and have 107 tractors.

Mr. Speaker, I urge that this motion be adopted.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire a roll call on the gentleman's motion.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I am trying to understand the purpose of this motion. Do I understand that the import of this motion is to recommit for the purpose of a public hearing? Am I correct in that respect?

The SPEAKER. And for possible amendment, for the information of the Majority Leader.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of a public hearing therefore will be to amend at that time or after a public hearing has been held?

The SPEAKER. After a public hearing has been held by the committee.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I state that until this afternoon, late this afternoon, I had received no request from anyone for a public hearing to be held on this measure, and I am informed by the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of this House, the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Cadwalader, that he too, is in the same position. I think, therefore, that the membership of this House should vote down the motion at this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, much as I regret to agree with Mr. Worley, under the circumstances it is necessary to agree with him.

I had hoped that I would be recognized by the Chair prior to Mr. Worley, in order that I might make a different motion. I congratulate the gentleman upon his enterprise.

I can say to the Majority Leader one of the reason why there has been no request for a public hearing, and why no one has come upon the floor of the House from this side armed with amendments to this bill, is because there has not been time to do it. The word has not gotten around about this bill; the people of Pennsylvania do not know that they have tied up the gas tax with the method of distribution. Had we been able to come in contact with the people of the state there would have been requests. So, while I would much rather see this bill on the postponed calendar, where we could have waited until we could have gotten some facts and ascertain public sentiment, nevertheless, under the circumstances, since the gentleman has made the motion to recommit, I am compelled to go along with his motion.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, on the motion to recommit, I want to agree with my friend on the other side. I feel that this bill should be recommitted for the purpose of a public hearing, due to the fact that we understand under this legislation this increase in the gasoline tax is for the improvement of our highways.

We hear a great deal of talk about the Parkway in Pittsburgh or the improvements here or somewhere else in the state of Pennsylvania. We have some suggestions and some ideas on these things, and I think if we have the opportunity of a public hearing we could possibly bring those things out before the public hearing.

This administration has gone on record as being in favor of the renewing of a State Authority. Maybe we could have a State Authority build a Parkway into Pittsburgh and charge a toll to be paid by people who use the highway into Pittsburgh. I think the gentleman is on the right track. I think we should support the motion to recommit this bill for a public hearing so that those things could be brought before the people, and I ask the members to support the motion.

I second the request for a roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion

Cochran,	Krise,	Powers,	Verona,
George,	Madigan,	Reynolds,	Wescott,
Hall,	Munley,	Sarraff,

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WORLEY offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 4), page 4, by inserting between lines 16 and 17, the following: This tax shall apply only to liquid fuels used in machines that are operated upon the public highways or in the air and all taxes paid on liquid fuels used for any other purpose shall be refunded upon due proof thereof as the Board of Finance and Revenue shall prescribe.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, before proceeding with these amendments I would like to state to the membership of this House that Article IX, Section 18 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania provides in substance that the fuel fund can only be used for general highway and air navigation facilities. My position, therefore, is that the tax should only be obtained from fuel used in machines operated upon the same. This is a reasonable and just conclusion, and is consequently not prohibited by the section on special legislation of the state constitution.

Mr. Speaker, in support of that position in regard to these amendments I would like to quote the case of Commonwealth vs. Morton, 23 County Court, Page 386, reported in 9 District, Page 132 and Page 134, as affirmed in the Commonwealth vs. Morton in 16 Pennsylvania Supreme Court, Page 423. In that case the court held substantially as follows:

"A law is a general one, although it does not presently embrace all the inhabitants of the state, if all may come within it, and will as soon as they occupy the position of those presently embraced by it."

Mr. Speaker, I urge the adoption of these amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, while we are somewhat hazy as to the details of his procedure, we are in complete agreement, nevertheless, with the objectives he desires to serve. So, at his very excellent suggestion, while his technique is a trifle faulty, that can be remedied at a later time. Mr. Speaker, we request a roll call on the amendments offered.

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I second the request for a roll call.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I share with the minority their position on this one occasion, that I am hazy as to what transpired. May I say this, that the gentleman—I cannot recall at this time which county he comes from—Admas.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, an ancient democratic County, Apple County.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I don't suppose that is the reason that the gentleman seconded the motion made by the gentleman from Adams.

May I say that these amendments are not unknown to the floor of this House. They have been submitted many, many times in the past. They would be difficult to regulate were they to be enacted into law. We have a sincere desire to cooperate with the farmers in Pennsylvania, but in this particular case, in view of past experience we do not see that this is the proper time for the adoption of this or a similar amendment. I, therefore, ask the membership on this side of the House to vote against the amendment.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I suggest to the Majority Leader and to the membership of the House that other states in our great Union have found means whereby they are able to handle the problem involved in the amendments of the gentleman from Adams.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I say this very briefly, that I am not persuaded that these particular amendments accomplish that.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I have the information here supplied by Mr. Opperman, assistant director of the Liquid Fuels Tax Division of the Department of Revenue. He says:

"Complying with your request made in our telephone conversation of January 20, we list hereunder the states in which gasoline is held taxable, regardless of the purpose for which used: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Pennsylvania, Utah, Vermont, Wyoming, Louisiana."

Mr. Speaker, for the information of the members of this House, New York, New Jersey, Maryland and Ohio all make some exceptions. Pennsylvania stands alone.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CADWALADER offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 3, by inserting after the word "entitled" the following: "as amended."

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 5, by striking out the word "usable" and inserting in lieu thereof "suitable for use."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask to save time if the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Cadwalader, would explain these amendments, which are purely typographical, all at the same time.

Mr. CADWALADER. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I say that these particular amendments to House Bill 346, are to correct typographical and grammatical errors that appear in the bill, as printed, and bearing Printer's No. 50. They insert in the title the words "as amended," so that the title reads in part "entitled as amended."

There is a word "useable" in the title, for which the words "suitable for use" are inserted, in lieu of that particular word. The same amendment "suitable for use" is inserted on Page 2 for the word "useable." Likewise a similar amendment at the bottom of Page 2 after the word "entitled" on line 3, by adding the words "as amended".

On page five, the Pamphlet Law reference on the printed bill was 142. However, that Pamphlet Law reference was not accurate and it should have been 412, and the particular amendment cures that.

On line seven, page five, it refers to Pamphlet Laws 1102, "the act appears" of course, the word "appears" is in error, and the word "approved" is inserted in lieu thereof.

On the bottom of page 10, the line under subsection "B" is deleted. I can assure the gentleman that that is a very minor amendment. On the top of page 11 after the words "and or interest", there is inserted the additional word "earned".

That is the extent of these amendments which I understand are typographical or clarifying amendments. It does not change the substance of the bill in any respect, and I urge that the membership of the House support these amendments.

They were agreed to.

The third section was read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. CADWALADER offered the following amendments:

Amend title, page 1, line 3 of title, by inserting after the word "entitled" the following: "as amended".

Amend title, page 1, line 5 of title, by striking out the word "ordinarily".

Amend title, page 1, line 6 of title, by striking out the word "usable" and inserting in lieu thereof "suitable for use."

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended:

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CADWALADER offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 10), page 10, line 19, by striking out the letter "[(b)]"

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 10), page 10, line 19, by removing the underscoring beneath the letter "(d)".

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 10), page 11, line 1, by inserting after the word "interest" the following: "earned".

Amend Sec. 2, page 5, line 2, by striking out the figures "142" and inserting in lieu thereof "412".

Amend Sec. 2, page 5, line 7, by striking out the word "appeared" and inserting in lieu thereof "approved".

They were agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, withdraw his amendments to the title, since his amendments to the first section were defeated by roll call?

Mr. WORLEY. Is it necessary to withdraw them, Mr. Speaker, after they have been defeated?

The SPEAKER. It would be a courtesy to the Members if the gentleman would do so.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I shall withdraw them.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title as amended?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, there is evidently an attempt to starve us into submission. My purpose is to urge that this House do not act on this bill with undue haste. I will lead up to a motion, Mr. Speaker, to place this bill upon the postponed calendar.

I believe that the bill should remain in the possession of the House, until those who disagree with the kind of distribution carried in this bill have had a chance to prepare their amendments. This bill is very cleverly devised. It levies the money, and then with the bill levying the money it carries what some of us believe is a wholly faulty method of distribution, a method of distribution obnoxious to the interests of every township in this Commonwealth. I think that the Members of this House should have time to consider.

Another reason, Mr. Speaker, there is a difference as to the physical facts. As I understand the program of the executive, he contemplates $120,000,000 for new construction; $40,000,000 from an Authority, and $40,000,000 from this proposed tax.

I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that on the basis of the budget, the executive budget, the Commonwealth and the Department has the money. On Page 49 of the budget you will find the estimated cash balance at the end of the biennium. I say to you if the Department of Highways were liquidated today and the assets declared as dividends to the people of the Commonwealth, that unless the executive budget is absolutely false in its figures, the Department has $38,000,000. I submit that it might be possible to find some other money.

I find on Page 52 of the budget an Item: "Administration, Miscellaneous, Actual and Estimated 1947-1949, $22,937,000; for 1949-1951, $24,850,000." Do you know what all that "Miscellaneous and Administration" figures up per mile for State highways? "Administration and Miscellaneous" figures up $562 a mile for the current biennium, and I figure it up $609 per mile, and I think that is a mighty big figure for "Miscellaneous."

Mr. Speaker, I urge upon this House that we ascertain as a matter of fact, not as a matter of controversy, but as a matter of fact whether the $38,000,000 estimated cash balance is fact or fiction. Now, if it is fact, we have the money. If it is fiction, it is fiction that runs entirely through this budget. I submit to you that it ought to be possible to gather up a couple of million dollars by careful management out of that "Administration and Miscellaneous" account. In all the budgets I have ever seen "Miscellaneous" is used to cover a multitude of sins and an immense amount of taxes.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in order that those who desire to offer amendments concerning the method of distributing this money may have their chance to offer their amendments, in order that they may investigate and ascertain the physical facts, in order that we may scrutinize the budget and find out whether as a matter of fact the Governor does not have the money, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar, and Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I second the request for a roll call.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I suggest that the Members answer to their names very clearly and thus make it unnecessary to verify this roll.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I add the same request to that of the gentleman, because at this late hour we have no desire to have a roll verified.

The SPEAKER. Will the Senator please leave the floor of this House.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I did not know that the Minority Leader was in need of Senatorial help at this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, they regularly report for instructions.

Mr. BRUNNER. I am certainly in favor of that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, at this time may I state in explanation that should these bills pass second reading today they will be up for final passage tomorrow. It will be at that time that the measures will be debated at length, and the program considered on its merits.

However, I cannot allow the gentleman to cite as one of the reasons for postponement the appearance of a budget item, the amount of $38,000,000 cash balance, which the budget shows is at the end of the next biennium.

There are two explanations that I have been able to ascertain for this. First of all, that the motor license fees in the amount of some $47,000,000 will come in at the end of March or the early part of April, and it will be physically impossible for that amount to be allocated and spent between that time and the end of the biennium.

May I also say it is necessary to have a balance on hand, and the gentleman well knows that biennium by biennium, not in the exact amount, but similar amounts are held as cash balances, and that is necessary in order to finance the summer program when expenditures go beyond the receipts, which come in through the four summer months.

I can appreciate the fact that the gentleman would like to postpone this program, but I think that under the circumstances the allocations set forth in this measure are set forth in the budget. They are the same allocations which existed in the last budget, and I think for this and for previous reasons, if you put this on the postponed calendar, or for any other reason, it would be dilatory in nature and I rise to oppose the motion made by the gentleman.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 347, entitled:

An Act to reenact and further amend the title and the act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 249), entitled as amended, "An act to provide revenue by imposing an excise tax, payable by those herein defined as manufacturers and bottlers of bottled soft drinks, and syrups as herein defined, prepared, used, sold, transported or delivered within the Commonwealth and by others; requiring persons as herein defined engaged in the manufacture, bottling, distribution, sale, and transportation of syrup and bottled soft drinks to secure permits; prescribing the method and manner of evidencing the payment and collection of such tax or assessing the tax; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and those manufacturing, bottling, distributing, selling and transporting syrup or bottled soft drinks and providing penalties," by further regulating the procedure and the jurisdiction of the Department of Revenue and of the Board of Finance and Revenue relative to claims for refunds, and by extending the provisions thereof for a further limited period of time.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CADWALADER offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 1 (Section 2,) page 4, lines 10 to 11 by striking out after the word "added" in line 10 and before the word "orangeade" in line 11 the following words: "[cider cordial carbonate water]".

Amend Section 1 (Section 2,) page 4, line 16 by striking out after the word "with" and before the word "the" the following words: "[or without]".

Amend Section 1 (Section 2,) page 5, line 8 by striking out after the word "syrup" and before the word "and" the following words: "[simple syrups]".

Amend Section 1 (Section 2,) page 5, lines 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16 by striking out the following paragraph: [Simple syrup is further defined to mean any syrup made mixed compounded or manufactured by dissolving sugar and water or any other mixture which will create what is commonly referred to as "Simple Syrup" practically and commercially usable in mixing non-bottled soft drinks or in bottling soft drinks]

Amend Section 1 (Section 2,) page 6, line 3 by striking out after the word "purchase" and before the word "resale" the following word: "[or]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following word: "for".

Amend Section 1 (Section 2,) page 7, line 8 by inserting after the word "receives" and before the word "and" the following words: "from outside the Commonwealth".

Amend Section 1 (Section 7), page 19, line 16 by striking out after the word "percentum" and before the word "the" the following word: "[of]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following word: "on."

Amend (Section 7), page 20, line 17 by striking out after the word "exceeding" and before the word "days" the following: "[thirty (30)]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following "sixty (60)."

Amend Section 1 (Section 12), subsection (a), page 24, line 2 by inserting after the word "purchaser" and before the word "an" the following words: "if a distributor."

Amend Section 12, subsection (a), page 24, line 3 by inserting after the word "less" and before the word "written" the following words: "or where the purchaser is a retailer a."

Amend Section 1 (Section 12), subsection (a), page 24, line 4 by striking out after the word "affidavit" and before the word "or" the following words: "[from the purchaser]."

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 6, by inserting after the word "penalties" the following: "as reenacted and amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 884)."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 6, line 2, by striking out the word "container" and inserting in lieu thereof "containers."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 7, line 5, by striking out the word "syrup" and inserting in lieu thereof "syrups."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 3), page 11, line 10, by striking out the word "thereof" and inserting in lieu thereof "therefor."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 7), page 19, line 7, by striking out the word "provisions" and inserting in lieu thereof "provision."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 10), page 22, line 19, by striking out the part-word "De-" and inserting in lieu thereof "de-."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 15), page 29, line 16, by striking out the word "transportations" and inserting in lieu thereof "transportation."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 16), page 30, line 6, by striking out the word "Treasurey" and inserting in lieu thereof "Treasury."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, has the Clerk read the amendments to the title?

The SPEAKER. The Clerk is reading the amendments for the information of the House.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I request that inasmuch as two sets have been sent to the desk, that the gentleman from Montgomery, the Majority Floor Leader, inform the House generally—

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, there is so much conversation around here that I cannot hear a word the gentleman is saying. I am sorry to interrupt the gentleman, but I want to get the full import of what he is saying. Will the gentleman please repeat his request?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that there were two sets of amendments sent to the desk by the gentleman from Montgomery. Mr. Cadwalader. I would suggest, if it is agreeable to the Majority Leader, that he explain both sets of amendments at one time so that the House may be informed correctly as to the amendments.

The SPEAKER. Without objection the Chair recognizes the Majority Leader for that purpose. The Chair hears no objection. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny, if he will permit me for the purpose of clarification to follow the first set of amendments which deal only with the typographical errors, and then proceed with the other set of amendments. Inasmuch as we have two different sets I might explain those which are more substantial than the first set which I will deal with.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, in order to conserve the time of the House I think if the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, would simply say that one set of amendments involves only typographical errors, he may do so and forget those particular amendments and go to the other amendments.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, of all the amendments submitted by the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Cadwalader, may I state that the first amendment is the same as the first amendment in the list which Mr. Brown has just referred to. Therefore, we can dispose of that without further comment.

The second amendment is in Section 2, Page 4, lines 10 and 11 by striking after the word "added" in Line 10 and before the word "are engaged" in Line 11, the following words "cider, cordial, or carbonated water." The following items are deleted: cider, cordial and carbonated water. Cider and cordial are eliminated for the reason that they are not within the type of bottled soft drinks generally covered by the act. Carbonated water is excluded for the reason that it is rarely consumed alone as a soft drink, and for the additional reason that it is not subject to the act when served over the fountain. Hence, it is equitable to exclude it when bottled.

The next amendment amends Section 2, Page 4, line 16 by striking out the word "with" before the word "or" the following words "or without." This is so that the amendment may include such beverages as are commonly referred to as soft drinks which are manufactured with the use of syrup. Accordingly, such soft drinks which are manufactured without the use of syrup would not be subject to the act. The act as thus amended would round out those drinks which are prepared in bottles and those which are served over the fountain.

The next amendment amends Section 2, Page 5, line 8 by striking out after the word "syrup" and before the word "and" the following words: "simple syrup."

Mr. Speaker, may I follow to the next amendment before I explain the previous amendment that amends Section 2, Page 5, lines 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16, by striking out the following paragraph in its entirety. "Simple syrup is defined to be any syrup made, mixed, compounded or manufactured by dissolving sugar and water or any other mixture which will create what is commonly referred to as "simple syrup," practically and commercially useable in mixing soft drinks or bottled soft drinks.

The Members may wish to know that from the information which I have here the last two amendments eliminate from the definition of syrup or syrups the item of "simple syrup."

Experience has indicated that to subject simple syrup to the terms of the act works a hardship upon such a manufacturer therefore, who supplies bakers and confectioners. However, the proportion of the tax is considerably higher than in the case of any syrup or concentrated syrup subject to the act.

The next amendment will amend Section 2, Page 6, line 3, by striking out after the word "purchase" and before the word "resale" the word "or" and insert in lieu thereof the word "for". This clarifies the definition of distributor as one who purchases for resale.

The following amendment amends Section 2, Page 7, line 8, by inserting after the word "receives" and before the word "and", the following words "from outside the Commonwealth". This more clearly defines one of the acts of importing by making express that which is merely implied. This amendment simply adds the words "from outside the Commonwealth".

The next amendment amends Section 7, line 16, by striking out after the word "percent" and before the "the" the following word "of", and inserting in lieu the following word "on". Of course, that is merely a typographical correction.

The next amendment will amend section 7, page 20, line 17, by striking out after the word "exceeding" and before the word "they",—and I may say, Mr. Speaker, that this is an amendment that the Members should consider, and may I say at this time the following: strike out "30" and insert in lieu thereof the following "60". This extends the credit period of 30 days to 60 days within which tax crowns or tax stamps may be advanced. This amendment will amply relieve the hardship by affording the opportunity of having the refund apply to his credit prior to being required to pay for his next purchase of stamps or crowns.

The other amendment amend Section 12, Subsection "A", page 24, by inserting after the word "purchaser" and before the word "and" the following words "if a distributor," and the same section, subsection "A" page 24, line 3, before the word "or" the following words "where the purchaser is a retailer", and the same Section, Subsection "A" Page 24, line 4, by striking out after the word "affidavit" and before the word "or", the following words: "from the purchaser".

Mr. Speaker, these amendments are deisgned to alleviate a domestic manufacturer and bottler from obtaining affidavits from retailers outside the state, as a condition precedent to recovery of refund where the out-of-state purchaser is a retailer. A certificate in lieu of an affidavit is deemed sufficient to confirm his claim for refund for the out-of-state shipments. It is no longer necessary that we have an affidavit for this purpose; we are willing to have them sign a statement to that effect.

These amendments are suggested and it is our hope that the membership of this house will recognize that they are good amendments, that they will help the administration of the law, that they will enable those who are in this business and who are taxed by this law to conduct themselves with less governmental restraint, that they will have a better cooperation as a result of that, and we are pleased at this time to support these amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in the opinion of the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, these amendments are quite all right, but it is still a bum bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. CADWALADER offered the following amendments:

Amend page 2, line 10 of the title by striking out after the word "thereof" and before the word "a" the following word: "[or]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following word: "for."

They were agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, once again into this arena of discord I want to interject a few words of light and learning, and advance reasons why we should defer action on this bill until we find out whether this bill is needed; whether it is needed in order to execute the exact program that the Governor has outlined to this house.

Our contention is that this bill is not needed, and I am raising a few points which I would ask the Majority Leader to consider when he addresses this House tomorrow.

On Page 50 of the budget, I would like to know whether the fifty million dollar bond issue is fictitious or real. We find that out of the fifty million dollar bond issue some nine million dollars has been expended, and that in that fifty million dollar bond issue there still remains forty-three million dollars. Now, if we do not have a General State authority, and if we do not have a number of other things, obviously the forty-three million dollars will be used; but if we do have a General State authority the forty-three million dollars, if it is not a fiction, can be drawn upon for the seventeen million dollars which we need for the Schuylkill.

Another thing I would ask the Majority Leader to turn to Page 11 of the budget and consider the item in the 1945-1947 schedule: "construction and Land Post-war." I would like to have the Majority Leader find out whether I am wrong when I say that there is now available and unexpended in that appropriation in excess of eleven million dollars, and I refer the Majority Leader to the same page in the 1947-1949 schedule: "Stream Clearance, Conservation and Flood Control," an original appropriation of ten million dollars, and as of the beginning of the week there was unexpended, unless I have been misinformed eight million dollars in that fund.

I would refer the gentleman to Page 12 of the budget on the 1945-1947 schedule "Institutional Construction Post-war," nine million dollars. My information is that there is still available in that 1945-1947 appropriation of nine million, two hundred thirty-five thousand dollars in excess of six million dollars.

I refer the gentleman to Page 15 of the budget, the item "Construction Post-war" in the 1945-1947 schedule, originally four hundred fifty thousand dollars. My information is that there is available in that fund two hundred seventy-nine thousand dollars.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I do not want to take the time of the House, but after the session tomorrow morning if the Majority Leader will study Page 17 of the budget of the 1945-1947 schedule, the last item "Construction Welfare, sixteen million, four hundred eighty-five thousand dollars, my information is that there is in that fund almost ten million dollars. If the gentleman looks around he may gather up more than three million dollars.

Now, Members of the House, if we do not have a General State Authority in the possible offing, what I am saying would not be pertinent, but I am saying to this House that if we have a General State Authority we are not going to construct buildings and build one wing through the General State Authority, while the Department of Property and Supplies is building another wing under the auspices of the state. I say to the Majority Leader, I say to His Excellency the Governor, and I say to the Members of this House that until they have outlined the scope of the General State Authority and decide where the state construction ends and where State Authority construction begins, we cannot pass intelligently upon this bill, because I repeat it is my contention that if we undertake a General State Authority as a method of procedure that we do not need this bill, and it might possibly be that the one cent cigarette tax could be earmarked for Highways.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar until such time as we have been able to verify the physical facts which should govern our action at this time, and I would ask for a roll call.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I second the request for a roll call.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Members on this side, I thank the gentleman for not requesting information to be delivered to him at this time. May I assure the gentleman that tomorrow I will give him the advantage of the sheet which I hold in my hand, which covers the specific sections and items which he has just mentioned. I think at that time we will have an opportunity to discuss at length these particular provisions and I will attempt to clarify the situation.

May I say, however, that this bill is another bill which is part of a program. This is a measure which in our opinion is just as vital and just as necessary as any other bills which we are considering today. You may call it a "package," you may call it anything you please, but all these bills put together, may I say, generally will enable the people of this state to receive one hundred and twelve million dollars and in excess of that in added services that they did not receive during the last biennium, with no increased taxes. I have no desire to debate at this time, but since this matter is a part of the entire picture, I oppose this motion and I ask that this motion be voted down.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I wondered whether the Majority Leader, having these extended documents in hand, might be inclined to submit the interesting figures that have been compiled for him, and the interesting figures that have been compiled on this side to an impartial council for decision.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, if I understand the gentleman correctly, he would ask us to have someone other than the membership of this House review these figures. Unfortunately, we are a body elected by the people of the state to do that job ourselves. Therefore, I assume that the gentleman will agree to discuss this matter with us tomorrow and listen to what I may have to offer at that time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will gladly meet the gentleman on the basis of what he has in his study.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 348, entitled:

An Act to reenact and further amend the title and the act, approved the fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 341), entitled, as amended "An act to provide revenue by imposing a State tax upon sales or gifts of cigarettes by dealers as herein defined; requiring persons engaged in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale and retail to secure permits; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue, and persons, as herein defined, engaged in the sale of cigarettes at retail or wholesale; and providing penalties," by exempting from its provisions certain sales of cigarettes to patients in Veterans' Administration Hospitals and dealers making such sales, making unlawful the possession of cigarettes upon which the tax has not been paid and providing penalties therefor, and extending the provisions of the act for a further limited period of time.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CADWALADER offered the following amendments:

Amend page 5, line 13 by striking out after the word "military" and before the word "personnel" the word: "force" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "forces".

Amend page 13, line 7, by inserting after the word "of" and before the word "Navy" the word: "the".

They were agreed to.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

RESOLUTION CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. MILLIKEN. Mr. Speaker, I know that the hour is late, and while I have had a long speech prepared about this very important event that happened to one of our Members, I will briefen it up considerably.

Mr. Clendening is the proud father of a baby girl. We have always had good looking Members from Delaware; however, I think that Mr. Clendening has topped everyone that came from there. He not only has good looks, he has everything. Mr. Speaker, may I offer this resolution.

Messrs. MILLIKEN, ROBERTSON and BLOOM offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 14, 1949.

Whereas, Robert J. Clendening, a member of this august body representing Delaware County, has been performing his duties while under great nervous strain and tension, and

Whereas, The gentleman from Delaware County has been keeping several boxes of cigars ready for distribution to his friends at the proper moment, and

Whereas, Mr. Clendening learned on the morning, of the eleventh, that at 11:45 A. M. his wife, Harriet, made him the father of a new baby girl, Grace Anne, wieght seven pounds, one ounce, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House, extend congratulations and best wishes to both the new father and new mother, and, be it further

Resolved, That the chief clerk send a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Clendening, temporarily residing in the Delaware County Hospital, Upper Darby.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Clendening.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire why the gentleman, from, wherever he comes from, Mr. Clendening, forgets the pipe smokers?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Clendening.

Mr. CLENDENING. Mr. Speaker, may I take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of you in behalf of my wife and myself for this grand and splendid recognition. May I say for the benefit of the gentleman from Cambria that I had in mind that there would be pipe smokers among the Members of this House, and, therefore, I would like to suggest that he experiment and try breaking up the cigar in the pipe.

FORMER MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to welcome to the Hall of the House today two former Members, the gentleman from Mercer, Honorable Thomas Lyons and Honorable R. Roscoe Simons.

MEMBERS CONGRATULATED

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to extend to the four Valentines of the House his personal greetings. He knows of the exceptionally good care taken of them by the Majority and Minority Leaders.

SENATE

TUESDAY, February 15, 1949

The Senate met at 3:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JAMES B. WILLIAMS, Pastor of Second Baptist Church of Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we are grateful to Thee for this another day, grant us this day our daily bread.

At this the beginning of another Session of the Senate of the State Legislature, we pause to offer unto Thy name praise and honor. We acknowledge our inadequacies without Thy presence and wisdom. We are absolutely dependent upon Thee for the vision and understanding that we must have for the task that is ours this day.

We pray Thy blessing upon every individual serving in public office. Give to him the courage of his conviction, honesty of purpose and self-respect, realizing that the final accounting of his stewardship must be given to Thee.

Oh God, may the opening of this Session with prayer be not just a part of the procedure, let it be an honest effort on our part to learn Thy will in our lives. Give us the daring to do Thy will though the forces of Hell oppose, that when this day is done, we may find within ourselves the peace of mind and the satisfaction which comes only in the knowledge that we have done our best for all of those who have placed their confidence in us.

In these times of national conflict and international unrest we pray especially for the President of our country, the Governor of our State, the Mayor of our city and all who share the responsibilities and cares of government. All these things we ask in His name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. HARE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. Hare asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. TAYLOR, on account of illness in the family.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, two years ago I was in a Philadelphia hospital. During that time, the Philadelphia Transportation Company had a strike, and no nurses, no physicians, no cooks, no help, no cleaners were able to reach the hospital. I am very much interested in the settlement of the present Philadelphia Transportation strike on that account.

Mr. President, I have been directed by the Committee on Labor and Industry to report, Senate Bill No. 263, as amended by the Attorney General, to make this bill constitutional, and also to make it immediately effective in settling the present strike. This bill will immediately settle the strike in Philadelphia.

Mr. CHAPMAN, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 263, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and sections one and two of the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1161) entitled "An act to provide for the prompt peaceful and just settlement of labor disputes between public utility employers engaged in furnishing electric gas water and steam heat services to the public and their employees which cause or threaten to cause strikes lockouts slowdowns or similar work stoppages and consequent interruptions in the supply of a public utility service on which a community served is so dependent that severe hardship would be inflicted on a substantial number of persons by a cessation of such service providing procedures for the adjustment and settlement of such disputes declaring that the public policy of the Commonwealth requires the continuation without cessation of such public utility services and providing means including regulations affecting the rights powers and privileges of employers and employes for the enforcement of such public policy and providing penalties" by bringing within the provisions of this act public utility employers and employes engaged in furnishing urban passenger transportation to the public and making the provisions thereof effective as to presently existing labor disputes and work stoppages.

Mr. SNOWDEN, from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 232, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to sell and convey a tract of land situate in the Township of Allison, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, with the approval of the Governor.

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. HALUSKA, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 213, entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred six point one of the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736) entitled as amended "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; and prescribing penalties," by making an appropriation to provide for payments in certain second injury cases.

which was re-referred to to the Committee on Appropriations.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. PECHAN, from the Committee on Law and Order, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 160, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsections (9) and (10) of section six hundred two of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 15, 1933-34), entitled, as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the sale, manufacture, possession, transportation, importation, traffic in, and use of alcohol, and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and its agents, the Department of Public Instruction, other officers of the State government, courts, and district attorneys; authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises, and the granting of licenses, subject to local option, to sell such beverages for consumption on and off the premises; forbidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided; prohibiting certain sales or practices in, connection with, and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others; providing for the forfeiture of certain property; making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of fees; and imposing penalties," by further regulating advertisements allowed on and about licensed premises.

Mr. MEADE, from the Committee on Law and Order, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 218, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 252) entitled as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt and brewed beverages as herein defined providing for the licensing of the manufacture transportation sale and distribution of such beverages imposing license and permit fees and providing for collection and distribution thereof restricting ownership and interest in licensed places permitting municipalities and townships by vote of the electors to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises and regulating elections for this purpose imposing duties upon, the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board quarter sessions courts district attorneys the Department of Justice proper authorities of political subdivisions of the State and election officers providing penalties and repealing existing acts" by providing the quantity of malt or brewed beverages to be sold by any manufacturer distributor importing distributor or retail dispenser further regulating advertisements allowed on and about licenses premises.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 20 REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD from the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations, to which was referred resolution offered by Mr. Lord, Jr., on February 9, 1949, reported the same with amendments as follows:

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO SEVER DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH COMMUNISTIC HUNGARY

In the Senate, February 9, 1949.

Whereas, The whole world is shocked and astounded by the trial of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty in Communist dominated Hungary, and at the unjust verdict and severe sentence given him; and

Whereas, The opinion expressed on all sides, is that this is the best sort of evidence of the intention of the Communists to destroy religion wherever it exists; and

Whereas, This religious persecution is an outrage against Americans of all faiths; and

Whereas, The destruction of the freedom of religion is only one of the many freedoms being destroyed by the Communists in every country in which they have control; and

Whereas, Vast numbers of persons in all walks of life in all these countries are obligated to suffer on a scale civilization has never heretofore experienced; and

Whereas, Such conduct is indicative of what may be anticipated in Communist controlled countries and is a warning of the spread of tyranny and oppression among free peoples; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, mindful of the great crimes and injustices being practiced upon the peoples of the Communistic controlled countries, hereby expresses its sincere sympathy and hopes the day will not be too far distant when all of their sufferings will have become a memory only, and that they again will be among the free peoples of the world; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania records its strong condemnation in this unjust persecution and that it hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to sever diplomatic relations with Communistic Hungary as a nation which would condone and foster such outrageous conduct; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

A motion was made by Mr. LORD, JR. and Mr. MAHANY,

That rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie over for one day be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think that every member of the Senate agrees in whole or at least in part, with the opinions expressed in this resolution. The only thing I question is the severity of the memorialization, whether or not the Senate of Pennsylvania and the members thereof are qualified to say to the Congress of the United States that because of this or that act, we think we ought to sever diplomatic relations with a nation of the world.

Now, Mr. President, if we wanted to go further, we could probably, in that same instance, include in this resolution Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia and all the rest of the nations that are underneath the so-called Communistic heel.

However, I believe that in a sense we would like to vote for the resolution. However, I do believe, in all sincerity, that we ought to change the memorializing clause to have the Congress of the United States take cognizance of the fact that the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania feels this way about this matter, but to go so far as to recommend the severance of relations with any nation, I do not think that is within our province, and I rest the case with the gentleman who introduced the resolution.

If the gentleman from Philadelphia could amend that particular phrase out of the resolution, we will go along one hundred percent with the condemnation of the things that communistic countries are doing today and are contemplating doing, but I do not think it is within our province to say to the United States Government, sever our relationships with any nation.

Mr. LORD, Jr. Mr. President, may I say to the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, that I am confident that no difference exists so far as the feeling among every member of this body. Personally I think that the penalty can not be too severe, that the penalty inflicted upon the Cardinal was very severe.

May I say, Mr. President, that of course the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is not in a position of power to make any determination with respect to the foreign relations policy of the United State of America, but I do think that we are in a position to pass such a resolution and advise Congress of our personal feeling in the matter, and that our personal feeling is a very strong one.

So far as the severance of diplomatic relations is concerned, when we read in the press that that has been advanced, it has been suggested and there is no doubt that everyone is in complete uniformity that the people who inflicted upon this man the injustice which he received, that after all that government should not be entitled to the recognition of a free people as we are today.

So, therefore, Mr. President, I feel that the resolution should not be amended. However, sir, as I stated, I also feel that no difference exists as to any member of the Senate with respect to his feelings in that regard, and so I would be very glad to accept any amendment that Senator Dent will offer which would be in complete sympathy with his own ideas, so far as the recommendation of the Senate is concerned.

RESOLUTION LAID ON THE TABLE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Resolution No. 20 be laid on the table.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. CROWE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 283, entitled:

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 289, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. TALLMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, in the Session of 1947, at the instance of the members of the Legislature, particularly from the central counties, the election code was amended with regard to the salaries paid to election officials. The purpose of the amendment of 1947 was to provide that the minimum base pay should be brought up and taken away from the discretion of the county commissioners, who, in a great many instances, were paying salaries so low that it was difficult to secure people to serve on election boards.

It developed in the primary election in 1948, that there was some confusion resulting from the legislation that we had enacted in 1947. Particularly it became apparent that there was a discrepancy and a serious one between the pay paid to a minority inspector and a judge for making the election return. As a result of that knowledge, the Joint State Government Commission undertook to make a survey among the counties affected, which were all except Philadelphia and Allegheny, and received returns from 54 of the counties involved. It became apparent that the major discrepancy and inequity of the legislation was the thing that I have already mentioned, the difference in the pay given to a minority inspector and a judge of election for making the return.

Mr. President, there was another matter which became apparent and that was that in only 7 counties, however, county solicitors for the county election boards had chosen to read the word "minimum" in the law to mean "maximum."

It is in the effort that those two things may be corrected, Mr. President, that I read in place and present to the Chair the following bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. TALLMAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 290, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsections (b) and (c) of section four hundred twelve of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333), entitled "An act concerning elections, including general, municipal, special and primary elections, the nomination of candidates, primary and election expenses and election contests; creating and defining membership of county boards of elections; imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth, courts, county boards of elections, county commissioners; imposing penalties for violation of the act, and codifying, revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections," by making further provision for the compensation of judges, inspectors, clerks and machine inspectors at primaries and elections.

Which was committed to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. KEPHART read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 291, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the University of Pennsylvania Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 292, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article fourteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto section eight consolidating the City of Philadelphia and the County of Philadelphia.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Mr. BERGER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 293, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1172), entitled "An act establishing certain streets in boroughs and incorporated towns as State highways, and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth," by adding a new route in Tioga County.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 294, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the purpose of flood control and stream channel work in McKean, Potter, and Tioga counties, made necessary by floods of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-two, and May, one thousand nine hundred forty-six, and of carrying out the provisions of existing laws relating thereto.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 295, entitled:

RESOLUTIONS

COMMITTEE BE APPOINTED TO STUDY ADVANTAGES AND DISADVANTAGES INVOLVED IN PROPOSED SALE OF THE WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA TUBERCULOSIS SANATORIUM AT BUTLER, PENNSYLVANIA, AND MAKE REPORT TO THE SENATE

Messrs. WADE and TALLMAN offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on State Government:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, February 15, 1949.

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania under the General State Authority built the Western Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Butler, Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The said institution was planned for providing treatment for, and to accommodate, five hundred fifty persons suffering from tuberculosis; and

Whereas, The said institution cost the tax payers of this Commonwealth in excess of $2,500,000; and

Whereas, The said institution, prior to its completion, was taken over by the Federal Government during the war and used as a hospital for veterans suffering from mental ailments; and

Whereas, It is now suggested that the institution be sold to the United States Government at about sixty per cent of its cost; and

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is in dire need of having this institution for the care of its own mental or tuberculosis patients; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of seven Senators to examine the facts, circumstances, advantages and disadvantages involved in the proposed sale by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of the Western Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Butler, Pennsylvania, to the United States Government; and, be it further

Resolved, That the said Senate committee make a report to the Senate of its findings and recommendations at the earliest possible time.

SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA SALUTES JOHN M. PHILLIPS ON EIGHTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

Messrs. HOLLAND and WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, February 15, 1949.

Eighty-eight years ago, February 15, 1861, a great conservationist was born—John M. Phillips, of Pittsburgh. The first presents he received were a dog and a gun. John Phillips has been accumulating dogs and guns ever since. He has hunted in every state in the Union, as well as in Canada, Mexico and South America.

Mr. Phillips was one of the first in this State to be influenced to action by the cutting of the forest and the unregulated onslaught on wild life. In the early 80's, he started practical conservation work. He helped organize the Game Commission in Pennsylvania in 1895. In 1905, he became a member of the Commission; later served as its President. He has never lost his close touch with the work of the Commission and his wisdom and advice is sought after in legislation pertaining to the game and conservation laws of the State and Nation. He is the father of the Resident Hunters License Law, passed in 1913. It was through his leadership that the basic game code of Pennsylvania was enacted. The game lands, now enjoyed by many in Pennsylvania, were secured by his untiring efforts in bringing them about.

In August, of last year, a bronze plaque was erected in his honor in Elk County, on the site of the first land purchased under the law he sponsored, in "Recognition of his untiring efforts to develop the State-wide system of public hunting grounds and game refuges."

His untiring efforts were not only confined to his own Country. It was through his work that Canada set aside its first game refuge, surrounded by public shooting grounds in British Columbia. It was he who succeeded in having a law passed to protect the last band of elk in British Columbia; while in his own community, he has put up a relentless fight to round out the dream of making Pymatuning Lake a great wild water fowl flyway. He has fought the encroachment of those who wish to turn this primitive nature's garden into a pleasure resort used for motorboats, thereby destroying the intent and purpose of making Pymatuning Lake the mecca of the wild life. Where hunters gather, the name of John Phillips and his great contributions to wild life are discussed.

With all his efforts in public life, he has been a very successful business man; was well known as a manufacturer and inventor of coal mine equipment, and his inventions are used throughout the world wherever coal is mined. He is President of the Phillips Mine and Mill Supply Company of Pittsburgh.

Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Senate of Pennsylvania salute John M. Phillips on his eighty-eighth birthday and, on behalf of the sportsmen and wild life lovers of Pennsylvania, thank him for the many things he has accomplished, that has brought pleasure and safety to the hunters in the field, and for his great fight against stream pollution and for his stocking of the streams with fish that has made Pennsylvania a fisherman's paradise.

We, the members of the Pennsylvania Senate, do congratulate John M. Phillips on attaining his eighty-eighth birthday and we hope for him continued long life, health, and happiness with Mrs. Phillips, his five children and twelve grandchildren.

Be It Further Resolved, that a duly certified copy of this Resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Mr. Phillips, at his home, 2336 Brownsville Road, Carrick, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in view of the fact that today is John Phillips' birthday, I would appreciate it very much if the Senate would extend to Senator Holland and to me, and to all of Allegheny County the opportunity of having immediate consideration of this resolution.

An the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The resolution was agreed to.

SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA EXTENDS ITS SYMPATHY TO THE PEOPLES OF THE COMMUNISTIC-CONTROLLED COUNTRIES

Mr. LORD, JR. offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 15, 1949.

Whereas, The entire civilized world was shocked by the trial of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty and the severe sentence which was imposed by the Communist-controlled court; and

Whereas, The opinion expressed on all sides, is that we have here the best evidence of the intention of the Communists to destroy religion wherever it exists; and

Whereas, the destruction of the freedom of religion is only one of the many freedoms being destroyed by the Communists in every country in which they have control; and

Whereas, Vast numbers of persons in all walks of life in all these countries are obliged to suffer on a scale civilization has never heretofore experienced; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, mindful of the great crimes and injustices being practiced upon the peoples of the Communist-controlled countries, hereby expresses its sincere sympathy and hopes the day will not be too far distant when all of their sufferings will have become a memory only, and that they again will be among the free peoples of the world.

RESOLUTION No. 20 RE-REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Resolution No. 20, now on the table, be taken from the table and returned to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the first reading of all bills reported from committees for the first time at today's session.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Walker, in reading the newspaper this morning, we see that there is some thought of keeping this body in session all week, in order to pass Senate Bill 263.

If that should be true, I have been instructed by my caucus to object to the passing of the bill on first reading.

Now, can you tell me whether or not it is your intention to pass this bill this week?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, this is the first that I have heard of any request to meet all this week. I have heard no request, and on such request has been made to me.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, can the gentleman from Allegheny tell us whether or not it is the intension to pass Senate Bill 263 this week?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am at a loss to understand how we can do it. There is a session scheduled for Wednesday, but no sessions planned or scheduled for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, or Sunday.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, we want to go on record that if that bill is not intended to be passed this week, we will not object to it being read today for the first time, but if that should be the intention of the majority party, we object to the first reading of Senate Bill 263.

The Senate was at ease.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am advised by my Philadelphia lawyer, one of the finest, that there is no intention to have a session on Thursday, Friday, or Saturday of this week.

Mr. HALUSKA. I thank the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. President, under those circumstances we have no objection to the first reading of all bills.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 159, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (c) of section twelve of the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 252), entitled as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt and brewed beverages, as herein defined; providing for the licensing of the manufacture, transportation, sale and distribution of such beverages; imposing license and permit fees, and providing for collection and distribution thereof; restricting ownership and interest in licensed places; permitting municipalities and townships, by vote of electors, to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises, and regulating elections for this purpose; imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, quarter sessions courts, district attorneys, the Department of Justice, proper authorities of political subdivisions of the State, and election officers; providing penalties; and repealing existing acts," by removing the individual residence requirements of one year in the county of application as to retail dispenser licenses.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 160, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsections (9) and (10) of section six hundred two of the act, approved the twentyninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 15, 1933-34), entitled as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the sale, manufacture, possession, transportation, importation, traffic in, and use of alcohol, and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and its agents, the Department of Public Instruction, other officers of the State government, courts, and district attorneys; authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises, and the granting of licenses, subject to local option, to sell such beverages for consumption on and off the premises; forbidding importation or brining of such beverages into the State except as herein provided; prohibiting certain sales or practices in, connection with, and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others; providing for the forfeiture of certain property; making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of fees; and imposing penalties," by further regulating advertisements allowed on and about licensed premises.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 218, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 252), entitled, as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt and brewed beverages, as herein defined; providing for the licensing of the manufacture, transportation, sale and distribution of such beverages; imposing license and permit fees, and providing for collection and distribution thereof; restricting ownership and interest in licensed places; permitting municipalities and townships, by vote of the electors, to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises, and regulating elections for this purpose; imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, quarter sessions courts, district attorneys, the Department of Justice, proper authorities of political subdivisions of the State, and election officers; providing penalties; and repealing existing acts," by providing for a minimum quantity of malt or brewed beverages to be sold by any manufacturer, distributor, importing distributor or retail dispenser; further regulating advertisements allowed on and about licensed premises.

An said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 232, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to sell and convey a tract of land situate in the Township of Allison, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, with the approval of the Governor.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 263, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and sections one and two of the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, February 15, 1949.

The House met at 2:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Captain Norman Noble, with the Salvation Army,

Hazleton, Pennsylvania, guest of the gentleman from Luzerne, Honorable John J. Mikula, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Wonderful Counselor, Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace, the government is upon Thy shoulders. It is in Thy name we gather here today and in reverence and humility acknowledge Thee King of Eternity, Measurer of Time, the years perish, but Thy Throne endureth forever.

Thou who hast encouraged us in Thy holy word to make supplication for all men, we beseech Thee for all Thy brethren of this great commonwealth and nation, for the great cities and the quiet country places, the rich and poor together, that Thou wouldst prosper agriculture, commerce, and every lawful industry; that Thou wouldst cleanse our national life from besetting sins, and remove all causes of division among people; that Thou wouldst fill our hearts with Thy love and our homes with Thy peace.

We pray for all nations of the human race, with their rulers, that Thou in Thy providence wouldst make an end of war, cruelty, oppression and ignorance, and grant unto every land the blessings of peace and order, justice and spiritual knowledge.

Our Father, who in the majesty of Thy unerring wisdom has decreed that a nation's power shall rather be found in its moral influences, in the authority of its enlightened teaching, in the ascendancy in goodness and truth. O God, grant that these may be the forces which shall wave their invincible banners over the hearts and lives of our representative citizens gathered here in the interest of our great Commonwealth this day.

This we ask in the name of—The Father, The Son, and The Holy Ghost. Amen.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 2, Printer's No. 12 and Senate Bill No. 114, Printer's No. 14, was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRUNNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, during yesterday's session there were a series of queries directed to me with regard to various budget expenditures and queries as to what, if any, balances remained. The queries were directed from the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, and I have endeavored to supply for the purpose of the record and for the information of the Members, the answers to those questions.

May I be pardoned for acknowledging with gratitude the industry and knowledge of the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, for aiding in the preparation of this reply

The first query was whether the 43 million dollar alleged balance in the 50 million dollar construction bond issue was available. From the information which I have here under the heading of "Welfare" in the budget at 18-A, of the 45 million dollars appropriated, $44,714,000 has either been allocated or bids accepted and construction is in progress, leaving the unallocated balance as of January 15 of this year of 285 thousand dollars.

The next inquiry was regarding what has happened to the 1945-1947 schedule "Construction post-war," page 11 of the budget. This item was in the amount of $16,500,000. May I say to the membership and to the gentleman that this too has been allocated and is budget item 3-A, under the heading of "Forests and Waters," and it is indicated that of the $16,500,000 appropriated, $16,353,000 has been allocated or contracted for, leaving a possible 147 thousand dollars available and not allocated.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I interrupt the gentleman?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BRUNNER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible for the Majority Leader to distinguish between the sums that have been allocated and the sums that have been allocated and the contract concluded. The sums that have been allocated and the contract has not been concluded are still available for recapture by this House, and if the gentleman is in a position to distinguish between the allocation and the spending as a result of the contract I would request him to do so. If he is unable to do so I would request that either tomorrow or early next week he bring in a supplemental report.

Mr. BRUNNER. I will be pleased to do so, Mr. Speaker. I shall be able to state for the record, say on Monday of next week, the exact relation of the various amounts to these overall figures.

With regard to the inquiry as to what has happened to the 10 million dollars stream clearance, survey and flood control fund for this biennium, referred to and being in the budget at page 11, I think the gentleman knows that as "23-A" under "Forest and Waters." To the end of last year, 12-31-48, there have been projects approved out of this fund amounting to $9,000,908 leaving an unallocated balance according to my figures of $96,868.

Then the inquiry was directed with regard to institutional construction post-war 9 million dollars. Page 12 of the budget, sub-division 82-A, reveals that of this appropriation of $9,255,000 there has been $8,868,000 allocated and approved by the Governor as of January 15th of this year, which means an unallocated balance of $366,000.

As to the 450 thousand construction post-war fund, set forth in the budget on Page 15 for 1945-1947, under "Military Affairs" Budget 78-A, the report shows 255 thousand appropriated by the Governor, leaving an unallocated balance of $194,760 as of January 15th.

Again, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman inquired as to what happened as to the "Construction and Welfare Fund", totalling $16,485,000 on Page 17 of the budget of the 1945-1947 appropriation. According to the figures which we have, which are of January 15th of this year, $16,318,000 have been allocated, leaving an unallocated balance of $166,172.

May I say that the gentleman, of course, is entitled to the information which he has requested. I did not know to what extent or for how long a period this day's session would continue. I thought that for the purposes of today's discussion, in view of the fact that we have a final passage calander tax program, that the balance unallocated would be sufficient. As I said before, I most am willing to cooperate and give the gentleman and the Membership of the House a breakdown in detail in the early part of next week, I trust Monday.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 346 as follows:

An Act to further amend sections four and ten of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149), entitled as amended "An act imposing a State Tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are practically and commercially suitable for use in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" by increasing the amount of the additional tax and by extending the provisions of the additional tax for a limited time and further providing for the distribution of the additional tax to certain political subdivisions of this Commonwealth with certain conditions

Section 1 Section four of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 149) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are practically and commercially suitable for use in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" as last amended by the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 393) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4 Imposition of Tax Exemptions and Deductions A permanent State tax of three cents a gallon or fractional part thereof is hereby imposed and assessed upon all liquid fuels used or sold and delivered by distributors within this Commonwealth excepting liquid fuels delivered to the United States Government on presentation of a duly authorized United States Government exemption certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the department and such liquid fuels used or sold and delivered as are not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the Commerce Clause of the Constitution of the United States Provided That the tax herein imposed and assessed shall be collected by and paid to the Commonwealth but once in respect to any liquid fuels.

In addition to such tax an additional State tax of [one cent] two cents a gallon or fractional part thereof is hereby imposed and assessed upon all liquid fuels used or sold and delivered by distributors within this Commonwealth for the period beginning on the day this act becomes effective and ending on the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred [forty-nine] fifty-one

Distributors shall be liable to the Commonwealth for the collection and payment of the tax imposed by this act. The tax imposed by this act shall be collected by the distributor at the time the liquid fuels are used or sold and delivered by the distributor and shall be borne by the consumer.

The tax shall be payable upon liquid fuels sold and delivered to or used by the Commonwealth and every political subdivision thereof.

The department shall allow such handling and storage losses of liquid fuels as are substantiated to its satisfaction.

Section 2 Section ten of said act as variously amended in whole or in part with or without regard to previous amendments by the following acts: the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 412) the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 634) the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 803) the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1102) the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 393) the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 618) and the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1196) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 10 Disposition and Use of Tax (a) One-half cent per gallon of the permanent tax collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund of the State Treasury and such moneys paid into said fund are hereby specifically appropriated for the purposes hereinafter set forth:

The moneys so paid into the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund except those that are refunded as hereinafter provided shall be paid to the respective counties of this Commonwealth on the first day of June and December of each year, in the ratio that the average return made during the three (3) preceding years to each county bears to the average amount returned to all counties for the three preceding years. Provided That the distribution of tax to the counties from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund that is payable the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one shall be made under the provisions of the acts of Assembly repealed by this act.

All moneys received by the counties hereunder shall be deposited and maintained in a special fund designated as the "County Liquid Fuels Tax Fund" into which no other moneys shall be deposited and commingled except in any county which does not have sufficient money in such special fund to provide for payments designated in the current annual budget for payment from such special fund for the purposes of construction reconstruction maintenance and repair of county-owned roads highways and bridges property damages interest and principal payments on road or bridge bonds or sinking fund charges for such bonds becoming due within the current calendar year. The county for the purpose of such payments and such payments only may borrow and place in such special fund moneys not in excess of the liquid fuels tax funds to be received during the current calendar year and all such loans shall be repaid from such special fund before the expiration of the current calendar year and not thereafter. Moneys so received and deposited shall be used only for the purpose of construction reconstruction maintenance and repair of roads highways and bridges including the payment of property damage now due or hereafter to become due occasioned by or the relocation or construction of highways and bridges and for the payment of interest and sinking fund charges on bonds issued or used for highways and bridge purposes or on so much of any bonds as have been used for such purposes and all payments made by any county either directly or indirectly prior to the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty-six for any or all such purposes are hereby validated. Provided That no expenditures from the county liquid fuels tax fund shall be made by the county commissioners for new construction on roads or bridges without first having obtained the approval of the plans for such construction work from the Department of Highways. And provided further That the county commissioners shall not allocate moneys from the county liquid fuels tax fund to any political subdivision within the county until the application and the contracts or plans for the proposed expenditures have been made on forms prescribed prepared and furnished and first approved by the Department of Highways. The county commissioners of each county shall make to the Department of Highways on or before the fifteenth day of January and July for the periods ending December thirty-first and June thirtieth respectively of each year on forms prescribed prepared and furnished by the Department of Highways a report showing the receipts and expenditures of such moneys received by the county from the Commonwealth under the provisions of this section. Copies of such reports shall be transmitted to the department and to the Department of the Auditor General for audit. Upon the failure of the county commissioners to file any one of such reports or to make any payments allocations or expenditures in compliance with the provisions of this section the department shall withhold further payments to the county out of the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund until the delinquent report is filed transmitted or said moneys allocated or said expenditures for the prior six months are approved by the Department of Highways.

(b) The county commissioners may allocate and apportion moneys from the county liquid fuels tax fund to the political subdivisions within the county in the ratio as provided in this subsection. Provided however That when the unencumbered balance in the county liquid fuels tax fund is greater than the receipts for the twelve months immediately preceding the date of either of said reports the county commissioners shall notify the said political subdivisions to make application within ninety (90) days for participation in the redistribution of the said unencumbered balance and distribute the said unencumbered balance to the said political subdivisions making application therefor in the following manner: fifty per cent (50%) of said moneys shall be allocated and apportioned among the political subdivisions within the county in the ratio which the total mileage of all roads and streets maintained by the several political subdivisions making application bears to the total mileage of all such roads and streets maintained by such political subdivisions in the county as of January first of the year in which an allocation is made. And Provided further That the remaining fifty per cent (50%) of said moneys shall be allocated and apportioned among the same subdivisions on a population basis in the ratio which the population in each such subdivision of the county making application bears to the total population of such political subdivisions. Provided further That in the case of an emergency and upon approval of the Department of Highways the county commissioners may enter into contracts and obligations for the expenditure of the estimated liquid fuels tax receipts for a period not exceeding two years and receive a credit for such expenditures against such subsequent receipts. And provided further That except in the case of an emergency as heretofore authorized no county shall carry over any credit balance against future fuel tax receipts from year to year and any credit balance now carried on the reports or in the records of the county commissioners the department or the Department of the Auditor General are hereby specifically invalidated and declared null and void.

(c) The Department of Highways shall annually issue to the county commissioners and to the corporate authorities of the political subdivisions in the counties copies of the laws with special reference to the pertinent provisions thereof and regulations relating to the receipts and expenditures of any funds authorized to be apportioned allocated or expended as provided herein.

(d) The remaining two and one-half cents per gallon of the permanent tax and one cent per gallon of the additional tax collected under the provisions of this act

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-nine

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the Speaker and I thank the gentleman from Adams County, Mr. Worley.

I rise, Mr. Speaker, in perhaps a futile attempt to resist a blitz. It has been incidentally published in the public press that our Speaker was going to jam the tax program across—jam it across. I want to say that the Speaker was misquoted; he never said anything of the kind, and as far as the Chair is concerned, every faction has had a square deal, so there has been no forcing as far as the Speaker is concerned.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. ANDREWS. Again, Mr. Speaker, I am not privileged to participate in the Republican caucuses. Thank God. A Democratic caucus is quite trouble enough for me. Somewhere in the Scriptures it has been said that your father scourged you with whips, but we will scourge you with scorpions. I know that you Republicans have been scourged with whip but, to my regret, I find that apparently one section of our militant democracy has been scourged with scorpions.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I presume that in the political arena, in line with tradition, it is the expected thing to bring pressure. We are in accord with parliamentary protocol. I could by name, name one, two, three, four, five, six, seven Members of your group who are told bluntly, if you do not support this tax program you couldn't expect to come back. That is not fiction; that is fact.

Now I resisted immediate action on these bills today as I did yesterday, first because my ancient enemy representing the townships of the Commonwealth, he and his association have been caught flat footed on this measure. Your Agricultural Council of agriculture organizations has been caught flat footed; they are meeting tomorrow to determine their position upon the tax bill that you are supposed to pass today. Your Grange has been caught flat footed.

Now, Gentlemen, slap them down if you want to. There isn't a single Member on this side of the House that even remotely owes his place in this Chamber to the Township organization, to the Agricultural Society, to the Grange.

If you want to slap them down, it is your funeral. They are the forces that sent you here; they didn't send us. Even my ancient enemy representing the Townships, with whom I have crossed swords on many occasions, he always licked me. Now he is getting his licking and finding out how he likes it. Maybe if he had sense enough to send a few Democrats from his controlled constituency he wouldn't find himself in his present mess.

Now, Mr. Speaker, in order to relieve the tension and let you in on all the secrets, because I am a candid person,—there is no deceit in me, wholly without guile,—I want to tell you that on this gas tax over on this side of the house I would estimate that there are a least eleven votes that are going to vote for the gas tax; and purely coincidentally, I suppose, that most of those eleven votes come from Allegheny county. It is purely incidental that those votes are from Allegheny county and come at a time when Allegheny county has a critical situation to present to the consideration of this House and His Excellency, the Governor.

I can say that as far as my information goes Philadelphia stands like a rock. I do not believe there is a gas tax vote or a pop tax vote in the whole delegation. But I would surmise, gentlemen, just to let you in, just to let you know where you are at, so that the Majority Leader can quit sweating, pull him out of the hole, . . . I wonder how he sleeps . . . as to the pop tax, I would say that he probably can muster at least eleven votes or maybe thirteen, and it is purely coincidental, gentlemen, that his pop tax vote should also come from Allegheny county. It being incidental that Allegheny county has a particular problem facing it. Now, Mr. Speaker, there is somebody that is mistaken; there is a lie out somewhere. I want to assure you from what I believed to be unimpeachable sources, that the Governor of this Commonwealth would give Allegheny County measures that deserve support, his support, and that he would not trade and bargain on it.

I find today that either my unimpeachable sources of information are at the fault or there is a lie out somewhere on the Democratic side of this House, because it has been carried to me by way of rumors that just as Republicans, who want to come back, had better line up for the bill, so cities and counties that have peculiar problems had better line up for the program.

I am saying to you that if that is the situation, that we are trading gas tax support and pop tax support for a wage tax bill for Allegheny County, it is the most infamous bargain ever concluded in this Chamber within my memory. I wouldn't be a part of it if I were the only one to voice a protest on it.

I hope there is a mistake out; I hope that those who have inferred that votes cast one way will be rewarded, and votes cast another way will be punished,—I hope that they are mistaken, and I hope that Allegheny

County's problems can be solved on the merits of those problems, and that Philadelphia County's can be solved upon the case that Philadelphia makes, and that the problems for the common people of this state can be solved upon the same basis.

Now, Mr. Speaker, you have listened very patiently. I am genuinely sorry to be placed in a position where I am compelled to vote against the gas tax bill and the pop tax bill. I don't believe a case has been made out for either of them. I am convinced that situations might arise in connection with health programs, in connection with educational programs, and in connection with other programs, where it might be necessary to reenact a pop tax, but I repeat what I said yesterday, that until we have found out where the General State Authority starts, and where state building ends, and determine what exactly we are going to do with relation to public school appropriations, and have a program outlined, we do not know whether or not we need a pop tax and we don't as yet know that we need this one cent tax.

That is the reason, Mr. Speaker, why I have plead for delay. Those are the reasons why I must oppose these measures, and I hope that these issues that we face can be resolved upon their merits, and that the Members on this side of the House and Members on that side of the House on measures affecting the interests of all of the people, can hold up their heads, and vote their conscience and not be controlled by any Pennsylvania version of the Axis, Moscow controlled.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, in the first place if this increase were necessary in order to give us the kind of highway system we all want, I would be for it, and so should every other progressive citizens of Pennsylvania. However, a careful and unbiased survey of the whole situation convinces me that there are plenty of revenues in sight to accomplish these purposes without increasing the gasoline tax.

It seems to me that in preparing its estimates for the biennium, the Highway Department has underestimated its probable receipts and has overestimated its expenditures.

There has been a decided increase in the registration of motor vehicles in Pennsylvania. That means that the Highway Department is going to get larger revenues both from registration fees and from the gasoline tax.

I am very much afraid that many rural members who may be planning to go along on this tax increase are doing it with the expectation that legislation will be enacted at this session to exempt from taxation all gasoline used off the highways. My amendments to do that very thing were voted down last night, February 14th, in this House. From all indications there is slight hope of securing such exemption at this session. If that should prove to be the case the rural members supporting the tax increase would be left.

Great emphasis has been placed upon the increased cost of highway construction, as compared with such costs in the pre-war period. However, there is every indication that those costs will come down and that the Highway revenues that are in sight will build and maintain more roads during the coming two years than would be possible on the basis of present day costs.

During the past year farm prices have shown a steady decline. The indications of the Bureau of Statistics, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., show that wholesale prices declined seven percent during January 1949. The cost of living is going down and construction costs will likewise go down. In my opinion there is no excuse for increasing this gasoline tax, and I am voting against it.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, one particular thing I don't like about this gas bill is the allocation to the various political subdivisions. I do not think the political subdivisions back home are getting enough money out of this gas tax. After all, we people helped to pay this tax and we are entitled to our just share.

In two of the townships in my county quite a few years ago there were two state highways that the township decided to set up. They were convinced by the State Highway Department, which they should never have done, but nevertheless, back in those days they fooled those people into signing away bond issues, and today the only money they get for building roads is the money allocated out of the gas tax fund. I think it amounts to one hundred and ten dollars a mile. Of the money we get, most of it is used by the townships to pay off bonded indebtedness.

Another thing, I am still not satisfied in my mind that someday the Brookings report is going to be accepted and many miles of state highway are going to be turned back to the political subdivisions. In that case we are going to have to have more money to take care of the roads. In a lot of cases in my county and in other counties where the townships have a bonded indebtedness, the black top roads after they had been fixed, the state moved in and took them over. From that time on the roads have gone backwards and a lot of them are not fit to travel over. After the roads are not fit to travel over they are turned back to the townships. I do not believe it is fair to include in this particular bill the allocation to the townships. This bill should be held over for further study and amendment.

Mr. KONDRATH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have permission to have the following news item appear in the record. This item appears in the Pittsburgh Press on February 11, 1949. The caption reads:

"State CIO opposes county wage tax, Harrisburg, Pa., February 11, United Press. Harry Boyer, President of the Industrial Council CIO has announced the organizations' opposition to an Allegheny County wage tax," We are opposed to a wage tax, Mr. Boyer said.

It appears that there is some question in the minds of the delegation from Allegheny County as to whether or not they should vote in support of this bill or against it. It appears to me that they may be influenced perhaps by the remarks that I just heard made several minutes ago, rather influenced by what might turn out to be a deal with the Governor to get approval of the wage tax. For the benefit of the delegation from Allegheny County, I would like to say this, that the workers in Allegheny County, the organized and unorganized groups, are definitely and wholeheartedly, unalterably opposed to a wage tax. Therefore I ask you to vote against this measure.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, we in Philadelphia have been in the past rather unfairly dealt with insofar as the allocations for road purposed are concerned. I am reliably informed now that the present administration proposes to render a fuller measure of aid to Philadelphia. For this we are grateful. Frankly, we of the Philadelphia delegation felt that if the actual necessity appeared we might be able to go along and vote for this increase in the gasoline tax. However, because of the fact that we have not been given sufficient information that the actual tax is necessary at this time, we in the Philadelphia delegation propose to vote against this measure. We feel if any allocations are coming to Philadelphia in the future, we can expect it from the Governor, and that if we had been given more information and more time to study this we might have gone along with this proposal. But in view of the fact that the information that has been offered to this House has not been conducive to our complete understanding of the necessity for an increase in the tax, we in Philadelphia propose to vote against this tax.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, Allegheny County has been called everything except the child of God. It has been ridiculed, it has been held up to contempt as being the one county that has made a deal that is going to wreck this Commonwealth. I tremble for my Minority Leader, for I believe after what happens here today, inasmuch as he says "the blitz is coming", we may not have him after this hour.

I want to allay any feelings that might be in the mind of the gentleman from Berks that Allegheny County has made any deal with the Governor or anybody else that Allegheny County will get a wage tax, and I want to make this clear, for I know some people will wonder why Allegheny County may contribute some votes to the Governor's program. We have nothing to hide. I am not going to attempt to answer the scathing denunciation against Allegheny County heaped upon it by our floor leader. I have heard him for many years and I was quite surprised that he let us down as quietly as he did. I want to say to him that I have never heard him say since this session opened that he is opposed to this gasoline tax. I have heard him say, and we were somewhat in agreement with him, that he was opposed to it at this time, for he has not been shown that it is needed, and after he is shown that it is needed, he may or may not be for the tax.

Now, how long it will take anybody to show the Minority Floor Leader that which he does not want to see, I will leave to you. He has been my colleague since 1935, even before I started to wear glasses. I tried to show him things and I have not succeeded.

Mr. Speaker, Allegheny County stands in this position if you call it a "deal," let it go for what it is. Allegheny County heard that votes were needed for this tax measure. That is no secret. Allegheny County does need a solution for its financial problem. Inasmuch as no one on this side of the House has said that he is against the tax in principle, and inasmuch as the Governor feels that he needs the tax now, those of us in Allegheny County who feel that we can vote for the measure, are going to vote for it. Thus you may call it a deal if you want to, hoping that when we take our problems to him he will not turn us away empty. If that is a deal, that is the situation, call it what you may. Say that it arose in infamy or perfidy or whatever you want to call it; that is what we expect to do.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I did not intend to speak at this time but after having listened to the previous speaker who made a remark as to whether we were opposed to the bill in the principle, I am compelled to say that I am opposed to this tax in principle. This is a sales tax affecting consumers, a special particular group of consumers, and I think, therefore, inequitable and unfair.

Generally, I am opposed to a sales tax or consumers' tax. In fact, I am opposed to the whole tax program without time to study and to have presented to us the whole tax structure to see whether there isn't a better way to meet the problem. Experts appointed to study this matter should deal with the matter. Therefore, I want to state for the record that I will at this time ask my genuine friends, especially from Philadelphia, to vote against this tax bill, for the sake of the little people of Philadelphia, and the people all over the state of Pennsylvania. I might state, Mr. Speaker, that the same attitude might be mentioned in regard to the soft drink tax.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I am as usual somewhat confused. The gentleman from Allegheny tells us if it is a deal, all right. The gentleman from Cambria says he gets it from good authority that it is a deal. Deals do not especially worry me. There have been a lot of deals and there will be a lot of deals, but when deals include the people who work for a living, then I am interested. If I can see the trend of the times, we sat in this Hall today and demanded legislation that is placing a tax on the poor. With that we are told that there are deals being made, where we are going to place the tax definitely upon the wage-earner.

Now, my friends, I had not intended to say one word about this tax but when we come to the place where these deals are made, and we are now fighting for the interests of the people, let me say to you, that you have not even scratched the surface in taxation where it belongs in Pennsylvania, and you know it. There are oodles of places in Pennsylvania for taxation by those well able to pay it, and not take it out of the envelopes of the working people of Pennsylvania which you are going to do under the bill that we hear about today. My friends, for that reason and that reason alone I am opposed to these taxes.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, the debate up to this point to my mind has led to the impression that there is no Democrat today that is going to vote for this gas tax unless he is involved in some kind of a so-called deal. I wouldn't want that impression to remain with the public. I intend to vote for this gas tax "deal." There has been so much talk of "deals" here that the word has kept going through my mind, and it was unintentional that I used it in that place.

Mr. Speaker, I have been around here for quite a long time, and I think measures should be debated on their merits and not upon some story about an alleged deal. There may be good reasons why any Democrat should vote for this gas tax in good conscience, and I think that I am doing just that. To me this thing resolves itself into one simple problem, that is, do we want to maintain our fine adequate highway system, and are the funds for which you are asking necessary or do we want to curtail the program, and are the funds not necessary?

Not long ago, Mr. Speaker, we Democrats had a caucus before which the Secretary of the Highways, Mr. Smock, appeared and gave us a lot of facts and figures. We didn't really have time to let them sink into our thick skulls and perhaps, I have the same complaint as does the Minority Leader, that these bills are being hurried here through fast because there are a lot of facts and figures which should be understood before this can be voted on intelligently. However, you have seen fit to bring this thing to a vote, and we either vote today or we don't vote at all.

I want to see, Mr. Speaker, that our fine system of highways is continued in Pennsylvania, and I am convinced by the figures and facts which I have heard already that we do need this additional money if we are going to continue it. I do not believe I need to argue that the cost of building roads, building materials have gone up like everything else since the pre-war days. Many people have spoken to me that rock has gone up and concrete has gone up, all materials that go into the making of roads have gone up. It does not take much investigation to convince me that that is the case. The Highway Department says that with this additional money, it will not be able to build as many highways as they did a couple of years ago. Now, to me it is a matter of dollars and cents; if we want them we pay for them, if we don't want them, we don't.

It has been said here today that this is a sales tax. Of course, it is a sales tax. If I know anything about our highways system and how it is financed, it has been a sales tax ever since highway users have been paying the tax. I think that is the reason the money is kept in the Highway fund to be used for highways alone. It was not so many years ago that we could have appropriated out of the highways funds any amount of money we wanted for some other state purposes, and we were not bound to return it, but we always did.

I have no objection to this gas tax as a sales tax. Either way the public pays for it and the public uses these highways, and if the public wants to continue to use the highways it will continue to pay for it. I am satisfied that this money is necessary, for experience shows, as Mr. Worley has indicated, that the Highway Department estimate of revenues is too low. If there is more money collected than they expected to collect, I will shout for joy, because that money will still be in the Highway fund or spent on the highways. If we have a large balance in the Highway fund at the end of the next biennium there are two things that can be done; either we can reappropriate that money for the next biennium for a larger program or taxes can be cut. I am not going to worry about what is going to happen to that money because I know it is going to be in the Highway fund or be returned to the people of Pennsylvania in the form of lower taxes. Were we one of those states where highway funds could be taken and appropriated to other purposes then I would argue that it is a sales tax and should not be made. But, Mr. Speaker, that money is sacred so far as the highways are concerned, collected from highway users and used for that purpose. If it is not so, then I have been misled and misinformed. I am sorry to take so much of your time, but there has been so much said about this and I feel very deeply about it. I do not believe that politics should enter into this at all. It is either good for the state or it is bad for the state, it doesn't matter whether you are Democrats or Republicans.

Mr. MUSTO. Mr. Speaker, I think there are remarks made at times that kind of wake some legislators up from their sleep. I have heard the gentleman say that all gasoline tax is used for highways and he approves better highways and better bridges, as I do, but can every legislator in the hall of the Legislature today deny that the tax money is spent during election time by flooding the highways to get votes, and then dismissing them after the election is over.

Just a minute, you will have your turn. I will apologize for my action if it is not befitting to some of the senior members of the House. But let us see if we have been elected to come in here and only sit down and make a decision when someone else tells us to do so. I wanted to say to the gentleman across the hall yes, I stand as one of the Democratic members of the House who is willing at all times to vote, whether it is a Republican measure or a Democratic measure which will protect the people back home who have sent me down here. I have no desire to vote only for measures that are going to protect the people in the county where I come from. My vote is a vote that helps to impose laws on every individual in the Commonwealth, and the only reason I am opposed to an increase in the gas tax is that I know from past experience, and I am going to make sure that in September and October of 1950 that money is not going to be used on the highways under my nose to deny me the right to come down here and speak for the people back home.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, it is with fear and trepidation that this lone speaker rises across on this side of the House to answer the many remarks expressed by the gentlemen on the other side.

I am going to be as brief as possible but I think it is obligatory of me to cover in some detail what we in this House subscribe to. I heard comment as to this program; I have heard some take a partisan attitude; others have said that this program would be for the best interests of most of the people of this great Commonwealth. I for one am proud to subscribe to the idea that this program is in fact one designed to benefit the most people in this State. This program is for the people. The highways in this state are available and used by Republicans and Democrats. The general funds are used for ordinary governmental expenses without distinction as to party.

We have running through this state a highway known as the "Turnpike," now being extended to the Eastern borders of Pennsylvania. It will be a source of pride to all of us; it will be a great service to our citizens, no matter what party they may belong to. For the last two years because of the highway system which we have, we have experienced twelve hundred industries coming into this state because our vast highway system made available to them ports of entry, destinations and deliveries throughout this great Commonwealth.

I think it is obligatory upon me to recall once more what was said here by the Governor of this Commonwealth when he presented to this Legislature the budget messages. I think that it explains the full program which he sponsored. You recall, some of you, that in 1947 he anticipated that the national income, the salary level and commodities would be increased, but he anticipated that so far as the salary levels and price levels were concerned that they would remain substantially the same. As a matter of fact, there was inflation; the national income went up twenty-eight percent and your price level increased at least twenty-five percent. As a result, as the gentleman from Berks so ably said, we were faced in the state, in our institutions, in our construction program and in our state expenses, with increases, in some cases double the expenses in construction, increased salaries, which were merited and given to a vast number of employees administering this Commonwealth's services to its many millions of citizens. In addition, the cost of food at the institutions caused us to overrun our budget as to this item. But, on the other hand, because there was a business boom this great Commonwealth and its manufacturing corporations and industries, its labor, earned for the businesses vast amounts of money beyond what they anticipated. As a result the corporate net income, for one thing exceeded our estimates, and we ended this biennium with a surplus.

And now, the Governor came to the Hall of the House some three weeks ago, and he said then: "We expect that those same levels which were maintained during the 1947-1949 biennium in excess of what we believed in 1947 will be maintained through the next biennium." As a result and for fear of overlooking any of these items, I have set forth what I believe to be additional services rendered by this state from the general fund without an increase in the so called general fund taxes.

The Schuylkill River project is one which is very close to me. It is a program which was enacted in the 1945 session. It had the approval of both sides of this house in the 1947 session, and out of this fund will be made available some 17 million dollars for the outstanding engineering accomplishment in this world today, the cleaning of the Schuylkill River. Fifteen million dollars for the housing development—certainly that is a people's program. Thirty-four million dollars, plus, I believe, some 625 thousand dollars in addition, for teachers and schools. Public assistance, in excess of four and one half million dollars. There is bond interest at seven and one half million dollars; departmental plans on the basis of increased services to many people, over thirteen and a half million dollars; the anticipated revenue will be almost four million dollars. This is a people's program. They don't pay any more; the tax rate is the same. It is true that there is an additional cent to be placed on gasoline. We on this side assure you on that side of the idea that this is a program for all the people, the motorist and the people who use the highways, and the citizens who use them, or who are adjacent to them. We are very proud to have a part in this program. We are very proud to submit it to the people. We of the majority, of course, have a duty to perform, and in this case it is a pleasure to submit to the people this program as a unit. At least we feel that they will receive it, they will welcome it and all of us who support it will benefit in doing so.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. Moran, Breth and Wheeler requested a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

(c) If it is established to the satisfaction of the department that due to economic conditions or due to existing stocks of unstamped crowns in the possession of manufacturers or bottlers on the effective date of this act or due to unavailability of material it is impractical to use syrup or soft drink tax crowns or stamps the department is hereby authorized and required to provide by regulation some other means of evidence of payment of the tax imposed or assessed by this act.

(d) Except as provided in clause (c) any manufacturer bottler or person who shall prepare manufacture or use syrups or bottled soft drinks or shall sell syrups or bottled soft drinks to bottlers distributors dealers or consumers without affixing to the original containers or bottles the stamps or crowns required by this act and any person who shall purchase receive transport store or sell any syrup or bottled soft drinks to which the stamps or crowns required by this act are not affixed shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or to suffer imprisonment for a term not exceeding six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court and in the case of a conviction of a second or subsequent offense hereunder shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) or more than one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and to suffer imprisonment for a term of not less than six (6) months or more than three (3) years.

Section 6 Assessment on Failure to Pay Tax Procedure for Assessment Review (a) If any person shall fail to pay any tax imposed by this act for which he is liable the department is hereby authorized and empowered to make an assessment of additional tax due by such person based upon any information within its possession or that shall come into its possession.

(b) Promptly after the date of such assessment the department shall send by registered mail a copy thereof to the person against whom it was made. Within ninety (90) days after the date upon which the copy of any such assessment was mailed such person may file with the department a petition for reassessment of such taxes. Every petition for reassessment shall state specifically the reasons which the petitioner believes entitled him to such reassessment and it shall be supported by affidavit that it is not made for the purpose of delay and that the facts set forth therein are true. It shall be the duty of the department within six (6) months after the date of any assessment to dispose of any petition for reassessment. Notice of the action taken upon any petition for reassessment shall be given to the petitioner promptly after the date of reassessment by the department.

(c) Within sixty (60) days after the date of mailing of notice by the department of the action taken on any petition for reassessment filed with it the person against whom such assessment was made may by petition request the Board of Finance and Revenue to review such action. Every petition for review filed hereunder shall state specifically the reason upon which the petitioner relies or shall incorporate by reference the petition for reassessment in which such reasons shall have been stated. The petition shall be supported by affidavit that it is not made for the purpose of delay and that the facts therein set forth are true. If the petitioner be a corporation joint-stock association or limited partnership the affidavit must be made by one of the principal officers thereof. A petition for review may be amended by the petitioner at any time prior to hearing thereon as hereinafter provided. The Board of Finance and Revenue shall act finally in disposition of such petitions filed with it within six (6) months after they have been received and in the event of the failure of said board to dispose of any such petition within six (6) months the action taken by the department upon the petition for reassessment shall be deemed sustained. The Board of Finance and Revenue may sustain the action taken on the petition for reassessment or it may reassess the tax due upon such basis as it shall deem according to law and equity. Notice of the action of the Board of Finance and Revenue shall be given by mail or otherwise to the department and to the petitioner.

(d) Any person or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania aggrieved by the decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue or by the board's failure to act upon his petition for review within six (6) months may within sixty (60) days appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County from the decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue or from the decision of the department as the case may be in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for appeals in the case of tax settlement.

(e) In all cases of petitions for reassessment review or appeal the burden of proof shall be upon the petitioner or appellant as the case may be.

(f) Whenever any assessment of additional tax is not paid within ninety (90) days after the date thereof if no petition for reassessment has been filed or within sixty (60) days from the date of assessment if no petition for review has been filed or within sixty (60) days from the date of the decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue upon a petition for review or the expiration of the board's time for acting upon such petition if no appeal has been made and in all cases of judicial sales receiverships assignments or bankruptcies the department may call upon the Department of Justice to collect such assessment. In such event in a proceeding for the collection of such taxes the person against whom they were assessed shall not be permitted to set up any ground of defense that might have been determined by the department. Section 2 This reenacting and amending act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have no intention of arguing this bill at length. The Majority Leader, I presume, is still sweating. It was a close squeak. Oh, but it was close! He would have turned up with 107 votes I think, without the assurance of Democratic support. Quite likely if I had not told him he was going to get the Democratic support he might have had some weak links on the other side. He did have, I think, 107. I don't know whether he is even so lucky on this bill.

Go ahead and pass it, gentlemen, go ahead and pass it. For our great glorious state has money to burn, and we are going to burn it. If we get under all the projects contemplated in the General State Authority we will be carrying about 246 million dollars worth of burden. We have got 63 million dollars of funded debt, and we are looking a 500 million dollars bond issue in the face. Why, gentleman, that isn't money, it is a little short of a billion. A billion I said, not a million. So, go ahead and pile this tax on the load which we already have. What is to stop us, what is the trouble, with a disposition to get under 809 million dollars of burden, what is 27 million dollars more?

I contend that we don't need the money. I contend that this budget is cockeyed from start to finish, and when I make this brief reference I am through. I find in the Governor's message, and he is talking about the last biennium, to meet these appropriations there were estimated revenues of 570 million dollars. Those were the estimated revenues after the last session. At this time the budget he is presenting to you recommends general fund appropriations of 695 million dollars. These appropriations would be met by 653 million dollars in estimated revenues. You have practically the same tax because he is talking about the general fund. Now, you have a tax, the same tax that was estimated to yield 570 million dollars in the last biennium, then you take identically by that same tax and put it in the budget that says it will yield in this biennium 653 million dollars. Only a difference in estimate of 70 million dollars!

Now, that is a wonderful budget office that can come within 70 million dollars of what the taxes will bring in. Maybe you need this pop tax; I don't know. With an error of 70 million dollars in the last estimate they come up with a budget showing a surplus of less than one million dollars at the end of this biennium. I say to you that a budget estimate of only one million dollars at the end of the biennium is a most dangerous budget. Maybe you need this pop tax to counteract the error of the budget office. What an error, since we are assumed to be a billion dollar state with a billion dollar debt? What is the difference in 27 million dollars more?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, this pop tax is in the final result a tax against the children of the Commonwealth. It should be voted down by the Members of this House.

Mr. POSTA. Mr. Speaker, since this looks like rookie day, I guess I might as well have my say here also. I am not only confused with what is happening here today but I will admit the truth, that I am also shaking in the knees and may get lock jaw even before I am through. I don't know whether that is due to some Republicans on this side of the House or so many confused Democrats on the other side.

What I want to leave with you folks today are facts that I have gathered concerning this bill in my legislative district. In my district we have a number of small manufacturers and distributors of soft drinks. But this one I wish to tell you about is a distributor who has hired 55 employees, but due to this tax, he has cut that number of employees down to 22. This distributor also used to sell approximately one million cases of soft drinks annually but due to the result of this tax this past year, as he gave me the figures, he sells approximately fifty percent or 500 thousand cases.

This distributor also ordered crowns in lots of 50 thousand dollars at one time. He paid for these crowns eleven dollars for fifty gross, which gave him a savings of two and a half cents per gross. Now, with this tax on the crowns which is an eleven dollar tax on each gross of crowns, used for bottles of twelve ounces or less, is a tax of $216 for fifty gross for quart bottles. He cannot afford to tie up this much money in his business. Therefore he purchases just sufficient to carry on current business. This manufacturer about two years ago invested in a plant outside of my county of Westmoreland in Fayette County, in the town of Uniontown. This plant was equipped with the most modern equipment possible. This plant was never even opened. It stands idle today down there in Uniontown, due to the loss of business that he has suffered in Westmoreland County and the plant remains idle and probably will if this tax is continued.

Now, Mr. Speaker, we know that the money from this tax, is not used upon the highways of Pennsylvania; it is not used in public institutions and so forth. The people who pay these taxes don't pay these taxes for that purpose, to a certain extent you know as well as I do who pays this tax. As Mr. Worley has just stated, it is a kid's tax. You have all heard of Jesse James and his gang; you have heard how he robbed trains, stage coaches and banks. And now I hate to think that you men and women in this House of Representatives would use a more modern method of robbery which we call laws, to steal these drinks from these kids.

This law was enacted June 1, 1947 and was to be extended to May 31, 1949. The estimated tax figure, as our Minority Leader stated, was to be approximately forty-seven thousand dollars, but he has now just arrived at the decision that the tax may be twenty-five to twenty-seven million dollars derived from this source. The loss by this tax not only by the state but by the subordinate organization, the counties, the boroughs, the townships, is much greater than the income derived by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so these people who are unemployed throughout these districts must go on unemployment compensation.

These trucks that are not producing and delivering these soft drinks, they also cause a great loss by the gas tax and the purchase of automobile equipment, so, you ladies and gentlemen of this House can see, I am positive, how this tax is more of a hindrance to each and every member of these communities of this great Commonwealth.

And now, these kids, if they could only be heard on this tax! Oh, if we could only go out and muster about two thousand kids and bring them in to this great Hall of the House of Representatives and let them express their opinion concerning this tax! I am positive that the velocity of their protests, their volcanic eruption against this tax would burst the eardrums of each and every Member of this House.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the final remark that I wish to make to you Members is this: we of this Commonwealth and all of the states of the Union, celebrate Mothers' Day; we celebrate Fathers' Day. So, let us not be politicians; let us be men among men and treat these kids and hand them back their five-cent bottle of soda, and celebrate this day as Children's Day.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I did forget something. It may not be pertinent. I have in my hand a couple of crowns. They are manufactured in Maryland for the use of the bootleg trade, principally, I believe, in Somerset County. Somerset County, you know, has existed on moonshine and Republican politics for the last seventy-five years and, therefore, it is perfectly in keeping that it should have bootleg crowns. I am only bringing this point up because if this bill passes I hope the law enforcement agency will see to it that Somerset County bootleggers do not come in with some more of these illegal crowns and take the business away from the honest people in Cambria County.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the high compliment paid to the County of Somerset by the eminent statesman from Cambria County. In the seventy-five year period which he has mentioned as to the product of Somerset County, I might say that travelling down Stony Creek to Johnstown, the gentleman should be well aware, and I am sure he is, how we don't use crowns in Somerset County; he gets his product with corks in the bottle.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I be brief and say that this is a part of the overall general fund program. In reply to the gentleman from Cambria I would like to comment on something which was observed by me during the last week-end, which appeared in the public press. May I preface that with this remark, as I said prior to the adoption of the last measure, this budget is predicated upon the fact that those revenues which were obtained during the 1947-1949 biennium, would be at substantially the same levels during the coming biennium, and therefore, a revenue increase would be anticipated and these additional services added.

May I say, however, that there is disquieting news in the press at the present time. For example, we learn that the price index is below the price index of four weeks ago, and below the comparable week in 1948. Prices are going down. Claims for jobless insurance have advanced for ten weeks. The Bureau of Unemployment Compensation said last week that 1,707,000 persons were receiving benefits which averaged about 21 dollars each per week, and that there are 348 thousand persons who filed claims for payments in the week ending February 5.

By the strangest coincidence, in the same paper, in the column immediately adjacent to the news item which I just read, is a column entitled "Tax Rise Issue Delayed in House." The article goes on to say:

"The House Ways and Means Committee, reportedly at the suggestion of President Truman, today decided to shelve the touchy tax increase question for the time being and get to work on the social security program."

The article then goes on to say:

"A number of Democrats on both sides on Capitol Hill, however, oppose any such action. They contend it would be better to wait and see how business does in the months ahead, concentrating congressional efforts meanwhile on reducing federal expenses."

You Members well know when Congress as a rule is in session; as a matter of fact it is in session all the time. We under our Constitution have regular sessions every two years. No Board of Directors of any corporation of the United States of America would ever attempt to do the job that we as a Legislature are called upon to do every two years, namely adopt a budget, levy a tax program, allocate our expenditures, estimate our yields not for one year but for two years. Under our Constitution we must do that, and therefore, we do it. We cannot wait until September or October in this regular session, to see what trends will develop, or where the present trend will lead us, but we are confident that on the basis of past experience the budget office has given us a fair estimate of the yield, and therefore as a part of this overall program this particular measure should be adopted.

In passing may I say this, I have heard the same emotional appeal made before this House about taking the pennies from the kids. I hope that in the not too distant future the minority members of this House will have the opportunity, and I am sure, if they are so solicitous as to the welfare of the children of Pennsylvania, they will be glad to support a program initiated by Governor Duff, whereby Indiantown Gap will be made a summer camp at a cost of 600 thousand dollars for the biennium for 25 hundred underprivileged children for fifteen days in the first year, and for five thousand of them in the second year. I ask the membership to vote "aye" on this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Section 3 (a) On and after the effective date of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to continue to engage in or thereafter to begin to engage in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale within this Commonwealth or for any person excepting commissaries ship's stores and voluntary unincorporated organizations of [the Army or the Navy personnel operating under regulations promulgated by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy] military forces personnel operating under regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Defense or departments under his jurisdiction and excepting retail dealers located in Veterans' Administration Hospitals as to sales of cigarettes to patients in said hospitals to continue to engage in or thereafter to begin to engage in the sale of cigarettes at retail within this Commonwealth unless a cigarette permit or permits shall have been issued to him as hereinafter prescribed

(b) Every person desiring to continue to engage in or hereafter to begin to engage in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale or retail within this Commonwealth except those persons exempt under section 3 (a) hereof shall file an application for a cigarette permit or permits with the department Every application for a cigarette permit shall be made upon a form prescribed and furnished by the department and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business the location of his place of business within this Commonwealth and such other information as the department may require If the applicant has or intends to have more than one place of business within the Commonwealth the applicant shall state the location of each place of business If the applicant is an association the application shall set forth the names and addresses of the persons constituting the association and if a corporation the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof any and other information prescribed by the department for purposes of identification The application shall be signed by the owner if a natural person and in the case of an association by a member or partner thereof and in the case of a corporation by an executive officer thereof or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application to which shall be attached the written evidence of his authority

At the time of making such application the applicant shall pay to the department a permit fee of one dollar ($1.00) for each permit

Upon approval of the application and the payment of the permit fee or fees herein required the department shall grant and issue to each applicant a cigarette permit for each place of business within the Commonwealth set forth in his application. Cigarette permits shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the persons in whose names issued and for the transaction of business at the places designated therein and shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the places for which issued.

All permits shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next succeeding the date upon which they are issued unless sooner suspended, surrendered or revoked for cause by the department.

(c) Permits issued under the provisions of this act may be renewed annually before the first day of January upon application made to the department and the payment of a renewal fee of one dollar ($1.00).

Whenever any permit issued under the provisions of this act is defaced, destroyed or lost the department may issue a duplicate permit to the holder of the defaced, destroyed or lost permit upon the payment of a fee of fifty cents ($.50).

(d) The department may suspend or after hearing revoke a cigarette permit whenever it finds that the holder thereof has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this act or any rules or regulations of the department prescribed, adopted and promulgated under this act. Upon suspending or revoking any cigarette permit the department shall request the holder thereof to surrender to it immediately all permits or duplicates thereof issued to him and the holder shall surrender promptly all such permits to the department as requested. Whenever the department suspends a cigarette permit it shall notify the holder immediately and afford him a hearing if desired and if a hearing has not already been afforded. After such hearing the department shall either rescind its order of suspension or good cause appearing therefor shall continue the suspension or revoke the permit.

Section 4. A State excise tax is hereby imposed and assessed upon sale of cigarettes by dealers at the rate of two cents per ten cigarettes or fraction thereof except such sales of cigarettes as are not within the taxing power of this Commonwealth under the commerce clause of the Constitution of the United States and except such sales as are made to authorized purchasers by commissaries, ship's stores and voluntary unincorporated organizations of the Army or the Navy personnel operating under regulations promulgated by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy; those persons exempt under section 3(a) hereof. Provided That only one sale of the same package of cigarettes shall be used in computing the amount of tax due hereunder.

Except as hereinafter provided dealers shall be liable to the Commonwealth as taxpayers for the payment of the tax imposed by this act and shall pay the tax into the State Treasury through the department by purchasing from the department adhesive stamps of such design and denominations as may be prescribed by the department.

Manufacturers of cigarettes located either within or outside of this Commonwealth and wholesale dealers in cigarettes located outside of this Commonwealth may purchase stamps from the department and affix such stamps in the manner hereinafter prescribed to packages of cigarettes to be sold within this Commonwealth in which case the dealer within this Commonwealth receiving such stamped packages of cigarettes will not be required to purchase and affix stamps on such packages of cigarettes.

Section 5. Each dealer shall affix within the time hereinafter prescribed to each package of cigarette stamps furnished by and purchased from the department evidencing the payment of the tax imposed by this act and shall cancel such stamps before such cigarettes are offered for sale or before they are otherwise disposed of unless stamps have been affixed to such packages of cigarettes before such dealer received them. Each wholesale dealer in this Commonwealth shall affix such stamps to each package of cigarettes unless such stamps shall have been previously affixed thereto and shall cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department prior to the delivery of such packages to any retail dealer in this Commonwealth.

Section 6. Every dealer in this Commonwealth except those persons exempt under section 3 (a) hereof shall immediately upon the receipt of any cigarettes at his place of business so affix such stamps to each package of cigarettes unless such stamps shall have been previously affixed thereto and shall cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department or shall immediately mark in ink on each unopened box, carton or other container of such cigarettes the word "received" and the month, day and year of such receipt and shall affix his signature thereto. The retail dealer shall in any event open such box, carton or other container and immediately affix such stamps to each package therein and cancel the same in the manner prescribed by the department within twenty-four hours after such receipt and prior to the sale of such cigarettes.

Whenever any cigarettes are found in the place of business of such retail dealer without the stamps affixed and cancelled or not marked as having been received the preceding twenty-four hours as required by this section the prima facie presumption shall arise that such cigarettes are kept therein in violation of the provisions of this act.

Stamps shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes of an aggregate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents therein and shall be affixed in such manner that they will be visible to the purchaser. Upon affixing stamps to a package of cigarettes the person affixing them shall cancel them by such method or in such manner as may be prescribed by the department.

Section 6. The department shall prescribe, prepare and furnish adhesive stamps of such denominations and quantities as may be necessary for the payment of the tax imposed and assessed by this act. The department shall make provisions for the sale of such stamps in such places and at such times as it may deem necessary.

The department shall appoint wholesale dealers in cigarettes within this Commonwealth and may appoint any other persons within or without the Commonwealth as agents to affix the stamps to be used in paying the tax herein imposed upon sales of cigarettes but a wholesale dealer shall at all times have the right to appoint the person who is to affix the stamps to any cigarettes under his control and whenever the department shall sell, consign or deliver to any such agent any such stamps such agent shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services and expenses as such agent in affixing such stamps and to retain out of the moneys to be paid by him for such stamps a commission of four per centum on the part value thereof if and when such agent has purchased the stamps affixed by him directly from the department. The department is hereby authorized and required to allow such commission or compensation in the settlement of the accounts of such agent upon payment by him into the State Treasury through the department of any moneys which may be or become due to the Commonwealth by reason of the sale, delivery or consignment to such agent of such stamps.

Section 7. Every person engaged in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale within this Commonwealth and every person engaged in the sale of cigarettes at retail within this Commonwealth except [commissaries, ship's stores and voluntary unincorporated organizations of the Army or of the Navy personnel operating under regulations promulgated by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy] those persons exempt under section 3 (a) hereof shall maintain and keep for a period of two years such record or records of cigarettes received, sold and delivered within this Commonwealth by him together with invoices, bills of lading and other pertinent papers as may be required by the department.

The department or any agent appointed in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, invoices and other records, the stock of cigarettes in and upon any premises where the same are placed, stored and sold and equipment of any such wholesale or retail dealer.

pertaining to the sale and delivery of cigarettes taxable under this act to verify the accuracy of the payment of the tax imposed and assessed by this act. Every such person is hereby directed and required to give to the Secretary of Revenue or his duly authorized representative the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations as are hereby provided and required.

Section 8 The department is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe adopt promulgate and enforce rules and regulations relating to

(a) The method and the means to be used in the cancellation of stamps

(b) The denominations and sale of stamps

(c) Any other matter or thing pertaining to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act

Section 9 Whenever any cigarettes upon which stamps have been placed by a dealer have been sold and shipped by him into another state for sale or use therein or have been sold to [commissaries ship's stores and voluntary unincorporated organizations of the Army or of the Navy personnel operating under regulations promulgated by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy] those persons exempt under section 3 (a) hereof for resale to authorized purchasers or have become unfit for use and consumption or unsalable or have been destroyed such dealer shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of tax paid by him with respect to such cigarettes. If the department is satisfied that any dealer is entitled to a refund it shall certify the proposed amount of such refund to the Board of Finance and Revenue for approval and thereafter shall issue to such dealer stamps of sufficient value to cover the refund as approved by the board. The department is hereby authorized to adopt prescribe and promulgate such rules and regulations with regard to the presentation and proof of claim for refunds as it may deem advisable.

The department may promulgate rules and regulations to relieve manufacturers and dealers from affixing the stamps on such cigarettes as are sold and shipped to points outside the Commonwealth for use outside the Commonwealth or on such cigarettes as are sold to [commissaries ship's stores and voluntary unincorporated organizations of the Army or of the Navy personnel operating under regulations promulgated by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy] those persons exempt under section 3 (a) hereof or resale to authorize purchasers.

Section 10 Every person other than a common carrier or the employee thereof who shall possess or transport any cigarettes upon the public highways roads or streets of this Commonwealth for the purpose of delivery sale or disposition shall be required to have in his actual possession invoices or delivery tickets for such cigarettes. The absence of such invoices or delivery tickets shall be prima facie evidence that such person is a dealer in cigarettes in this Commonwealth and subject to the provisions of this act.

Section 11 (a) Any person who shall sell cigarettes without being the holder of a cigarette permit or permits as required by this act shall upon conviction in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment thereof to undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days.

(b) Any person who shall sell cigarettes without purchasing and affixing stamps to each package thereof as required by this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than one thousand dollars ($1000) or to suffer imprisonment for a term not exceeding six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court and in the case of a conviction of a second or subsequent offense hereunder shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than one thousand dollars ($1000) and to suffer imprisonment for a term not less than six (6) months or more than three (3) years.

(c) Any person who shall fail neglect or refuse to comply with or shall violate the rules and regulations prescribed adopted and promulgated by the department under the provisions of this act or who shall refuse to permit the department or any agent appointed by it in writing to examine his books papers invoices and other records his stock of cigarettes in and upon any premises where the same are prepared stored and sold and his equipment pertaining to the sale of cigarettes taxable under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than five hundred dollars ($500) or to suffer imprisonment of not more than six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court.

(d) Any person who falsely or fraudulently makes forges alters or counterfeits any stamp prescribed by the department under the provisions of this act or causes or procures to be falsely or fraudulently made forged altered or counterfeited any such stamp or knowingly and willfully utters publishes passes or tenders as true any such false altered forged or counterfeited stamp or uses more than once any stamp provided for and required by this act for the purpose of evading the tax hereby imposed and assessed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to suffer imprisonment for a term of not less than two (2) years or more than five (5) years.

(e) Any person not being a duly licensed dealer under the provisions of this act or not exempt under section 3 (a) hereof who shall have in his possession two hundred (200) or more cigarettes upon which State cigarette tax has not been paid or to the containers of which Pennsylvania cigarette tax stamps are not affixed in the amount herein required shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) and costs of prosecution for each two hundred (200) cigarettes found in his possession the cigarettes shall be forfeited to the Commonwealth and in default of the payment of the said fine and costs shall be imprisoned in the county jail one (1) day for each dollar of fine and costs unpaid.

Section 12 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein.

Section 13 This act shall become effective thirty days after its final enactment and shall continue in effect until and including the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred [forty-nine] fifty-one.

Section 2 The act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 911) entitled "An act to make unlawful the possession of untaxed or unstamped cigarettes and providing for summary conviction and penalties" is hereby repealed.

Section 3 This reenacting and amending act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-nine.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire always to be cooperative. The County of Allegheny and miscellaneous folks on this side of the House having presented the Administration with the pop tax and having been very helpful in presenting the Administration with the gas tax, I am perfectly willing that we not only continue cooperation, but at this time join in wholeheartedly. There may be one or two, three or four Democrats who do not like the other taxes on the program. As for myself I intend to support the other bills upon the program. I think that most of us are on record as having supported these measures at the last session.

I do wish to point out the absurdity of the budget, in that we list two hundred some million dollars as normal taxes and then list three hundred and sixty million dollars or thereabouts as emergency taxes. I say to the majority, a majority that has been in power for a number of years, that to turn up with some two hundred million dollars normal tax and about three hundred and sixty million dollars of emergency taxes is in and of itself a complete tax absurdity.

I simply want to conclude by saying, in view of the magnificent support which some of us up to this time have accorded the administration program, and in view of the future support which you will accord in connection with the remaining tax measures, it is my sincere hope that if,—and note, Mr. Speaker, I say "if"—any promises have been made, I hope to heavens that the Democrats who received those promises have them in writing.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, this particular bill that we are now voting on, when it passed the House in the last session, included some other things, cigars and leaf tobacco. I might say that this was the most profitable bill that I had an opportunity to speak against in the last session. The boys sent me over cigars, cigarettes and everything else. I am not going to ask you to do that this year. I realize that this thing is getting to be an old thing but I want to say to you I am sorry I can't go along with my leader and vote for this tax, because if you had left those cigars in there where the big guy had to pay for them I would have been willing to go along. But the gentlemen take it out on the poor kids who have to smoke cigarettes, and also the girls. I don't know why they ever vote for you; they are the cigarette smokers.

So, my friends, I say again, I would love to go along with my leader on this but I must vote "no" on this one more bill.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, for the reasons stated by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, I must oppose this bill. This whole tax program either is an emergency tax or it is not. To my mind it is not, and, therefore, I am opposed to this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 349, as follows:

An Act to further amend section three of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 284) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax, payable by those herein defined as manufacturers and by others on malt or brewed beverages used sold transported or delivered within the Commonwealth prescribing the method and manner of evidencing the payment and collection of such tax conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and those using or engaged in the sale at retail or wholesale or in the transportation of malt or brewed beverages taxable hereunder and providing penalties" increasing the rates of certain taxes for a further limited period of time

Section 1 Section three of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 284) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as manufacturers and by others on malt or brewed beverages used sold transported or delivered within the Commonwealth prescribing the method and manner of evidencing the payment and collection of such tax conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and those using or engaged in the sale at retail or wholesale or in the transportation of malt or brewed beverages taxable hereunder and providing penalties" as last amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 247) is hereby further amended to read as follows pay to the Commonwealth the taxes imposed by this section upon all malt or brewed beverages manufactured in this Commonwealth when prepared for market and every person who ships or transports malt or brewed beverages into this Commonwealth for sale delivery or storage in this Commonwealth shall pay to the Commonwealth the taxes imposed in this section before such beverages are transported within this Commonwealth. Such taxes shall be at the rate of one-third cent (1/3c) per half pint of eight (8) fluid ounces or fraction thereof and in larger quantities at the rate of one-half cent (1/2c) per pint of sixteen (16) fluid ounces or fraction thereof.

The tax rates per original container or standard fraction thereof are as follows

Standard Fraction	Malt Beverage Tax Rate	Volume
1 barrel	$1.24	31 gal.
1/2 barrel	.62	15 1/2 gal.
1/3 barrel	.42	10 1/3 gal.

"Department" the Department of Revenue of this Commonwealth

"Net Income" 1 In case the entire business of the corporation is transacted within this Commonwealth net income for the calendar year or fiscal year as returned to and ascertained by the Federal Government or in the case of a corporation participating in the filing of consolidated returns to the Federal Government the net income which would have been returned to and ascertained by the Federal Government if separate returns had been made to the Federal Government for the current and prior taxable years subject however to any correction thereof for fraud evasion or error as finally ascertained by the Federal Government Provided That except as hereinafter otherwise provided additional deductions shall be allowed from net income on account of any Federal income or excess profits taxes paid after deducting therefrom an amount equivalent to any post-war refunds applicable to any such taxes during such calendar or fiscal year for the preceding calendar or fiscal year or accrued during such calendar or fiscal year for such year as the case may be and on account of any dividends received from any other corporation And provided further That in the case of a corporation participating in the filing of consolidated Federal returns the additional deduction allowed from net income on account of any Federal income or excess profits taxes paid or accrued shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total Federal income or excess profits taxes of the group after deducting therefrom an amount equivalent to any post-war refunds applicable to any such taxes as the net income of the corporation computed without a deduction for such Federal taxes bears to the sum of the net incomes of the several members of the group computed without a deduction for such Federal taxes And provided further That on reports filed for the calendar year one thousand nine hundred forty-three or for any fiscal year beginning in such calendar year or any calendar or fiscal year thereafter no deduction shall be allowed for any Federal income or excess profits taxes whatsoever except the declared value excess profits tax And provided further That no reports filed for the calendar year one thousand nine hundred forty-six or for any fiscal year beginning in such calendar year or any calendar or fiscal year thereafter no deduction shall be allowed for net operating losses sustained by the corporation during any other fiscal or calendar year nor shall any net operating loss sustained by the corporation during the calendar year one thousand nine hundred forty-six or during any fiscal year beginning in such calendar year or in any calendar or fiscal year thereafter be allowed as a deduction for any prior calendar or fiscal year And provided further That in the case of stock life fire casualty and indemnity insurance companies doing business on the mutual or participating plan the term "net income" shall not include the dividends paid to policyholders out of net income

2 In case the entire business of any corporation other than a corporation engaged in doing business as an insurance or surety company is not transacted within this Commonwealth the tax imposed by this act shall be based upon such portion of the net income of such corporation for the fiscal or calendar year as defined in clause one hereof as may be determined by allocations and apportionments made as follows

(a) Gains realized and losses sustained from the sale or exchange of capital assets if such assets consist of real estate or tangible personal property situated in the Commonwealth shall be allocated to this Commonwealth

(b) Gains realized and losses sustained from the sale or exchange of capital assets if such consist of real estate or tangible personal property situated outside of the Commonwealth shall not be allocated in any part to this Commonwealth

(c) The remainder of such net income shall be divided into three equal parts

(1) Of one-third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within this Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said one-third by a fraction whose numerator is the value of the corporations tangible property situated within this Commonwealth and whose denominator is the value of all the corporation's tangible property wherever situated

(2) Of one-third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said one-third by a fraction whose numerator is the expenditures of the corporation for wages salaries commissions and other compensation to its employees and assignable to this Commonwealth as hereinafter provided and whose denominator is the total expenditures of the corporation for wages salaries commissions and other compensation to all its employees

(3) Of the remaining third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said third by a fraction whose numerator is the amount of the taxpayers gross receipts from business assignable to this Commonwealth as hereinafter provided and whose denominator is the amount of the taxpayer's gross receipts from all its busi-

In cases where only two of the foregoing three rules are applicable the remainder of the net income of the corporation shall be divided into two equal parts only each of which shall be apportioned in accordance with one of the remaining two rules. If only one of the three rules is applicable the part of the net income received from business carried on within the Commonwealth shall be determined solely by that rule.

The amount assignable to this Commonwealth of expenditures of the corporation for wages salaries commissions or other compensation to its employees shall be such expenditures for the taxable year as represent the wages salaries commissions or other compensation of employees not chiefly situated at connected with or sent out from premises for the transaction of business maintained by the corporation outside the Commonwealth.

The amount of the corporation's gross receipts from business assignable to this Commonwealth shall be (1) the amount of its gross receipts for the taxable year except those negotiated or effected in behalf of the corporation by agents or agencies chiefly situated at connected with or sent out from premises for the transaction of business maintained by the taxpayer outside of the Commonwealth and except rentals and royalties and interest and dividends (2) rentals or royalties from property situated or from the use of patents within this Commonwealth and (3) dividends and interest except such dividends and interest attributable to the business conducted on premises maintained by the taxpayer outside the Commonwealth. If a corporation maintains an office warehouse or other place of business in a state other than this Commonwealth for the purpose of reducing its tax under this subsection the department shall in determining the amount of its gross receipts from business assignable to this Commonwealth include therein the gross receipts attributed by the corporation to the business conducted at such place of business in another state. In the case of construction contracts negotiated or effected at an office in the state of Pennsylvania but performed outside the state the gross receipts under such contracts shall be assignable outside the state except that if the activities under any such contract to which the gross receipts are attributable shall occur partly within the state and partly outside the state such proportion of the gross receipts under said contract shall be assignable to Pennsylvania as the direct and indirect costs incurred in Pennsylvania under the contract for the taxable year bear to the total costs incurred thereunder for the taxable year. In the case of construction contracts negotiated or effected at an office outside the state but performed in the state the gross receipts under such contracts shall be assignable to the state except that if the activities under any such contract to which the gross receipts are attributable shall occur partly within the state and partly outside the state such proportion of the gross receipts under said contract shall be assignable to Pennsylvania as the direct and indirect costs incurred in the state under the contract for the taxable year bear to the total costs incurred thereunder for the taxable year.

A rule shall not be deemed to be inapplicable merely because all the tangible property or the expenditures of a corporation for wages salaries commissions or other compensation or the gross receipts of the corporation are found to be situated incurred or received without the Commonwealth.

3. In case the entire business of any corporation engaged in doing business as an insurance or surety company is not transacted within this Commonwealth the tax imposed by this act shall be based upon such portion of the net income of such corporation for the fiscal or calendar year as defined in clause one hereof as shall be attributed to business transacted within this Commonwealth by multiplying such net income by a fraction of which the numerator is the gross premiums received from business transacted within the Commonwealth as hereinafter defined and of which the denominator is the amount of the gross premiums received from all its business. "Gross Premiums" shall mean the amount of dues fees and premiums stated in the policy contracts and shall include gross premiums of every character and description received during the taxable year from all underwriting activities whether said premiums were received in money or in the form of notes credits or any other substitute for money less the following deductions:

(a) All premiums returned on policies cancelled or not taken.

(b) In the case of stock companies with participating features an additional deduction for that portion of the premiums returned to the policyholders.

(c) In the case of life insurance companies an additional deduction for dividends declared and actually used by policyholders in payment of renewal premiums.

"Gross premiums received from business transacted in the Commonwealth" shall mean gross premiums received from policies and annuities written on property or risks located or resident in this Commonwealth whether such premiums were collected in this Commonwealth or elsewhere.

"Person" Every natural person association or corporation. Whenever used in any clause prescribing and imposing a fine or imprisonment or both the term "person" as applied to associations shall mean the partners or members thereof and as applied to corporations the officers thereof.

The singular shall include the plural and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter.

Section 3 Imposition of Tax. Every corporation shall be subject to and shall pay for the privilege of doing business in this Commonwealth or having capital or property employed or used in this Commonwealth by or in the name of itself or any person partnership association limited partnership joint-stock association or corporation a State excise tax at the rate of six per centum per annum upon each dollar of net income of such corporation received by and accruing to such corporation during the calendar year one thousand nine hundred thirty-five except where a corporation reports to the Federal Government on the basis of a fiscal year and has certified such fact to the department as required by section four of this act in which case such tax at the rate of six per centum shall be levied collected and paid upon all net income received by and accruing to such corporation during the fiscal year commencing in the calendar year one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and ending in the calendar year one thousand nine hundred thirty-six a similar tax at the rate of ten per centum per annum upon each dollar of the net income of such corporation received by and accruing to such corporation during the calendar year one thousand nine hundred thirty-six except where a corporation reports to the Federal Government on the basis of a fiscal year and has certified such fact to the department as required by section four of this act in which case such tax at the rate of seven per centum shall be levied collected and paid upon all net income received by and accruing to such corporation during the fiscal year commencing in the calendar year one thousand nine hundred thirty-six and ending in the calendar year one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven and a similar tax at the rate of seven per centum per annum upon each dollar of the net income of such corporation during the calendar years one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine one thousand nine hundred forty one thousand nine hundred forty-one and one thousand nine hundred forty-two except when a corporation reports to the Federal Government on the basis of a fiscal year and has certified such fact to the department as required by section four of this act in which case such tax at the rate of seven per centum shall be levied collected and paid upon all net income received by and accruing to such corporation during the fiscal years commencing in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine one thousand nine hundred forty one thousand nine hundred forty-one and one thousand nine hundred forty-two and a similar tax at the rate of four per centum per annum upon each dollar of the net income of such corporation received by and accruing to such corporation during the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred forty-four one thousand nine hundred forty-five one thousand nine hundred forty-six one thousand nine hundred forty-seven [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty except where a corporation reports to the Federal Government on the basis of a fiscal year and has certified such fact to the department as required by section four of this act in which case such tax at the rate of four per centum shall be levied collected and paid upon all net income received by and accruing to such corporation during the fiscal years commencing in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred forty-four one thousand nine hundred forty-five one thousand nine hundred forty-six one thousand nine hundred forty-seven [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty

The tax hereby imposed shall be in addition to all taxes now imposed on any corporation under the provision of existing laws

Section 4 Report and Payment of Tax For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of tax payable under this act it shall be the duty of every corporation liable to pay tax under this act on or before the fifteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-six one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine one thousand nine hundred forty one thousand nine hundred forty-one one thousand nine hundred forty-two one thousand nine hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred forty-four one thousand nine hundred forty-five one thousand nine hundred forty-six one thousand nine hundred forty-seven one thousand nine hundred forty-eight [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty and one thousand nine hundred fifty-one to transmit to the department upon a form prescribed prepared and furnished by the department a report under oath or affirmation of its president vice-president or other principal officer and of its treasurer or assistant treasurer of net income taxable under the provisions of this act Such report shall set forth

(a) A true copy of its return to the Federal Government of the annual net income arising or accruing in the calendar or fiscal year next preceding or such part or portions of said return as the department may designate

(b) If no return was filed with the Federal Government the report made to the department shall show such information as would have been contained in a return to the Federal Government had one been made and

(c) Such other information as the department may require

The failure of any corporation liable to pay tax under this act to procure or receive any report form shall not excuse it from making a report

Every corporation upon the date its report is required herein to be made shall pay to the department not less than one-half of the tax due to the Commonwealth by it for such preceding year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid within the thirty days next succeeding and except as otherwise provided by law no extension of time for the filing of any report granted by the department shall extend the date any tax imposed by this act shall be due and payable The amount of all taxes imposed under the provisions of this act not paid on or before the times as above provided shall bear interest at the rate of six (6) per centum per annum from the date they are due and payable until paid except that if the taxable income has been or is increased by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or by any other agency or court of the United States interest shall be computed on the additional tax due from thirty days after the corporation receives notice of the change of income until paid Provided however That any corporation may pay the full amount of such tax or any part thereof together with interest due to the date of payment without prejudice to its right to present and prosecute a petition for resettlement a petition for review or an appeal to court If it be thereafter determined that such taxes were overpaid the department shall enter a credit to the account of such corporation which may be used by it in the manner prescribed by law

If the officers of any corporation shall neglect or refuse to make any report as herein required or shall knowingly make any false report an additional ten per centum of the amount of the tax shall be added by the department to the tax determined to be due

If any corporation closes its fiscal year not upon the thirty-first day of December but upon some other date and reports to the Federal Government as of such other date or would so report were it to make a return to the Federal Government such corporation shall certify such fact to the Department of Revenue and shall make the report herein required within thirty (30) days after the return to the Federal Government is due or would be due were it to be required of such corporation subject in all other respects to the provisions of this act

If the corporation shall claim in its report that the return made to the Federal Government was inaccurate the amount claimed by it to be the net income taxable under this act and the basis of such claim of inaccuracy shall be fully specified

Section 5 Consolidated Reports The department shall not permit any corporation owning or controlling directly or indirectly any of the voting capital stock of another corporation or of other corporations subject to the provisions of this act to make a consolidated report showing the combined net income

Section 6 Extension of Time to File Reports The department may upon application made to it in such form as it shall prescribe on or prior to the last day for filing any report and upon proper cause shown grant to the corporation required to file such report an extension of not more than sixty (60) days within which such report may be filed and in case the Federal income tax authorities at any time grant a longer extension of time for filing such reports with the Federal government the department may grant an additional extension of time for filing the report under this act of not more than thirty (30) days after the termination of the Federal extension but the amount of tax due shall in such cases nevertheless be subject to interest from the due dates and at the rates fixed by this act

Section 7 Changes Made by Federal Government (a) If the amount of the net income as returned by any corporation to the Federal Government is finally changed or corrected by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or by any other agency or court of the United States such corporation within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such final change or correction shall make a corrected report under oath or affirmation to the department showing such finally changed or corrected net income upon which the tax is required to be paid to the United States In case a corporation fails to file a report of such correction which results in an increase in next income within the time prescribed there shall be added to the tax a penalty of five dollars ($5.00) for every day during which such corporation is in default but the department may abate any such penalty in whole or in part

(b) If as a result of such final change or correction there should be any change made in the amount of the net income of any corporation upon which tax is imposed by this act the department shall have the power and its duty shall be to resettle such taxes Whenever a resettlement shall have been made hereunder the department shall resettle the account according to law and shall credit or charge as the case may be the amount resulting from such resettlement upon the current accounts of the corporation with which it is made The resettlement shall be subject to audit and approval by the Department of the Auditor General as in the case of original settlements and in case of the failure of the two departments to agree the resettlement shall be submitted to the Board of Finance and Revenue as in the case of original settlements

(c) Where a report of change correction or redetermination of Federal income or Federal tax has been filed after a petition for review or an appeal has been taken such report shall be deemed a part of the original report upon petition of the taxpayer at any subsequent proceeding as though it had been filed with the original report and no separate petition for review or appeal from the resettlement resulting from such report of change correction or redetermination shall be necessary

(d) The provisions of this section shall not be construed so as to permit a resettlement based upon the allowance of any deduction on account of net operating losses sustained in other fiscal or calendar years that are not allowed as deductions under the definition of "Net Income" as contained in section two of this act

Section 8 Settlement and Resettlement (a) All taxes due under this act shall be settled by the department and such settlement shall be subject to audit and approval by the Department of the Auditor General and shall so far as possible be made so that notice thereof may reach the taxpayer before the end of a year after the tax report was required to be made

(b) Promptly after the date of any such settlement the department shall send by mail or otherwise a copy thereof to such corporation The tax imposed by this act shall be settled resettled and otherwise imposed and adjusted in the same manner within the same periods of time and right of resettlement review appeal and refund as provided by law in the case of capital stock and franchise taxes imposed upon corporations

(c) If within a period of two years after the date of any settlement the department is not satisfied with such settlement or if at any time the net income as returned or corrected by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or by any other agency or court of the United States with the result that tax in addition to the amount paid is under this act the department is hereby authorized and empowered to make a resettlement of the tax due by such corporation based upon the facts contained in the report or upon any information within its possession or that shall come into its possession

Whenever a resettlement shall have been made hereunder the department shall resettle the account according to law and shall credit or charge as the case may be the amount resulting from such resettlement upon the current accounts of the corporation with which it is made

The resettlement shall be subject to audit and approval by the Department of the Auditor General as in the case of original settlement and in case of the failure of the two departments to agree the resettlement shall be submitted to the Board of Finance and Revenue as in the case of original settlements

(d) If any corporation shall neglect or refuse to make any report and payment of tax required by this act the department shall estimate the tax due by such corporation and subject to audit and approval by the Department of the Auditor General settle the amount due by it for taxes penalties and interest thereon as prescribed herein from which settlement there shall be no right of review or appeal but the department with the approval of the Department of the Auditor General may require a report to be filed and thereupon make a settlement based upon such report and cancel the estimated settlement

Section 9 Enforcement Rules and Regulations Inquisitorial Powers of the Department (a) The department is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe adopt promulgate and enforce rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act relating to any matter or thing pertaining to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act and the collection of taxes penalties and interest imposed by this act The department is hereby required to have such rules and regulations promulgated and adopted printed and shall distribute the same to any person upon request

(b) The department or any agent authorized in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books papers and records and to investigate the character of the business of any corporation in order to verify the accuracy of any report made or if no report was made by such corporation to ascertain and settle the tax imposed by this act Every such corporation is hereby directed and required to give to the department or its duly authorized agent the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations and investigations as are hereby provided and authorized Any information gained by the department as a result of any returns investigations or verifications required to be made by this act shall be confidential except for official purposes and any person divulging such information shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine or not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and costs of prosecution or to undergo imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court

(c) Whenever any person acting for or on behalf of the department shall in good faith institute legal proceedings for any violations of the provisions of this act and for any reason shall fail to recover costs of record such costs shall be a charge upon the proper county as shall such costs in the event defendant is imprisoned for failure to pay fine or costs or both and shall be audited and paid as are costs of like character in said county

(d) The powers conferred by this act upon the department relating to the administration or enforcement of this act shall be in addition to but not exclusive of any other powers heretofore or hereafter conferred upon the department by law

Section 10 Retention of Records by Corporations Penalty Each corporation shall maintain and keep for a period of three (3) years after any report is filed under this act such record or records of its business within this Commonwealth for the period covered by such report and other pertinent papers as may be required by the department

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and costs of prosecution or to undergo imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court

Section 11 Penalties (a) Any person who shall wilfully make a false and fraudulent return of net income made taxable by this act shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to punishment as provided by law Such penalty shall be in addition to any other penalties imposed by this act

(b) Any person who wilfully fails neglects or refuses to make a report or to pay the tax as herein prescribed or who shall refuse to permit the department to examine the books papers and records of any corporation liable to pay tax under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and costs of prosecution or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court Such penalty shall be in addition to any other penalties imposed by this act

Section 12 Constitutional Construction The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 13 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall remain in force only for the imposition and collection of taxes on net income of corporations for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred thirty-five one thousand nine hundred thirty-six one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine one thousand nine hundred forty one thousand nine hundred forty-one one thousand nine hundred forty-two one thousand nine hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred forty-four one thousand nine hundred forty-five one thousand nine hundred forty-six one thousand nine hundred forty-seven [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty or for the fiscal years ending in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred thirty-six one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine one thousand nine hundred forty one thousand nine hundred forty-one one thousand nine hundred forty-two one thousand nine hundred forty-three one thousand nine hundred forty-four one thousand nine hundred forty-five one thousand nine hundred forty-six one thousand nine hundred forty-seven one thousand nine hundred forty-eight [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty and one thousand nine hundred fifty-one

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 351, as follows:

An Act to further amend section twenty-one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" postponing the manufacturing exemption with regard to capital stock tax and the franchise tax on domestic and foreign corporations joint-stock associations limited partnerships and companies for a further limited period of time

Section 1 Section twenty-one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" as last amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 224) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 21 (a) That every domestic corporation other than corporations of the first class nonprofit corporation and cooperative agricultural associations not having capital stock and not conducted for profit and every joint-stock association limited partnership and company whatsoever from which a report is required under the twentieth section hereof shall be subject to and pay into the treasury of the Commonwealth annually through the Department of Revenue a tax at the rate of five mills upon each dollar of the actual value of its whole capital stock of all kinds including common special and preferred as ascertained in the manner prescribed in said twentieth section Provided That the tax of five mills imposed by this subsection on reports filed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty or for the fiscal years beginning in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty shall apply to the taxation of capital stock of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes excepting companies engaged in the distilling of liquors Provided further That after said [two] four year period the provisions of this section shall not apply to the taxation of the capital stock of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes which his invested in and actually and exclusively employed in carrying on manufacturing within the State excepting companies engaged in the distilling of liquors and such as enjoy and exercise the right of eminent domain but every corporation limited partnership or joint-stock association organized for the purpose of manufacturing shall pay the State tax of five mills herein provided upon such proportion of its capital stock if any as may be invested in any property or business not strictly incident or appurtenant to the manufacturing business in addition to the local taxes assessed upon its property in the district where located it being the object of this proviso to relieve from State taxation only so much of the capital stock as is invested purely in the manufacturing plant and business

(b) Every foreign corporation joint-stock association limited partnership and company whatsoever from which a report is required under the twentieth section hereof shall be subject to and pay into the treasury of the Commonwealth annually through the Department of Revenue a franchise tax at the rate of five mills upon a taxable value to be determined in the following manner. The actual value of its whole capital stock of all kinds including common special and preferred shall be ascertained in the manner prescribed in the twentieth section of this act and shall then be divided into three equal parts

(1) Of one third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said third by a fraction whose numerator is the value of the taxpayer's tangible property not actually and exclusively used in manufacturing situated within the Commonwealth and whose denominator is the value of all the taxpayer's tangible property wherever situated

(2) Of another third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said third by a fraction whose numerator is the expenditures of the taxpayer for wages salaries commissions or other compensation to its employees not exclusively engaged in manufacturing in this Commonwealth and assignable to this Commonwealth as hereinafter provided and whose denominator is the total expenditures of the taxpayer for wages salaries commissions or other compensation to all its employees

(3) Of the remaining third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said third by a fraction whose numerator is the amount of the taxpayer's gross receipts from business not strictly incident or appurtenant to manufacturing in this Commonwealth assignable to this Commonwealth as hereinafter provided and whose denominator is the amount of the taxpayer's gross receipts from all its business

The sum of the amounts determined in accordance with the foregoing three rules shall be the taxable value. In a case where only two of the foregoing three rules are applicable the remaining third equal part of the value of the entire capital stock shall be divided into two equal parts each of which shall be apportioned in accordance with one of the remaining two rules. If only one of the three rules is applicable that part of the entire capital stock attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth shall be determined solely by that rule

The amount assignable to this Commonwealth of expenditures of the taxpayer for wages salaries commissions or other compensation to its employees shall be such expenditures for the taxable year as represent the wages salaries commissions or other compensation of employees not chiefly situated at connected with or sent out from premises for the transaction of business maintained by the taxpayer outside the Commonwealth

The amount of the taxpayer's gross receipts from business assignable to this Commonwealth shall be (1) the amount of its gross receipts for the taxable year except those negotiated or effected in behalf of the taxpayer by agents or agencies chiefly situated at connected with or sent out from premises for the transaction of business maintained by the taxpayer outside the Commonwealth and except rents and royalties and interest and dividends (2) rentals or royalties from property situated or from the use of patents within this Commonwealth and (3) dividends and interest except such dividends and interest attributed to the business conducted on premises maintained by the taxpayer outside the Commonwealth. If a taxpayer maintains an office warehouse or other place of business in a state other than this Commonwealth for the purpose of reducing its tax under this subsection the Department of Revenue shall in determining the amount of its gross receipts from business assignable to this Commonwealth include therein the gross receipts attributed by the taxpayer to the business conducted at such place of business in another state

In the case of construction contracts negotiated or effected at an office in the State of Pennsylvania but performed outside the State the gross receipts under such contracts shall be assignable outside the State except that if the activities under any such contract to whom the gross receipts are attributable shall occur partly within the State and partly outside the State such proportion of the gross receipts under said contract shall be assignable to Pennsylvania as the direct and indirect costs incurred in Pennsylvania under the contract for the taxable year bear to the total costs incurred thereunder for the taxable year. In the case of construction contracts negotiated or effected at an office outside the State but performed in the State the gross receipts under such contract shall be assignable to the State except that if the activities under any such contract to which the gross receipts are attributable shall occur partly within the State and partly outside the State such proportion of the gross receipts under said contract shall be assignable to Pennsylvania as the direct and indirect costs incurred in the State under the contract for the taxable year bear to the total costs incurred thereunder for the taxable year

A rule shall not be deemed to be inapplicable merely because all the tangible property or the expenditures of a taxpayer for wages salaries commissions or other compensation or the gross receipts of the taxpayer are found to be situated incurred or received without the Commonwealth

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection (b) the franchise tax of five mills imposed by subsection (b) on reports filed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty and for fiscal years beginning in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven [and] one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty shall apply to the taxation of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes excepting companies engaged in the distilling of liquors without excluding from the numerators of the applicable fractions tangible property actually and exclusively used in manufacturing compensation of employees exclusively engaged in manufacturing and gross receipts from business strictly incident or appurtenant to manufacturing

After said [two] four year period the provisions of this subsection shall apply to the taxation of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes

(c) It shall be the duty of the treasurer or other officers having charge of any such corporation joint-stock association or limited partnership upon which a tax is imposed by this section to transmit the amount of said tax to the Treasury of the Commonwealth within the time prescribed by law. Provided That for the purposes of this act interest in limited partnerships or joint-stock associations shall be deemed to be capital stock and taxable accordingly. Provided further That corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations liable to a tax under this section shall not be required to pay any further tax on the mortgages bonds and other securities owned by them and in which the whole body of stockholders or members as such have the entire equitable interest in remainder but corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations owning or holding such securities as trustees executors administrators guardians or in any other manner than for the whole body of stockholders or members thereof as sole equitable owners in remainder shall return and pay the tax imposed by this act upon all securities so owned or held by them as in the case of individuals. Provided further That the tax of five mills imposed by this section on reports filed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and for each calendar year thereafter or for the fiscal years beginning in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and for each fiscal year thereafter shall apply to the taxation of the capital stock of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for laundering and for the processing and curing of meats their products and by products excepting companies engaged in the distilling of liquors Provided further That in case of fire and marine insurance companies the tax imposed by this section shall be at the rate of five mills upon each dollar of the actual value of the whole capital stock Provided That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to apply to building and loan associations chartered by the State of Pennsylvania

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall be retroactive to the first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-nine so that domestic and foreign corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes shall pay the tax imposed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty or for the fiscal years beginning in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and one thousand nine hundred fifty as other domestic and foreign corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 353, as follows:

An Act to reenact and amend the title and the act approved the ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (Special Session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-six P. L. 13) entitled "An act imposing an emergency State tax for a limited period of time on liquor as herein defined sold by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board providing for the collection and payment of such tax and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue and the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board" as previously reenacted and amended by extending the provisions thereof for a further limited period of time

Section 1 The title and all the sections of the act approved the ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (Special Session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-six P. L. 13) entitled "An act imposing an emergency State tax for a limited period of time on liquor as herein defined sold by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board providing for the collection and payment of such tax and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue and the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board" as last reenacted and amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 245) are hereby reenacted and further amended to read as follows

An Act imposing an emergency State tax for a limited period of time on liquor as herein defined sold by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board providing for the collection and payment of such tax and imposing upon the Department of Revenue and the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board

Section 1 Be it enacted &c That the following words terms and phrases used in this act are for the purposes hereof defined as follows

"Liquor" Any alcoholic spirituous vinous fermented or other alcoholic beverage or combination of liquors and mixed liquor a part of which is spirituous vinous fermented or otherwise alcoholic and all drinks or drinkable liquids preparations or mixtures intended for beverage purposes which contain more than one-half of one per centum of alcohol by volume except alcohol and malt or brewed beverages

"Department" The Department of Revenue of this Commonwealth

"Board" The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board of this Commonwealth

"Fiscal Month" The monthly period established from time to time by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board for the purpose of conducting its business

Section 2 Until the first day of June one thousand nine hundred [forty-nine] fifty-one an emergency State tax is hereby imposed and assessed at the rate of ten per centum of the net price of all liquors sold by the board The tax herein imposed shall be collected by the board from the purchasers of the liquor from the board The amount of such ten per centum so collected by the board under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the State Treasury through the department in the manner and within the times herein specified and shall be credited to the General Fund

Section 3 It shall be the duty of the board to transmit to the department on or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month a statement of its receipts from sales of liquor and taxes collected during the preceding fiscal month and such other information as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of this act at which time it shall also be the duty of the board to pay to the department the tax imposed upon such liquor by the provisions of this act Provided however That the board may in its discretion add the tax imposed by this act to the wholesale and retail price at which liquors are sold and eliminate any accounting of such tax separate from sale prices and in such case the amount of the tax for any calendar month shall be ascertained by dividing the entire gross receipts derived from sales at Pennsylvania liquor stores during such month by eleven and the quotient thus obtained shall be deemed the amount of the tax for such month payable over under this section

Section 2 This reenacting and amending act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1949.

No. 15.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, February 16, 1949

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a. m. Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JAMES B. WILLIAMS, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, Father of mankind, guardian and guide of the destinies of our nation, we approach Thy Holy Presence in all humility and prostrate ourselves at Thy feet, seeking Thy forgiveness for the sins of our lives.

We acknowledge Thee as the fountain of all wisdom, the life and light of those who put their trust in Thee. Illumine our minds and purify our hearts. Open our eyes that we may see the truth and be free from the evils and superstitions of men who would drag us down. Bless those who sit in darkness, and may the sunlight of Thine own presence shine upon them, making the darkest spot on earth ever more bright and beautiful than the land in which we live. Inspire us with a holy zeal to serve Thee in every field of opportunity. Hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom in the hearts of men, that we might find the true interpretation of life.

Teach us, Oh God, life's real values; we need to know that it is not the abundance of things one may possess, but the giving of oneself in consecrated service to others, for we believe that life is real and life is earnest and the grave is not its goal, dust thy art to dust returneth was not spoken of the Soul.

With Thee as our guide and teacher then let us be up and doing with a heart for any fate, still achieving, still pursuing, learn to labor and to wait.

We ask it in Jesus' name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. WOLFE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

BILL SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 301, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation from the General Fund to the Department of Forests and Waters for the use of the Water and Power Resources Board in continuing the work of correcting existing and preventing future silting of the Schuylkill River.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I would like at this time to bring to the attention of the Senate the results of an incident that occurred here in the City of Harrisburg last Friday morning. That, in part, was the result of action taken by this body a week ago yesterday, that action being the favorable passage of the message introduced by the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, providing for the state entering into competitive bidding on a War Assets Plant being offered at bid.

I think I might illustrate more completely the point, if I were to read from the Saturday issue of the Patriot. I see in bold type:

"State's Bid of $515,000 High on Steel Plant.

"Duff signs sales agreement later but WAA may delay its decision a week.

"A sales agreement for State purchase of a war surplus plant at 1400 North Cameron Street for $515,000 was signed by Governor James H. Duff yesterday afternoon.

"Duff approved the State's side of the deal after Secretary of Property and Supplies Chester M. Woolworth outbid the representative of a large food processing and distribution company whose top offer was $510,000 for the plant which cost the federal government $3,500,000 during the war.

"Officials of the War Assets Administration, the Federal agency charged with disposition of the former bomb-assembly plant, said that under conditions of the sale they have until next Friday to act on the State's high bid.

"Meantime, it was learned that United States Sen. Francis J. Myers has received a number of protests from labor groups in this area who object to sale of the plant for non-industrial purposes. Similar objections were said to have been filed with War Assets Administrator in Washington.

"Representatives of groups who would have used the plant for manufacturing, however, did not bid over $425,000. Noah S. Myers, Harrisburg realtor, stopped at this figure and from there on it was a contest between Woolworth and bidders who planned to relet the premises or use the plant for warehousing purposes.

"Myers told a reporter he was bidding on the property on behalf of a group who would have formed 'a new and very large corporation for the manufacturing of tractors and farm machinery.' He said the company would have employed 'more than 3000 persons.'"

Mr. President, I think that the final result of the action of the Senate on Tuesday, and of the auction and bidding, bears out the contention of the minority members of this body who voted against the passage of this bill that enabled the State to enter into open bidding for an industrial plant here in the City of Harrisburg. As a result, between two thousand and three thousand workers in the City of Harrisburg have been denied future employment opportunities, business is bound to suffer in the district, because this lack of job opportunity has been denied by state action, and the County of Dauphin will be deprived of a tax potential by said action. I think the action of the Majority Party in the passage of this bill as of last Tuesday is a criterion of the action of that same party over the years, a type of action that has indicated a total disregard for the welfare, the well-being and the economic future of the workers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is the same type of action that has given to the workers of Pennsylvania a deplorable Workmen's Compensation Act, and a shameful Workmen's Unemployment Act, and as of yesterday, permitted to come upon this floor for first reading an amendment to a labor act, or anti-labor act, might I say. That again shows a total disregard for the interests and the welfare and an understanding of the workers' problems in the State of Pennsylvania. This act is an attempt by the Majority Party here at the behest of certain groups in the City of Philadelphia, to end the strike now in progress of the transit lines of the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. President, during the course of the committee discussion, one of the majority members of the Committee said that this strike was detrimental to the public welfare. When questioned as to what strike does not hurt somebody, he said, "Well, it's costing $10,000,000 a day," and I think that adds up and indicates the attitude of the Majority Party here in the Senate and in the State, on all matters affecting the interests of the working people. "How much does it cost?," not, "How is it going to affect the interests of the little people," not, "How is it going to affect their future?"

Nothing is said about the constitutional rights of these people to gather in assembly and take into their hands the only weapon that the workers have ever had for economic salvation, to strike. And now, Mr. President, we find they have introduced a bill that it is claimed by the Attorney General in this case will be retroactively effective.

I think that the case as outlined here in the paper is the result of the Senate action last Tuesday and the War Assets Administration auction is only indicative of the thinking of the Majority members of this Senate in all action. Their interest is not in the welfare of the people and the workers of this State, but in the interest of the vested interests of the State, and how much does it cost, as the first consideration.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, having just been indicted as the defender of the vested interests, may I again suggest to the gentleman on the other side that I think if he will take the trouble to check with the War Assets Administration he will find that they will confirm this statement, that the bid of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was the highest bid offered at the public sale held by the War Assets Administration last Friday. The Governor signed the sales agreement, and the War Assets Administration has the right to accept or reject that bid.

I am told that the War Assets Administration held a conference with the Governor of the Commonwealth in the Governor's Office, and the Governor told them very deliberately, very flatly and very positively, as we have been stating here on the floor of this Senate, that if the War Assets Administration, or if any other individual can produce an industry that is desirous of coming into this Commonwealth and occupying the property which is the subject matter of the auction, the State's bid can be rejected very cheerfully by the War Assets Administration, the State will concur in the action taken by the War Assets Administration and a private individual can have the property.

As to the rest of the declaration made by the gentleman from Lawrence about the policy of the Republican Party, I think our record over the last 100 years substantially refutes that statement.

Now, if the gentleman from Lawrence has any suggestion to make as to what industry wants to buy that property, if he will have that industry get in touch with the War Assets Administration, the property can be purchased. The deal is not consummated, because the War Assets Administration will not confirm the sale at this time until they have satisfied themselves that they have exhausted every possible recourse to bring an industry into this state.

Mr. President, I find some reluctance about being placed in the category where the Republican Party is driving industry out of Pennsylvania. That is a new role for us, Mr. President.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, it is my understanding that the purchasing agent of a large fabricating firm did meet with the Governor previous to the sale and asked him what the attitude of the State was in regard to the forthcoming auction, and the Governor told him they were going to bid it in and were willing to pay anything within reason for it, and as a result, this company didn't even enter into the bid, inasmuch as it would be fool-hardy to attempt to compete with the State of Pennsylvania in an open bid.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I know the gentleman from Lawrence has no desire to continue this discussion, because the Senate would like to get through with the Calendar today, but I would just like to suggest to him that the War Assets Administration is entitled, and the government is entitled to get the best possible public price at public auction it can.

Mr. President, the remark I made a minute ago still stands. If he has a fabricating plant, any kind of a plant that wants the property, all they have to do is go to the War Assets Administration, lay the dough on the line and pick up the property.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, on the radio at six o'clock last night, there was a broadcast direct from Washington, in which it was stated that the War Assets Board had told the Committee to come back and see the Governor, that the Governor would withdraw the State's bid, and the Steel Company would get the building.

Mr. President, I understand this committee is trying this morning to have a meeting with the Governor, to ask the State to withdraw its bid so that industry can buy the plant.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I do not want to be hoisted upon the petard of a technicality. I am not quite certain I understand what the War Assets Administration did, or what the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, means by withdrawing the bid.

I was advised by the representatives of the War Assets Administration that they can throw the State's bid out, if a private industry comes in and says, "Here, we will take it," and lays the money down.

Mr. President, I do not think that the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, or the gentleman from Lawrence, Senator Neff, is suggesting that we withdraw the bid made by the State in good faith, so that some private industry can pick the property up for a percentage or a fraction of what was bid at public auction. I do not think that is fair to the Governor or to the War Assets Administration.

I might suggest, Mr. President, that they will have no trouble in seeing the Governor, because he is over in his office today, and I am certain what he said to the War Assets Administration still stands.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I cannot follow the thinking of the Majority Leader because I believe that if private industry would take this property over, get it for nothing and put 2800 men to work in Harrisburg, and pay taxes to the State, and pay taxes to the local government, it would more than pay for the building. The State does not pay any local taxes, and naturally, that is going to be a burden on the City of Harrisburg.

I know definitely that the broadcast was made from Washington, and the gentleman who made the broadcast is a leader of an independent group here, in which he said the War Assets Board stated that they could not at this time withdraw the bid, and then he said he was going to see the Governor this morning.

Now, Mr. President, that is the definite story.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I just want to assure my colleagues of the Senate, and this is the last time I will get up and discuss this matter this morning, I have been a member of the Senate for 10 years, I have tried desperately to get the last word in, and I have not succeeded yet.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, you know, after all, the Majority Leader was taught under the same leader that I was at one time, Pinchot, and we were taught to be fighters in those days for our people.

I am sorry Mr. Pinchot is not here today, because if he was here the building would not be bought by the State when it could be sold to industry, because he was a great leader.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

CALENDAR

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 195, as follows:

An Act to further amend section two of Article XVI of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth" by changing the provisions relating to filling vacancies in the office of city councilman in such cities

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section two of Article XVI of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 356) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 At the municipal election held in such city in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven and in every fourth year thereafter city councilmen shall be elected in the various State senatorial districts in such city The number of councilmen to be elected in the various State senatorial districts in such cities shall be twenty-two They shall be elected in the various State senatorial districts of such cities in proportion to the population thereof as determined by the last United States census and each succeeding United States census The councilmanic ratio for the election of councilman as aforesaid shall be ascertained by dividing the whole population of all the State senatorial districts of such cities by the number twenty-two One councilman shall be elected for each such ratio and an additional councilman shall be elected for any fractional portion of such ratio in excess of fifty per cent thereof Every State senatorial district in such cities shall be entitled to elect as many city councilmen as it has councilmanic ratios of population as aforesaid and an additional councilman for any fractional portion of such ratio in excess of fifty per cent thereof The number of councilmen to be elected for each such district shall be determined and announced by the county commissioners on August first of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven and of every fourth year thereafter on the basis of population as aforesaid Councilmen shall be nominated and elected according to law and those receiving the highest votes shall be declared elected to the number to which each such district is entitled Councilmen shall serve for the period of four years from the first Monday in January following their election [If any vacancy shall happen in the office of councilman the vacancy may be filled at the next general municipal or special election occurring not less than thirty days thereafter but the councilman thus elected shall serve only for the unexpired term. The provisions of this act shall not affect present members of council in such cities they shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms. Whenever a vacancy shall exist or happen in the office of city councilman the President of the council shall issue a writ of election to the proper county board of elections for a special election to fill the said vacancy which election shall be held on a date named in the writ which shall be not less than thirty (30) days after the issuance of said writ. The President of the council may fix in such writ of election the date of the next ensuing primary municipal or general election as the date for holding any such special election.

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

An said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate one of the sponsors of this bill.

Mr. FRAZIER. I yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KEPHART. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I should like to know from Senator Kephart whether or not, as the act now stands, it does not provide for the filling of a vacancy for the office of councilman.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, the act as it now stands, without this amendment, I do not believe provides for the filling of a vacancy for the office of councilman. That is what this bill is supposed to do.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I do not want to take up the time of the Senate, but I would like to point out that the act, as it presently reads, line 13, page 3 of this bill:

"If any vacancy shall happen in the office of councilman, the vacancy may be filled at the next general municipal or special election occurring not less than thirty days thereafter," etc.

Mr. President, it appears to me that no amendment to this act is necessary because the act already provides for the filling of the vacancy. I do not know what the theory is, but it appears that that portion of the act is now being cut out, in order to make it possible for the president of city council to call for a special election at the expense of the taxpayers, if he so desires, or have the election held at a primary if he so desires.

I do not think it is at all necessary; I think it may be an expense to the taxpayers of the City of Philadelphia, and tied up as it is with Senate Bill 196, the same may be true in many of the townships of this Commonwealth.

I, therefore, ask the Members of the Senate to vote against this bill, because it is not at all necessary, and it may impose additional expense for election purposes.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, the reason for this bill is to provide the machinery for the prompt filling of the vacancies which now exist in Philadelphia City Council, and the machinery which is set up here whereby the President of City Council designates the date on which the special elections will be held, is the same as if a vacancy occurred in the State Senate, and the designation was made by the President pro tempore, and all vacancies of a similar nature. It is just to make the law conform with other similar cases.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I would like to say just one more word, and that is that it would have been easy in order to make it mandatory, that the word "may" be changed to "shall", but I will not argue now the purpose behind the movement for the passage of this bill.

I would like to say, Mr. President, while I am on my feet so I do not have to get up again when Senate Bill 196 comes up, which speaks of providing for special election for members of councils or legislative bodies of cities, boroughs, towns, and township, and so forth in addition to that, it changes the time for the nomination and election of Senators, Members of Congress, and other officers. There is no notice of it in the title, and I do not see how it could ever be declared in good shape.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—33

Berger,	Geltz,	McPherson, Jr.,	Tallman,
Blass,	Hare,	Meade,	Wade,

RESOLUTIONS

The SPEAKER. In order to conserve the time of the House the Chair will take up at this time Resolutions, if there is no objection. The Chair hears none.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. JIM offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

In the House of Representatives, February 16, 1949.

The stork is a busy creature, and a wise old bird. He takes his duty seriously, and delivers his charges with the greatest of care and discrimination. One year ago yesterday, in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, he found a family of such worth, that he committed four of his treasurers to its bounty. His choice proved good.

John Michael, Barbara Rose, Bernadette Elizabeth and Anna Mary, are glad he judged Andrew and Barbara Zavada so well. The two have been exemplary parents, and because of their care and solicitude, the four young citizens have grown strong and healthy and happy. They conquered the measels last week, just in time to celebrate, with the entire community and State, the occasion of their first birthday. It was a happy day with gifts and well wishes arriving in avalanche proportions.

Such a family, and such a day, is of no small concern to the State they compliment; therefore be it Resolved, by the Members of the House of Representatives that we extend to the Zavada Quadruplets, our heartiest congratulations and earnest desire that this day marks the first of 100 happy birthdays.

That we extend to Andrew and Barbara Zavada, our deepest appreciation for their accepting the responsibilities of good parents, and say to them "your State is proud of you"; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Andrew and Barbara, and one to each of the Quads.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have discussed this resolution with the Majority Leader. We have agreed under the unusual circumstances to bring the resolution before the House. We cannot congratulate all the parents in the state upon the first birthday of some of their children but in this particular case—it is a case of quadruplets—it is a bit unusual and we decided that we would let the resolution go as a sort of example or inspiration or something for the benefit of the Members of the House. The Majority Leader is saying that he will be darned if he believes any of the Republican Members of the House could live up to the example set by this distinctly Democratic couple in Westmoreland County, so that an occasion such as the first birthday of quadruplets will permit congratulatory resolutions.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I subscribe to the statement of the Minority Leader and the sentiments that he has expressed. I join in the congratulations of the Minority Leader to these parents.

May I say also that if it depends on a Member of this House, majority or minority, whether in the future his wife will have quadruplets, I think that in itself will mean that we will have very few resolutions to act upon during the next ten years.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Andrews cannot blame that on Allegheny, can he?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, Murphy and Maloney had been friends for years and they wound up in the police court, much to the surprise of the natives. This was the story told by Maloney: Maloney was absent from home, his wife was busy getting supper. Murphy came in and Mrs. Maloney says "Will you hold the baby while I will be getting my man his supper?"

So Murphy holds the baby. In comes Maloney, and Maloney asked Murphy, "How are you?" And Murphy said "I'm holding my own". And Maloney hit him in the nose. I don't know whether that might not be the case in Allegheny County now.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. MADIGAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. My inquiry, Mr. Speaker, is concerning the method of procedure, and I desire the attention of the Majority Leader. I long ago learned the futility of embodying good ideas in Democratic-sponsored bills, and so in order to get them out we have on this side sprinkled inspiration for good legislation among the Republican Members, and those ideas have been embodied in bills sponsored by majority Members of the House.

What I want to ask is, now that the tax bills are off the skids, whether it will now be the practice on the majority side to begin releasing the Republican-sponsored bills. I also want to ask and have a rather definite answer, in the importuning of Republican members to release Republican sponsor bills. Should I see the members of the committee or should I consult only the Rules Committee which is a super-duper sort of committee to tell the other Committees what they should do.

I am a plain man from the country, not too familiar with the procedure, and I am very much interested in a large number of bills sponsored by the Republicans that are now in the Committee, some of which have never even organized.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, May I inform the gentlemen that the Chairmen of the several Committees of this House were requested at an early date to organize their Committees. In some instances prior to the organization they have looked at the legislation which has been sent to their particular Committee and have used their discretion as to organizing, in view of the fact that the number of bills they have had to consider is not of any great amount.

It is not necessary for the gentlemen or anyone to come to the Rules Committee of this House—and I speak as chairman, for the purpose of having bills reported out of Committee, kept in Committee, or acted upon by the Committee. The committees were chosen on the basis of experience by the Speaker of this House and I think we have full faith in their ability to do the job assigned to them.

So far as their being Republican-sponsored, we have a certain amount of pride that a bill, bears that name. However, the fact that it is a Republican-sponsored bill per se does not exclude it from consideration by a Committee of this House. We are Members of the House of Representatives and have of course a right as Members to introduce bills which are for the interest of the people that we represent.

Our ideas may differ with those of the minority as to sponsorship. I therefore include Democratic-sponsored bills in my discussion. We determine in Committee the merits of the measure regardless of the sponsor and see that those measures move and have prompt consideration and speedy enactment, should this House agree, into law.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman and I hope that all the committee chairmen listened carefully to what the Majority Leader had to say.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, may I add one thing, please? I do not think the gentleman quite understood what I said. The Committee Chairmen do not need to be informed by the Majority Leader as to what their duties are. They are assuming them and will continue to do so.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WEISS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, last Wednesday the majority party ran through the bill in which the Harrisburg Steel plant was able to be acquired by the state administration. This particular bill gave them the right to bid on the plant at a government sale. According to the papers, the state bought in the property for the price of 515 thousand dollars.

This morning in the Patriot of Harrisburg appeared an article in which it stated

"Even though this agency did buy in the property a week ago, that the Federal Government, which is a little more sympathetic to the steel workers and plain people, gives them a little more time to come in and still buy the property."

In other words when the delegation from the Harrisburg Voters' League went down to Washington they received a very warm reception, and they stated they were well satisfied with the reception given them by Mr. Larson of the War Assets Administration.

However, this same group wired Governor Duff for an appointment to discuss this matter to see if it is not possible to hold up the state sale if it has not already been done, and I am satisfied that the Governor will give the representatives of the Harrisburg Voters' League the same consideration as they had in Washington and treat them courteously. There is a definite possibility that this industrial plant may be acquired by a private company for industrial purposes.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I too read in the paper of the purchase of this plant, or at least the bidding for this plant by the state of Pennsylvania in the amount of 515 thousand dollars.

May I inform the membership at this time that immediately after it was determined that the state of Pennsylvania was the highest bidder a representative of this administration told the Federal government immediately after the sale that if a manufacturing or industrial establishment saw fit to make a higher offer, even though this was a sale without recourse—which the gentleman being an attorney knows, they would retract their bid and allow any industrial establishment which bid more than that price to take title to the real estate.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. AMARANDO asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

By Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. HOUSE BILL No. 529.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. WARNER. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 21.

In the House of Representatives, February 14, 1949.

Whereas, The Clarion River watershed has been polluted by industries and municipalities on its banks for many years and has been ruined by this pollution; and

Whereas, The Clarion River watershed furnishes the population area of Western Pennsylvania with its water supply and affords it a recreational area; and

Whereas, The Clarion River watershed has had a modified pollution abatement program during the past several years, but due to the shortage of materials caused by World War II and the postwar years this program has been curtailed and much work remains to be done; and

Whereas, Many interested private citizens and groups thereof are interested in the Clarion River from a health as well as a recreational standpoint; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of this House of Representatives appoint the member from Clarion County, and that the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint the Senator from the 26th Senatorial District which includes Clarion County, to act with an appointive member of the Sanitary Water Board to be designated by the chairman thereof as a committee to investigate and study pollution and the pollution abatement program in the Clarion River watershed area, and in so doing to cooperate closely with the Sanitary Water Board and to report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee created hereby shall have the power to meet and hold hearings both in Harrisburg and at some place in the Clarion County watershed area; and to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman commanding any proper person to appear before it and to answer questions touching on matters with respect to such investigation for and on behalf of the General Assembly and to procure such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary, such subpoenas may be served upon any proper person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the Courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before it.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE

MONDAY, February 21, 1949

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN B. WILLIAMS offered the following prayer:

Come to us, thy Strength Divine. Cast out of us all pettishness, littleness and bitterness, gird us for every noble battle, give us power to overcome temptation; inspire us with unflagging enthusiasm for good causes; do not allow us to grow faint; make us to have the gentleness and the power of fair-mindedness; lift us by far vision. Come to us, Divine Love, and plead in us and through us for the brotherhood of men, in which no child of thine shall be neglected and unloved.

May the motives that prompt our service be pure, and the spirit in which they are performed be worthy of Thine approval.

Let our bodies become the servant of our souls and our souls servants of Thy Holy Spirit, delivering us from narrowness of soul, from the death-hand of selfishness, from the dust of pride. Deliver us from seeking the praise of men. May we aspire to be crowned only that we may crown Thee Lord of all.

Impel us by Thy spirit to make heaven below that we may be fitted for heaven above.

Our father, in the perplexities of a world still rent by quarrels and tortured by hatred, and of a country confronting grave problems and unprecedented opportunities, we turn to Thee who art King of Kings and Governor of every land; do Thou preside at every council table and in every legislature chamber of the world and of our country. Direct the affairs of all mankind that out of the perils and uncertainties of this time may come the promotion of Thy will, the vindication of Thy law and the acceptance of Thy redeeming love, among all nations, and Thine shall be our praise forever.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. MEADE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. CROWE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 325, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred two of the act approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by providing for free hunting licenses to certain disabled war veterans.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 326, entitled:

An Act relating to forest management and damage caused by improper timber cutting methods resulting in the denuding of vast areas of the Commonwealth, and contributing to undue exhaustion of timber supply, recurring floods, soil erosion and depletion of the water supply; providing for the establishing and organization of District Forest Practice Boards, and the appointment of their officers; prescribing their powers and duties; fixing the powers and duties of the Secretary of Forests and Waters relative to the enforcement of this act; and providing assistance to such District Forest Practice Boards and woodland owners.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 327, entitled:

An Act to amend clause four of subsection B of section fourteen and subsection A of section seventeen of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1110), entitled "An act defining and regulating certain installment sales of motor vehicles; prescribing the conditions under which such sales may be made and regulating the financing thereof; regulating and licensing persons engaged in the business of making or financing such sales; prescribing the form, contents and effect of instruments used in connection with such sales and the financing thereof; prescribing certain rights and obligations of buyers, sellers, persons financing such sales and others; limiting incidental charges in connection with such instruments and fixing maximum interest rates for delinquencies, extensions and loans; regulating insurance in connection with such sales; regulating repossessions, redemptions, resales and deficiency judgments and the rights of parties with respect thereto; authorizing extensions, loans and forbearances related to such sales; authorizing investigations and examinations of persons engaged in the business of making or financing such sales; prescribing penalties and repealing certain acts," by further prescribing the form and contents of contracts used in connection with such sales and the financing thereof; and by further regulating insurance in connection with such sales.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 328, entitled:

An Act making appropriations to the Department of Property and Supplies and the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to be used to purchase property in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania and in restoration work at Pottsgrove, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. LORD, JR., read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 329, entitled:

An Act relating to the provision of child welfare services by institution districts; providing for Commonwealth reimbursements to institution districts electing to accept and complying with the provisions of this act, for the administration of child welfare services by institution districts through child welfare boards or advisory committees designated or appointed by them, and by persons employed by them under a merit system; imposing powers and duties on such institution districts and their child welfare boards and advisory committees, the Department of Welfare, and the Civil Service Commission; and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 330, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Health for use in research and demonstration work dealing with the improvement of nutritional status of civilians, including children and elderly people as well as family groups, industrial workers and others.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, we have now been in session about two months and we are still on our honeymoon, no harm has been done, and no good has been done, so I propose to introduce a bill that may do some good to us and to the people of this Commonwealth.

Back in 1945 we passed an Act of Assembly setting up authorities in local municipalities. Some of them have been organized and have brought to our Commonwealth a number of new industries. Some time before that we set up in Pennsylvania a new department, the Department of Commerce, which of course is limited because of lack of funds.

I am very much interested in trying to preserve the industries we have in Pennsylvania and to bring to our Commonwealth new industries, so under the Act of 1945, in the year of 1947 in my own town, we heard of an industry going to Alabama, the Phillips-Jones people, and we were able, under that act, to sell bonds, to float a bond issue, and bring to my town a plant which has placed to work some 350 girls.

Now, Mr. President, within the last two months, we had another opportunity, the Timken Roller Bearing people from Detroit, but because of lack of funds and lack of space, we were unable to take advantage of it. So I am now presenting a bill, Mr. President, where the State will participate with local municipalities to the extent of one third of the amount of expenditures paid up to $300,000. The local community will spend two thirds, and amortize any building of a new industry for a period of 20 years, and the State will be refunded every cent of money invested, and in this way will encourage local municipalities to bring to the Commonwealth new industries.

I am certain, Mr. President, that if a bill of this nature is passed, it will bring to our Commonwealth new industry, in line with the Governor's program.

Under this proposed bill, the Department of Commerce would first scrutinize very carefully the liabilities and qualifications of any new industry. If the Department of Commerce would find that it is a sound industry, then they would, with any local authority, join hands and advance one-third of the money needed to build the plant or buy equipment to give our people work.

I trust, Mr. President, that the Committee will consider this bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HALUSKA and LANE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 331, entitled:

An Act to encourage the location of new and the expansion of existing industries in the Commonwealth through the granting of State-aid to municipality authorities for the construction of industrial plants, placing certain limitations and restrictions on such loans and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. FRAZIER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 332, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 510), entitled, "An act providing for the licensure and regulation of certain private nursing homes and private hospitals; conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Welfare; and providing penalties," by including private boarding homes operated for profit and excluding private boarding homes operated on a non-profit basis.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 333, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Board of Finance and Revenue from the State Stores Fund for refund of distillers' licenses.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. WATKINS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 334, entitled:
